

Partner's Business Assets & LLC Units Purchase Agreement

- ¶ This is a sample document useful to offer a buyout of a partner in an LLC. You are buying out the business and its assets (with a provision for certain exclusions if necessary).
- ¶ The original draft was derived from an asset buyout agreement, rather than a "stock" purchase agreement.
- ¶ See also, "Business Assets Purchase" Agreement – this is when you buy just the assets of the business, but not the business itself (which may have numerous "skeletons in the closet" that you do not want to become liable for).
- ¶ While, from a company standpoint, the listing of assets and liability is not needed in a buyout agreement like this one, you can list them.
