also related problems in schools manifesting in high rates of suicide depression anxiety eating disorders self cutting truancy and substance abuse After two decades working in schools as a school social worker and professor Klein proposes ways to transcend these destructive trends transforming school bully societies into compassionate communities States of Emergency Patrick M. McKinnon, Grassroots Memorials Peter Jan Margry, Cristina Sánchez-Carretero, 2011-08-01 Grassroots memorials have become major areas of focus during times of trauma danger and social unrest These improvised memorial assemblages continue to display new and more dynamic ways of representing collective and individual identities and in doing so reveal the steps that shape the national memories of those who struggle to come to terms with traumatic loss This volume focuses on the hybrid quality of these temporary memorials as both monuments of mourning and as focal points for protest and expression of discontent The broad range of case studies in this volume include anti mafia shrines Theo van Gogh's memorial September 11th memorials March 11th shrines in Madrid and Carlo Giuliani memorials in Genoa Comprehending Columbine Ralph W Larkin, 2007-01-12 On April 20 1999 two Colorado teenagers went on a shooting rampage at Columbine High School That day Eric Harris and Dylan Klebold killed twelve fellow students and a teacher as well as wounding twenty four other people before they killed themselves Although there have been other books written about the tragedy this is the first serious impartial investigation into the cultural environmental and psychological causes of the massacre Based on first hand interviews and a thorough reading of the relevant literature Ralph Larkin examines the complex of factors that led the two young men to plan and carry out their deed For Harris and Klebold Larkin concludes the carnage was an act of revenge against the jocks who had harassed and humiliated them retribution against evangelical students who acted as if they were morally superior an acting out of the mythology of right wing paramilitary organization members to die in a blaze of glory and a deep desire for notoriety Rather than simply looking at Columbine as a crucible for all school violence Larkin places the tragedy in its proper context and in doing so examines its causes and meaning School Violence Laura L.
