Passionate Uprisings:

Passionate Uprisings Pardis Mahdavi, 2019-10-08 There is perhaps no place in the world today where the stakes of partying and having sex are higher than in present day Iran Drinking and dancing can lead to arrest by the morality police and a punishment of up to 70 lashes Consequences for sex outside of marriage can be even more severe up to 84 lashes or even public execution But even under the threat of such harsh punishment a sexual revolution is taking place Iranian youth continually risk personal safety to meet friends date and ultimately to have sex In the absence of any option for overt political dissent young people have become part of a self proclaimed revolution in which they are using their bodies to make social and political statements Sex has become both a source of freedom and an act of political rebellion With unprecedented access inside turn of the century Iran Pardis Mahdavi offers a firsthand look at the daily lives of Iranian youth They are given a voice as she tells the stories of their intertwined quests for sexual freedom political reform and a better future but not a future without risk The sexual revolution is also leading to increased levels of abortion HIV AIDS sexually transmitted diseases and ongoing emotional troubles and mental illnesses with worrying implications for Iranian youth and Iranian society at large Passionate Uprisings is a fascinating ground breaking and personal look into a society that is poorly understood if it is understood at all by the majority of Westerners today Mahdavi's narrative provides not only an invaluable insight into the real lives of much of Iran's population but shows how sexual politics and the youth culture could even destabilize the current regime and change the course of Iranian politics

Female Bodies and Sexuality in Iran and the Search for Defiance Nafiseh Sharifi, 2018-01-22 This book uses storytelling as an analytical tool for following wider social attitude changes towards sex and female sexuality in Iran Women born in 1950s Iran grew up during the peak of secularization and modernization whereas those born in the 1980s were raised under the much stricter rules of the Islamic Republic Using extensive ethnographic research the author juxtaposes narratives of body and sexuality shared by these different generations of women showing the intricate ways in which women construct and convey meanings and communicate their emotions about the unspoken aspects of their lives

Internal Diversity Sonja Moghaddari, 2019-12-03 This book explores the interrelation between diversity in migrants internal relations and their experience of inequality in local and global contexts Taking the case of Hamburg based Iranians it traces evaluation processes in ties between professionals artists and entrepreneurs since the 1930s examining migrants potential to act upon hierarchical structures Building on long term ethnographic fieldwork and archival work the book centers on differentiation combining a diversity study with a focus on locality with a transnational migration study analysing strategies of capital creation and anthropological value theory The analysis of migrants agency tackles questions of independence and cooperation in kinship associations transnational entrepreneurship and cultural events within the context of the position of Germany and Iran in the global politico economic landscape This material will be of interest to scholars and students of anthropology sociology migration urbanism and Iranian studies as well as Iranian Germans and those interested in the entanglement of global and local power relations

Demography and Democracy Elhum Haghighat, 2018-08-23 The Middle East and North Africa have recently experienced one of the highest population growth rates in the world something which has profoundly affected the wider region and its institutions In addition the recent period of unprecedented political turbulence has further complicated the picture resulting in uprisings and resistance movements that have coincided with intense shifts in socio cultural norms as well as economic and political change Through highlighting the links between population dynamics and the social and political transitions this book provides a new view of these recent regional changes The complexity of the changes is further explained in the context of demographic transitions mortality fertility migration that work hand in hand with development economic and social modernization and ultimately democratization political modernization These three Ds Demographic Development and Democratic transitions are central to Elhum Haghighat's analysis of the Middle East and North Africa at this crucial time

Life on Drugs in Iran Nahid Rahimipour Anaraki, 2022-08-22 When they initiated a war on drugs in 1979 Iran developed a reputation as having some of the world's harshest drug penalties and as an opponent of efforts to reform global drug policy As mass incarceration failed to stem the growth of drug use Iran shifted its policies in 1990 to introduce treatment regimens that focus on rehabilitation While most Muslim countries and some Western states still do not espouse welfare oriented measures Iran has established several harm reduction centers nationwide through the welfare system for those who use substances In doing so Iran moved from labeling drug users as criminals to patients In Life on Drugs in Iran Anaraki moves beyond these labels to explore the lived experience of those who use and have used illicit substances and the challenges they face as a result of the state's shifting policies Gaining remarkable access to a community that has largely been ignored by researchers Anaraki chronicles the lives of current and former substance users in prisons treatment centers and NGOs In each setting individuals are criminalized medicalized and marginalized as the system attempts to normalize them without addressing the root cause of the problem Drawing upon first hand accounts Anaraki's groundbreaking study takes an essential step in humanizing people with substance abuse issues in Iran

