Old Saint Peter's, Rome Rosamond McKitterick, John Osborne, Carol M. Richardson, Joanna Story, 2013-11-07 Provides the first full study of the predecessor church of St Peter's Basilica in Rome from late antique construction to Renaissance destruction

Old Saint Peter's, Rome Rosamond McKitterick, John Osborne, Carol M. Richardson, Joanna Story, 2013-11-07 St Peter's Basilica in Rome is arguably the most important church in Western Christendom and is among the most significant buildings anywhere in the world. However, the church that is visible today is a youthful upstart only four hundred years old compared to the twelve hundred year old church whose site it occupies. A very small proportion of the original is now extant, entirely covered over by the new basilica, but enough survives to make reconstruction of the first St Peter's possible and much new evidence has been uncovered in the past thirty years. This is the first full study of the older church from its late antique construction to Renaissance destruction in its historical context. An international team of historians, art historians, archaeologists and liturgists explores aspects of the basilica's history from its physical fabric to the activities that took place within its walls and its relationship with the city of Rome.

The Early Modern Invention of Late Antique Rome Nicola Denzey Lewis, 2020-09-03 A new look at the Cult of the Saints in late antiquity: did it really dominate Christianity in late antique Rome?

In the Footsteps of the Etruscans Graeme Barker, Tom Rasmussen, 2023-10-12 In the Footsteps of the Etruscans describes the archaeology of the countryside within a ten km radius of the small town of Tuscania near Rome, throwing light on the unrecorded lives of the generations of farmers and shepherds who have lived there. What was the character of prehistoric settlement prior to Etruscan urbanization? How did urbanization shape the lives of the ordinary Etruscans working the land, hardly ever addressed in Etruscan archaeology? What was the impact on these people of being absorbed into the expanding Roman empire and its globalised economic structures? How did the empire's collapse and the subsequent emergence of the nucleated medieval village affect Tuscania's rural population? The project's 7500 year archaeological history from the first farmers to those grappling with globalisation today contributes eloquently to our understanding of how Mediterranean peoples have constantly shaped their landscape and been shaped by it.

Domesticating Saints in Medieval and Early Modern Rome Maya Maskarinec, 2025-03-04 How elite Roman families used genealogy, architecture and the urban fabric to appropriate the city's saints for their own. Domesticating Saints in Medieval and Early Modern Rome explores the creative efforts of some of Rome's most prominent noble families to weave themselves into Rome's Christian past. Maya Maskarinec shows how from late antiquity to early modernity elite Roman families used genealogy, architecture and the urban fabric to appropriate the city's saints for their own, eventually claiming them as ancestors Over the course of the Middle Ages there developed a pronounced sense that churches and their saints belonged to specific regions neighborhoods and even families These associations coupled with a resurgent interest in Rome s Christian antiquity as well as in noble lineages enabled Roman families to domesticate the city s saints and dominate the urban landscape and its politics into the early modern era These families cultivated saintly genealogies and saintly topologies exploiting for example the increasingly prolific identification of churches as the former residences of early Christian and late antique saints cementing presumed connections between place descent and moral worth Drawing from sources spanning the fourth to the late sixteenth century Maskarinec brings into conversation saints lives documentary evidence family genealogies monumental and domestic architecture and medieval and early modern guidebooks sources not often studied together Bridging the divide between secular and sacred histories of Rome Domesticating Saints in Medieval and Early Modern Rome repositions these materials within a new story of how Romans made the city s classical and Christian past their own and thereby empowered and immortalized their families

