Sexuality & Ageing Walter Bouman,Peggy Kleinplatz,2017-10-02 Across the globe both in developed and developing countries the population is rapidly ageing In the fields of sexual and relationship therapy and sexual health ageing has not been an issue of priority Too often ageing is thought of as a process that relates to problems deficits and taboos and less to pleasure change growth and diversity It is treated as a separate life stage and not a process throughout the lifecycle Sexuality and sexual health are important parts of the lives of older people as they have a significant impact on quality of life psychological well being and physical health as well as social and family life This book brings together contributions from those currently writing on and researching ageing as it relates in a therapeutic context to gender identity to sex and sexuality and to intimate relationships This book was originally published as a special issue of Sexual and Relationship Therapy The Hormone Connection
