Constructing Oman's Peaceful Identity Giulia Daga, 2024-08-27 This book offers a comprehensive and insightful exploration of Oman's discourses on foreign policy and national identity in the context of the Middle East The Sultanate of Oman is often hailed as a peaceful exception in the region but this work goes beyond surface level observations to reveal the intricate complexities of Oman's foreign policy and identity construction With a keen focus on deconstructing essentialist understandings the chapters delve into how discursive alignments and identity contents have shaped the government's quest for legitimacy recognition and status Employing a pioneering discourse historical approach to compare the National Day speeches and UN General Assembly speeches throughout Sultan Qaboos bin Said Al Bu Saidi's reign 1970-2020 the author reveals how discourse evolved based on time issues and audiences Notably the book situates Oman within the context of the Gulf Cooperation Council states examining how the Omani government's interlinked discourses on identity and foreign policy contributed to differentiate the Sultanate from other Gulf countries With chapters exploring Oman's foreign policy principles its material and ideological response to the ideas linked to the Dhofar Revolution and its interactions with the Arab world and the international community readers of this book will gain a comprehensive understanding of Oman's evolving national and supranational identifications and the dynamic nature of its foreign policy Challenging prevailing narratives while providing a fresh perspective on the relations between Oman's foreign policy and identity construction this book marks an important text for scholars as well as policymakers and anyone interested in understanding the intricate dynamics of Oman's role in the global stage

Promoting Religious Freedom in an Age of Intolerance Rieffer-Flanagan, Barbara A., 2022-09-15 In an age of intolerance where religious persecution is widespread Barbara Ann Rieffer Flanagan explores how societies can promote freedom of religion or belief as a fundamental right of citizens From Alliance to Union Joseph A. Kéchichian, 2016-05-24 After the conservative Arab Gulf Monarchies Bahrain Kuwait Oman Qatar Saudi Arabia and the United Arab Emirates UAE joined forces on 25 May 1981 within the Gulf Cooperation Council GCC few fathomed that security requirements on and around the Arabian Peninsula would be so precarious and for so long To answer their search for permanent stability Arab Gulf rulers erected a regional alliance that sought to integrate internal and regional defences as well as strengthen their existing socio economic ties Several of the monarchies even hoped that co ordination on foreign policy issues over which near unanimity existed could eventually lead to a full fledged union as envisaged in the organisation s founding charter Between 1981 and 2015 these Arab Gulf monarchies experienced major socio political transformations resulting from upheavals throughout the Arab and Muslim worlds The perceived necessity to bring about a full fledged union has come into conflict with entrenched viewpoints from regimes that value traditional military political roles and norms In this new study Joseph A Kechichian provides an evaluation of GCC States military institutions to better evaluate whether a stable alliance is capable of enduring over the next few decades and how civilian leaders perceive the role and influence of their military officers for the task Kechichian raises fundamental questions over internal regional and international threats including an existential challenge emanating from the Islamic revolutionary government of Iran and assesses how GCC professionals may be preparing to tackle them He further elucidates on the best methods to meet security challenges not only to secure political survival but also to determine whether conservative Arab Gulf regimes can flourish outside an effective alliance The volume concludes with an examination of evolving civil military relations in the GCC States

Branding the Middle East Steffen Wippel, 2023-10-04 This edited volume investigates place product and personal branding in the Middle East and North Africa including some studies from adjacent regions and the wider Islamicate world Going beyond simply presenting logos and slogans it critically analyses processes of strategic communication and image building under general conditions of globalisation neoliberalisation and postmodernisation and in a regional perspective of lasting authoritarian rule and increased endeavours for worlding In particular it looks at the multiple actors involved in branding activities their interests and motives and investigates tools channels and forms of branding A major interest exists in the entanglements of different spatial scales and in the inconsistencies of communication measures Attention is paid to reconfigurations of certain images over time and to the positioning of objects of branding in time and space Historical case studies supplement the focus on contemporary branding efforts While branding in the Western world and many emerging economies has been meticulously analysed this edited volume fills an important gap in the research on MENA countries