Emerging Iconographies of Medieval Rome examines the development of Christian iconographies that had not yet established themselves as canonical images but which were being tried out in various ways in early Christian Rome This book focuses on four different iconographical forms that appeared in Rome during the eighth and ninth centuries the Anastasis the Transfiguration the Maria Regina and the Sickness of Hezekiah all of which were labeled Byzantine by major mid twentieth century scholars The trend has been to readily accede to the pronouncements of those prominent authors subjugating these rich images to a grand narrative that privileges the East and turns Rome into an artistic backwater In this study Annie Montgomery Labatt reacts against traditional scholarship which presents Rome as merely an adjunct of the East It studies medieval images with formal and stylistic analyses in combination with use of the writings of the patristics and early medieval thinkers The experimentation and innovation in the Christian iconographies of Rome in the eighth and ninth centuries provides an affirmation of the artistic vibrancy of Rome in the period before a divided East and West Labatt revisits and revives a lost and forgotten Rome not as a peripheral adjunct of the East but as a center of creativity and artistic innovation Worshippers of the Gods Mattias P. Gassman,2020 Worshippers of the Gods shows how fourth century Latin writers rethought traditional religion during Christianity s rise Through five interlocking studies of inscriptions laws senatorial papers and Christian polemics it traces shifting conceptions of paganism from the Tetrarchic persecution through Constantine s reign to the disestablishment of the Roman cults in the 380s Rome in the Eighth Century John Osborne,2020-07-09 A history of Rome in the critical eighth century CE focusing on the evidence of material culture and archaeology The Papacy and the Orthodox A. Edward Siecienski,2017-01-12 The Papacy and the Orthodox examines the centuries long debate over the primacy and authority of the Bishop of Rome especially in relation to the Christian East and offers a comprehensive history of the debate and its underlying theological issues Siecienski masterfully brings together all of the biblical patristic and historical material necessary to understand this longstanding debate This book is an invaluable resource as both Catholics and Orthodox continue to reexamine the sources and history of the debate Passion and Compassion in Early Christianity Susan Wessel,2016-06-09 This book examines how early Christians cultivated affective compassion as a virtue in a Roman world that valued emotional tranquillity Routledge Handbook on Christian-Muslim Relations David Thomas,2017-08-16 The matter of Christian Muslim relations cannot be ignored these days While the term itself may not appear all that often relations between the two faiths and their reciprocal perceptions are undeniable influences behind many current conflicts declarations of mutual recognition and peace negotiations not to mention the brooding hatred of religious extremists Since 9 11 relations between the two faiths have in one form or another hardly been away from the news This Handbook contains fundamental information about the major aspects of relations between Christians and Muslims Its various sections follow the history from the early seventh century to the present the major religious issues that have led to disputes between the two faiths and the political implications of religious differences at various stages through history as well as in the present It includes analysis of scriptural and theological themes and explores the characteristics of relations at important points in history and also in various parts of the world today Chapters are devoted to the most significant intellectual interpretations and encounters the main armed clashes including the Crusades and the important documents issued by each faith that in recent years have led the way towards new developments in recognition and acceptance With chapters written by some of the foremost experts in the field the book traces the largely dark history of relations and explains the underlying reasons why Muslims and Christians have found tolerance and respect for the other difficult It is an excellent resource for understanding the past and for highlighting lessons for future relations between the world s two largest religions Cosmos and Community in Early Medieval Art Benjamin

Anderson, 2017-02-28 In the rapidly changing world of the early Middle Ages depictions of the cosmos represented a consistent point of reference across the three dominant states the Frankish Byzantine and Islamic Empires As these empires diverged from their Greco Roman roots between 700 and 1000 A D and established distinctive medieval artistic traditions cosmic imagery created a web of visual continuity though local meanings of these images varied greatly Benjamin Anderson uses thrones tables mantles frescoes and manuscripts to show how cosmological motifs informed relationships between individuals especially the ruling elite and communities demonstrating how domestic and global politics informed the production and reception of these depictions The first book to consider such imagery across the dramatically diverse cultures of Western Europe Byzantium and the Islamic Middle East Cosmos and Community in Early Medieval Art illuminates the distinctions between the cosmological art of these three cultural spheres and reasserts the centrality of astronomical imagery to the study of art history