The Elizabethan Mind Helen Hackett,2022-07-12 The first comprehensive guide to Elizabethan ideas about the mind What is the mind How does it relate to the body and soul These questions were as perplexing for the Elizabethans as they are for us today although their answers were often startlingly different Shakespeare and his contemporaries believed the mind was governed by the humours and passions and was susceptible to the Devil s interference In this insightful and wide ranging account Helen Hackett explores the intricacies of Elizabethan ideas about the mind This was a period of turbulence and transition as persistent medieval theories competed with revived classical ideas and emerging scientific developments Drawing on a wealth of sources Hackett sheds new light on works by Shakespeare Marlowe Sidney and Spenser demonstrating how ideas about the mind shaped new literary and theatrical forms Looking at their conflicted attitudes to imagination dreams and melancholy Hackett examines how Elizabethans perceived the mind soul and self and how their ideas compare with our own

Leisurely Islam Lara Deeb,Mona Harb,2013-10-27 How the rise of leisure is changing contemporary Lebanon South Beirut has recently become a vibrant leisure destination with a plethora of caf s and restaurants that cater to the young fashionable and pious What effects have these establishments had on the moral norms spatial practices and urban experiences of this Lebanese community From the diverse voices of young Shi i Muslims searching for places to hang out to the Hezbollah officials who want this media savvy generation to be more politically involved to the religious leaders worried that Lebanese youth are losing their moral compasses Leisurely Islam provides a sophisticated and original look at leisure in the Lebanese capital What makes a caf morally appropriate How do people negotiate morality in relation to different places And under what circumstances might a pious Muslim go to a caf that serves alcohol Lara Deeb and Mona Harb highlight tensions and complexities exacerbated by the presence of multiple religious authorities a fraught sectarian political context class mobility and a generation that takes religion for granted but wants to have fun The authors elucidate the political economic religious and social changes that have taken place since 2000 and examine leisure s influence on Lebanese sociopolitical and urban situations Asserting that morality and geography cannot be fully understood in isolation from one another Leisurely Islam offers a colorful new understanding of the most powerful community in Lebanon today

The Three Devils: Luther's, Milton's, and Goethe's David Masson,2020-08-05 Reproduction of the original The Three Devils Luther s Milton s and Goethe s by David Masson

Women and Politics in the Islamic Republic of Iran Sanam Vakil,2011-04-21 Women and Politics in the Islamic Republic of Iran looks at the rise and role of female activism in Iran since the 1979 Revolution Since 1979 women have played a decisive role in elections and assumed political posts This study assesses this role as well as the impact of domestic and international policies on women s activism highlighting the contradictions between politics and religion within the Islamic Republic It also seeks to evaluate political and economic developments and the transformations in civil society including the development of a gender conscious society Women and Politics in the Islamic Republic of Iran features original research by Sanam Vakil an Iranian American scholar who conducted interviews with women activists politicians journalists clerics and students in Iran Europe and the U S and used primary sources to specifically links women s activism to the domestic political changes in Iran The book will be an essential resource for anyone studying Iranian politics and seeking to understand better the internal political and social dynamics in Iran and the critical role that women play Afterlives of Revolution Alice

