Daughter of Darkness Ed Gorman, Gorman's writing is strong fast and sleek as a bullet He's one of the best Dean Koontz IT BEGAN WITH THE MISSING WEEK OF HER LIFE Found in an alleyway completely dazed with no memory of who she is or how she's gotten there an obviously well to do young woman is taken to a nearby shelter run by a nun There she meets former cop Michael Coffey who often stops in to visit Sister Mary Agnes When it becomes obvious that she is suffering from sudden agonizing recurring headaches Coffey volunteers to take her to the nearest ER But haunted by an elusive memory she has of a motel she insists that he drive her to the location first There they discover a brutally murdered man in the room and blood splattered clothing that would certainly fit the young woman Is she a cold blooded killer or has someone set her up Instead of turning her in to the police Coffey takes his mystery woman back to his house And even when she disappears from there without a word he is positive she's innocent and remains determined to help her But the truth which his investigation gradually reveals is so shocking that it will be almost impossible to prove For the real criminal is someone

she trusts implicitly someone who is about to wreak the ultimate revenge someone who has tampered not only with the truth but with this innocent victim's very mind
