Equally important to our understanding of history and humanity are the great works of literature The Nobel Prize for literature recognises modern classics and the efforts of authors to bridge gaps between different cultures time periods and styles the prizewinners between 1968 and 1980 are from four continents These volumes are collections of the Nobel lectures delivered by the prizewinners together with their biographies portraits and presentation speeches for the period 1968 1980 Each Nobel lecture is based on the work that won the laureate his prize New biographical data of the laureates since they were awarded the Nobel prize are also included These volumes of inspiring lectures by outstanding individuals should be on everyone's bookshelf Below is a list of the prizewinners during the period 1968 1980

1968 Y KAWABATA for his narrative mastery which with great sensibility expresses the essence of the Japanese mind

1969 S BECKETT for his writing which in new forms for the novel and drama in the destitution of modern man acquires its elevation

1970 A SOLZHENITSYN for the ethical force with which he has pursued the indispensable traditions of Russian literature

1971 P NERUDA for a poetry that with the action of an elemental force brings alive a continent's destiny and dreams

1972 H B LLL for his writing which through its combination of a broad perspective on his time and a sensitive skill in characterization has contributed to a renewal of German literature

1973 P WHITE for an epic and psychological narrative art which has introduced a new continent to literature

1974 E JOHNSON for a narrative art far seeing in lands and ages in the service of freedom

H MARTINSON for writings that catch the dewdrop and reflect the cosmos

1975 E MONTALE for his distinctive poetry which with great artistic sensitivity has interpreted human values under the sign of an outlook on life with no illusions

1976 S BELLOW for the human understanding and subtle analysis of contemporary culture that are combined in his work

1977 V ALEIXANDRE for a creative poetic writing which illuminates man's condition in the cosmos and in present day society at the same time representing the great renewal of the traditions of Spanish poetry between the wars

1978 I B SINGER for his impassioned narrative art which with roots in a Polish Jewish cultural tradition brings universal human conditions to life

1979 O ELYTIS for his poetry which against the background of Greek tradition depicts with sensuous strength and intellectual clear sightedness modern man's struggle for freedom and creativeness

1980 C MI OSZ who with uncompromising clear sightedness voices man's exposed condition in a world of severe conflicts

The influence of intellectuals is not only greater than in previous eras but also takes a very different form from that envisioned by those like Machiavelli and others who have wanted to directly influence rulers It has not been by shaping the opinions or directing the actions of the holders of power that modern intellectuals have most influenced the course of events but by shaping public opinion in ways that affect the actions of power holders in democratic societies whether or not those power holders accept the general vision or the particular policies favored by intellectuals Even government leaders with disdain or contempt for intellectuals have had to bend to the climate of opinion shaped by those intellectuals Intellectuals and Society not only examines the track record of intellectuals in the things they have advocated but also analyzes the incentives and constraints under which their views and visions have emerged One of the most surprising aspects of this study is how often intellectuals have been proved not only wrong but grossly and disastrously wrong in their prescriptions for the ills of society and how little their views have changed in response to empirical evidence of the disasters entailed by those views Nobel Laureates in Chemistry, 1901-1992 James K. Milosz Andrzej Franaszek, 2017-04-24 Andrzej Franaszek s award winning biography of Czeslaw Milosz the great Polish poet and winner of the Nobel Prize in Literature in 1980 offers a rich portrait of the writer and his troubled century providing context for a larger appreciation of his work This English language edition translated by Aleksandra Parker and Michael Parker contains a new introduction by the translators along with historical explanations maps and a chronology Franaszek recounts the poet s personal odyssey through the events that convulsed twentieth century Europe World War I the Bolshevik revolution the Nazi invasion and occupation of Poland and the Soviet Union s postwar dominance of Eastern Europe He follows the footsteps of a perpetual outsider who spent much of his unsettled life in Lithuania Poland and France where he sought political asylum From 1960 to 1999 Milosz lived in the United States before returning to Poland where he died in 2004 Franaszek traces Milosz s changing constantly questioning often skeptical attitude toward organized religion In the long term he concluded that faith performed a positive role not least as an antidote to the amoral soulless materialism that afflicts contemporary civilization Despite years of hardship alienation and neglect Milosz retained a belief in the transformative power of poetry particularly its capacity to serve as a source of moral resistance and a reservoir of collective hope Seamus Heaney once said that Milosz s poetry is irradiated by wisdom Milosz reveals how that wisdom was tempered by experience even as the poet retained a childlike wonder in a misbegotten world „Faltenwürfe“ in Heinrich Bölls Irischem Tagebuch Thorsten M.