Wilson,2023-05-23 The Dhufar Revolution was fought between 1965 1976 in an attempt to depose Oman s British backed Sultan and advance social ideals of egalitarianism and gender equality Dhufar the southernmost governorate in today s Sultanate captured global attention for its revolutionaries and their liberation movement s Marxist inspired social change But following counterinsurgency victory Oman s government expunged the revolution from sanctioned historical narratives Afterlives of Revolution offers a groundbreaking study of the legacies of officially silenced revolutionaries How do their underlying convictions survive and inspire platforms for progressive politics in the wake of disappointment defeat and repression Alice Wilson considers the social afterlives of revolutionary values and networks Veteran militants have used kinship and daily socializing to reproduce networks of social egalitarianism and commemorate the revolution in unofficial ways These afterlives revise conventional wartime and postwar histories They highlight lasting engagement with revolutionary values the agency of former militants in postwar modernization and the limitations of government patronage for eliciting conformity Recognizing that those typically depicted as coopted can still reproduce counterhegemonic values this book considers a condition all too common across Southwest Asia and North Africa the experience of defeated revolutionaries living under the authoritarian state they once contested The three Devils, with other essays David Mather

Masson,1874 Prescribing HIV Prevention Nicola Bulled,2016-06-16 Critical health communication scholars point out that the acceptance of HIV risk prevention methods are bound inside inequitable structures of power and knowledge Nicola Bulled s in depth ethnographic account of how these messages are selected transmitted and reacted to by young adults in the AIDS torn population of Lesotho in southern Africa provides a crucial example of the importance of a culture centered approach to health communication She shows the clash between traditional western perceptions of how increased knowledge will increase compliance with western ideas of prevention and mixed messages offered by local religious educational and media institutions Bulled also demonstrates how structural and geographical forces prevent the delivery and acceptance of health messages and how local communities shape their own knowledge of health disease and illness This volume will be of interest to medical anthropologists and sociologists to those in health communication and to researchers working on issues related to HIV Cinematic Homelands Mara Antic,2024-10-04 This book maps an emerging cycle of films made by Iranian diasporic women filmmakers and produced outside of Iran focusing on five significant examples Shirin Neshat s

Women Without Men 2009 Sepideh Farsi's Red Rose 2014 Maryam Keshavarz's Circumstance 2011 Ana Lily Amirpour's A Girl Walks Home Alone at Night 2014 and Desiree Akhavan's Appropriate Behaviour 2014 These films speak to the emergence of feminist concerns surrounding gender relations female subjectivity and sexuality in diasporic filmmaking The book intends to show how the body of recent Iranian diasporic women's films demonstrates a substantial shift within the existing exilic and diasporic paradigm requiring analysis of intersectional relations not only between ethnicity culture and nationality but also gender and sexuality Attending closely to the vibrant feminist film culture generated by Iranian women in diaspora this book aims to interrogate the diversity of women's filmmaking practices and their role in shaping new representations of female subjectivity and the diasporic condition

Contemporary Iran Ali Gheissari, 2009-04-02 Iran's geographical location its oil its nuclear program its volatile political landscape its espousal of militant Islam all combine to make it a key player in some of the most crucial issues of our time But because of its relative isolation there is a shortage of hard information about today's Iran In this volume an imposing roster of both internationally renowned Iranian scholars and rising young Iranian academics offer essays many based on recent fieldwork on the nature and evolution of Iran's economy significant aspects of Iran's changing society and the dynamics of its domestic and international politics since the 1979 revolution focusing particularly on the post Khomeini period The book will be of great interest not only to Iran specialists but also to scholars of comparative politics democratization social change politics in the Muslims world and Middle Eastern studies

Revolutionary Bodies K. S. Batmanghelichi, 2020-12-10 Gender and sexuality in modern Iran is frequently examined through the prism of nationalist symbols and religious discourse from the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries In this book Kristin Soraya Batmanghelichi takes a different approach by interrogating how normative ideas of women's bodies in state religious and public health discourses have resulted in the female body being deemed as immodest and taboo Through a diverse blend of sources a popular cultural women's journal a red light district cases studies of temporary marriages iconic public statues and an HIV AIDS advocacy organization in Tehran this work argues that conceptions of gender and sexuality have been mediated in public discourse and experienced and modified by women themselves over the past thirty years of the Islamic Republic Expanding upon existing philosophical theory technological research and scholarship on gender and sexuality in Iran this book focuses much needed attention on under studied marginalized communities such as widows living with HIV This work interrogates how bodily technologies are constructed discursively and socially in Iran and the values and perspectives which are incorporated in them