Oman Reborn Linda Pappas Funsch, 2015-12-29 The Sultanate of Oman is one of the few good news stories to have emerged from the Middle East in recent memory This book traces the narrative of a little known and relatively stable Arab country whose history of independence legacy of interaction with diverse cultures and enlightened modern leadership have transformed it in less than fifty years from an isolated medieval style potentate to a stable dynamic and largely optimistic country At the heart of this fascinating story is Oman s sultan Qaboos bin Sa id friend to both East and West whose unique leadership style has resulted in both domestic and foreign policy achievements during more than four decades in office Exploring Oman from a historical perspective Funsch examines how the country's unique blend of tradition and modernization has enabled it to succeed while others in the region have failed. Accounts of the author's own experiences with Oman's transformation add rich layers of depth, texture and personality to the narrative. Global Dynamics of Shi'a Marriages Yafa Shanneik, Annelies Moors, 2021-10-15 Muslim marriages have been the focus of considerable public debate in Europe and beyond in Muslim majority countries as well as in settings where Muslims are a minority. Most academic work has focused on how the majority Sunni Muslims conclude marriages. This volume in contrast focuses on Twelver Shi'a Muslims in Iran, Pakistan, Oman, Indonesia, Norway and the Netherlands. The volume makes an original contribution to understanding the global dynamics of Shi'a marriage practices in a wide range of contexts not only its geographical spread but also by providing a critical analysis of the socio-economic, religious, ethnic and political discourses of each context. The book sheds light on new marriage forms presented through a bottom-up approach focusing on the lived experiences of Shi'a Muslims negotiating a diverse range of relationships and forms of belonging. Why Human Rights Still Matter in Contemporary Global Affairs Mahmood Monshipouri, 2020-04-29 This book elucidates why human rights still matter in contemporary global affairs and what can lead to better protection of international human rights in a post-liberal order. It blends theoretical, empirical and normative perspectives while providing much needed analysis in light of the perils of populism, authoritarianism and toxic nationalism as well as highlighting the hopes with which people around the world view human rights in the new millennium. Systematically combining theoretical perspectives from across the disciplines with numerous case studies, it demonstrates not only the complexities of the domestic conditions involved but also the ways in which human dignity can be preserved and promoted during periods of rapid change and uncertainty. Finally, the book addresses the question of how to protect human rights in such a world in which the active promotion of democratic values and enforcement of human rights may not be necessarily aligned with evolving economic and geopolitical interests of many great and diverse powers on the global scene. As such, it is a timely intervention for human rights as a concept as it has been attacked and eroded by the instability in our world today. This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of human rights in politics, law, philosophy, sociology and history and to humanitarian bodies, practitioners and policy makers. L'Oman contemporain Thibaut Klinger, 2021-12-31 Since 1970, Oman has taken up the challenge of shaping an imagined community and unifying an ancient territory that was torn apart in the past by secession or civil wars. Spatial planning has been at the heart of its policy, guided by a carefully defined national identity to broadly integrate the physical and human components of the country. With the integration into globalization and the emphasis on tourism to diversify the economy too dependent on hydrocarbons, the national narrative becomes a brand. What are the reciprocal effects of branding and spatial planning? Tourism particularly reveals these interactions but also the effects on the governance of the sultanate while heritage plays a complex role anchoring branding in a deep political project. The image of tolerance, a true brand of Oman in a regional environment of religious divisions is clearly

part of the country's territory strongly associating branding and spatial planning

Russia and the GCC Diana Galeeva, 2022-12-29 In recent decades Russia has played an increasingly active role in the Middle East as states within the region continue to diversify their relations with major external powers Yet the role of specific Russian regions especially those that share an Islamic identity with the GCC has been overlooked In this book Diana Galeeva examines the relations between the Gulf States and Russia from the Soviet era to the present day Using the Republic of Tatarstan one of Russia's Muslim polities as a case study Galeeva demonstrates the emergence of relations between modern Tatarstan and the GCC States evolving from concerns with economic survival to a rising paradiplomacy reliant on shared Islamic identities Having conducted fieldwork in the Muslim Republics of Tatarstan Bashkortostan and Dagestan the book includes interviews with high ranking political figures heads of religious organisations and academics Moving beyond solely economic and geopolitical considerations the research in this book sheds light on the increasingly important role that culture and shared Islamic identity play in paradiplomacy efforts
