On Becoming A Servant Leader The Private Writings Of Robert K Greenleaf:

On Becoming a Servant Leader Don M. Frick, Larry C. Spears, 1996-05-08 Uplift Your Heart and Increase Your Effectiveness Delve into the personal writings of the grandfather of the modern empowerment movement in business leadership In this collection of previously unpublished works eminent writer consultant and lecturer Robert Greenleaf shares his personal and professional philosophy which postulates that true leaders are those who lead by serving others Spanning a time frame of fifty years these essays and lectures touch on such key issues as power ethics management organizations and servanthood And they offer the reader a wealth of practical suggestions and useful information garnered through the course of a remarkable career To Be a Servant-Leader Stephen Prosser, 2007 Based upon or inspired by biblical texts To Be a Servant Leader examines the main characteristics or principles of leadership The Power of Servant-Leadership Robert K. Greenleaf, 1998-09-04 Based on the seminal work of Robert K Greenleaf a former AT T executive who coined the term almost thirty years ago servant leadership emphasizes an emerging approach to leadership one which puts serving others including employees customers and community first The Power of Servant Leadership is a collection of eight of Greenleaf's most compelling essays on servant leadership These essays published together in one volume for the first time contain many of Greenleaf's best insights into the nature and practice of servant leadership and show his continual refinement of the servant as leader concept In addition several of the essays focus on the related issues of spirit commitment to vision and wholeness Servant Leadership Models for Your Parish Dan R. Ebener, 2010 Servant Leadership Models for Your Parish explores the practice of servant leadership in a church context It presents seven behaviors practiced by leaders and members in high performing parishes and provides real life examples of these practices The unique contribution of this work to the national discussion about parish life and leadership is its description of servant leadership and its explanation of how it works in a parish This work suggests that parish life can be viewed in light of business principles such as the organizational behaviors of leaders and members in a Christian parish and religious teaching particularly the message of Jesus who taught leaders to be servants and members to be disciples Intended for pastors and parish leaders pastoral associates and deacons parish staff and lay members of parishes who are interested in leadership it is sure to be indispensable reading for anyone who is interested in changing or improving the leadership the activities and the culture of their parish Leadership and Listening Donald E. Zimmer, 2011-06-22 Church leaders must fundamentally change the way they view leadership governance and management in their organizations if they are to take seriously the need to listen to God's desires before acting In Leadership and Listening readers will find encouragement and specific suggestions for reimagining church governance and management Zimmer observes that the contemporary church is rooted in both the kingdom of God and the systems and cultures of government and business Most people who serve in governing and management roles in the church in the United States today have been formed in the corporate world and acculturated to parliamentary process As a result many church governing boards are about business rather than their primary task discerning God's desires for the part of the church they serve Through research with more than one hundred church leaders Zimmer learned that the church and the business community possess many insights and resources that can help boards shift toward a focus on seeking first the desires of God's heart and then responding effectively By drawing on the guidance Zimmer offers a church board can transform itself from a group that manages the day to day affairs of the church to one that makes listening prayer worship reflection and community the first priority
