The Spirit of the Appalachian Trail Susan Power Bratton, 2013-08-30 Want to know what wilderness means to people who live it for over two thousand miles Then read this extremely interesting informative intelligent and thoughtful book Roger S Gottlieb author of Engaging Voices Tales of Morality and Meaning in an Age of Global Warming There is no doubt that Bratton's book will be of value to students and scholars of leisure studies recreation and religion Those who are familiar with the Appalachian Trail sense intuitively that a journey along its length kindles spiritual awakening this book provides the hard data to prove it's true David Brill author of As Far as the Eye Can See Reflections of an Appalachian Trail Hiker The Appalachian Trail covers 2 180 miles passing through fourteen states from Georgia to Maine Each year an estimated 2 3 million people visit the trail and almost two thousand attempt a thru hike walking the entire distance of the path For many the journey transcends a mere walk in the woods and becomes a modern day pilgrimage In The Spirit of the Appalachian Trail Community Environment and Belief Susan Power Bratton addresses the spiritual dimensions of hiking the Appalachian Trail AT Hikers often comment on how their experience as thru hikers changes them spiritually forever but this is the first study to evaluate these religious or quasireligious claims critically Rather than ask if wilderness and outdoor recreation have benefits for the soul this volume investigates specifically how long distance walking might enhance both body and mind Most who are familiar with the AT sense intuitively that a trek along its length kindles spiritual awakening Using both a quantitative and qualitative approach this book provides the hard data to support this notion Bratton bases her work on five sources an exhaustive survey of long distance AT hikers published trail diaries and memoirs hikers own logs and postings her own personal observations from many years on the trail and conversations with numerous members of the AT community including the trail angels residents of small towns along the path who attend to hikers need for food shelter or medical attention The abundant photographs reinforce the text and enable visualization of the cultural and natural context This volume is fully indexed with extensive reference and notes sections and detailed appendixes Written in an engaging and accessible style The Spirit of the Appalachian Trail presents a full picture of the spirituality of the AT Susan Power Bratton is professor of environmental studies She is the author of Six Billion and More Human Population Regulation and Christian Ethics Environmental Values in Christian Art and Christianity Wilderness and Wildlife The Original Desert Solitaire

Zen on the Trail Christopher Ives, 2018-09-11 Discover how hiking can be a kind of spiritual pilgrimage calming our minds enhancing our sense of wonder and deepening our connection to nature Evoking the writings of Gary Snyder Bill Bryson and Cheryl Strayed Zen on the Trail explores the broad question of how to be outside in a meditative way By directing our attention to how we hike as opposed to where we're headed Ives invites us to shift from ego driven doing to spirit filled being and to explore the vast interconnection of ourselves and the natural world Through this approach we can wake up in the woods on nature's own terms In erudite and elegant prose Ives takes us on a journey we will not soon forget This book features a new prose poem by Gary Snyder

Appalachian Trail Hiker Victoria Logue, Frank Logue, 2013-05-15 The Appalachian Trail Hiker is a one stop guide to preparing for and hiking the A T Although primarily geared to prepare and sustain the intrepid thru hiker the book is also a must have for anyone who wishes to experience the A T whether for an hour or for six months Walking with Jason John F. Hunt, 2013-04 John Hunt is a kind and gregarious man His eyes twinkle and his face beams He is a retired businessman and still retains that drive I met John the summer of 2000 He came for the graduation ceremony of the crew of students that Jason had led and we talked Jason had a difficult course which is common for new instructors The next summer Jason emerged as a solid leader and had a wonderful course Several months later while on a climbing vacation in British Columbia Jason took a tragic fall His family's reaction was to create a foundation in Jason's name that supported his love of the outdoors The Jason William Hunt Foundation had had tremendous impact on many people especially young people in transition who want to expand their horizons This happens in an outdoor setting lead by instructors like Jason It happens every summer at the Wilderness School John's only son Jason will forever be twenty four years old My son John is twenty five Our sons like many young men seek adventure Parents care deeply about their children and the fear of losing a child dwells in all of us How does a parent cope with the tragic loss of their beloved child Walking with Jason is a quest to trace Jason's brief life as a young man John becomes the youthful adventurer and visits Jason's world John seemingly falls through the looking glass and discovers a mysterious and wonderful world inhabited by troubled adolescents craggy Thru hikers idealistic outdoor leaders and others who visit nature's realm Ultimately John's odyssey is a very personal journey of self discovery and gives us a compass bearing on how to deal with the sudden loss of a child I will forever be connected to Jason Danielle Amy Rosemarie and John Thank you for generous hearts and concern for youth Tom Dyer L C S W Instructor 1980 1983 Director Youth Wilderness School 1983 2009 Founding Director Wilderness School East Hartland CT 1990 Journal of Appalachian Studies, 2001 Appalachian Outlook, 1998 The North Carolina Historical Review, 2001 Zen wędrowni.
