The Little Green Book of Gardening Wisdom Barbara Burn, 2014-03-04 Surprising as it may seem the first place an experienced gardener looks for advice and ideas is not the local gardening store or even the nearby botanical garden but a good library Gardeners have been sharing their wisdom for thousands of years and their books and treatises still provide a rich resource for growers and landscapers today Here in this volume is a bouquet of quotations that will strike a responsive chord with anyone who has ever worked the soil or just admired nature s handiwork Areas that are covered include the metaphorical Some men like to make a little garden out of life and walk down a path Jean Anouilh The Lark 1952 words of encouragement Then seek your job with thankfulness and work till further orders If it s only netting strawberries or killing slugs on borders And when your back stops aching and your hands begin to harden You will find yourself a partner in the Glory of the Garden Rudyard Kipling The Glory of the Garden 1911 reflection To sit in the shade on a fine day and look upon verdure is the most perfect refreshment Jane Austen Mansfield Park 1814 and the practical Three fundamental aspects of border design site shape and size have at least as great an effect on the ease of garden maintenance as does the actual selection of plants Frederick McGourty The Perennial Gardener 1989 and much more Drawing on sources ranging from the earliest agrarian civilizations to the present The Little Red Book of Gardening Wisdom is a treasury of great ideas that will delight amateur and expert gardeners alike

Art and the Gardener Gordon Hayward, 2008 In Art and the Gardener Gordon Hayward s tenth book on garden design he makes a radical departure from his earlier approaches in order to explore elements of visual language across two artistic disciplines fine painting and garden design in hopes that the remarkable crosscurrents will help reveal how to design or simply appreciate your garden with greater acuity

Beatrix Farrand Judith B. Tankard, 2022-03-29 The only monograph to chronicle the life and work of one of the most important figures in American landscape architecture Beatrix Farrand the only female founder of the American Society of Landscape Architects is one of the most important landscape architects of the early twentieth century Today the scope of her work and her influence on the profession are widely acknowledged and her gardens are being studied restored and opened to the public A long awaited updated edition of the 2009 definitive monograph Beatrix Farrand Garden Artist Landscape Architect chronicles the life and work of one of the most important figures in American landscape architecture Born into a prominent New York family she was Edith Wharton s niece Farrand designed lavish gardens for the leaders of society including the Harknesses the Rockefellers and the Blisses Ultimately her portfolio extended to college and university campuses including Princeton Yale and the University of Chicago and public gardens the Santa Barbara Botanic Garden and the Rose Garden at the New York Botanical Garden among them Her best known design is the landscape at Dumbarton Oaks in Washington D C originally a private residence with extensive grounds and now a research center for Harvard University surrounded by a naturalistic park restored and maintained by the National Park Service Deeply influenced by the English garden designer Gertrude Jekyll Farrand was known for broad expanses of lawn with deep swaths of borders planted in a subtle palette of foliage and flowers In her public work she adapted this design strategy to create paths and plantings that define the character of the space and the circulation through it Heavily illustrated with archival images and photographs of her gardens at their peak many taken especially for this book Beatrix Farrand Garden Artist Landscape Architect also displays beautiful watercolor wash renderings of her designs now preserved at College of Environmental Design of the University of California at Berkeley The new edition includes updated images that reflect the current state of gardens including the Peggy Rockefeller Rose Garden at the New York Botanical Garden the International House Courtyard at the University of Chicago Garland Farm Farrand's last home and garden which has recently been restored Dumbarton Oaks Dumbarton Oaks Park which was not included in the first edition among others The book concludes with a comprehensive list of Farrand's commissions and the gardens open to the public providing direction for further study and exploration It also features a new preface outlining the milestones in research since the first edition's publication updated details about ownership and renovations of many properties and a revised bibliography including articles and books published over the past ten years Published to coincide with the 150th anniversary of Farrand's birth and written by landscape historian and preservation consultant Judith B Tankard Beatrix Farrand Garden Artist Landscape Architect takes readers on a tour of Farrand's finest works celebrating her influence on succeeding generations of women landscape architects

New Garden Design: Inspiring Private Paradises Zahid Sardar, 2009-09 From vegetable and succulent gardens to sculpture and rose gardens to mountain and waterfront gardens New Garden Design covers a range of interpretations incorporating walls fountains pavilions canals pools terraces and groves in unexpected ways The resulting new garden is a pleasure garden vested with spiritual symbolic and ecological intent A modernist interpretation of Roman stone furniture and freestanding walls punctuate the space behind a 1970s ranch house A home designed by Bernard Maybeck is accented with a freehand composition of urns cement pipes and rusty objects as well as over a thousand species of plants A grove of olive trees underplanted with rosemary and lavender fields gives personality to two acres surrounding a house designed by modernist Mexican architect Ricardo Legorreta
