Real war is a cruel theater of death yet it is also an exciting narrative exploited for national political and commercial purposes and turned into numerous films television shows computer games news stories and reenactment plays These essays examine the relationship between war visual media and entertainment from a number of academic perspectives Key topics include how war is used as an imaginary site to stage dramas how boundaries between war media and entertainment dissolve as new media alters the formal qualities of representation how entertainment is used to engage audiences and what effect products of war and entertainment have on consumers of popular culture      The Sea in World History Stephen K. Stein,2017-04-24 This two volume set documents the essential role of the sea and maritime activity across history from travel and food production to commerce and conquest In all eras water transport has served as the cheapest and most efficient means of moving cargo and people over any significant distance Only relatively recently have railroads and aircraft provided an alternative Most of the world s bulk goods continue to travel primarily by ship over water Even today 95 percent of the cargo that enters and leaves the United States does so by ship Similarly people around the world rely on the sea for food and in recent years the sea has become an important source of oil and other resources with the longterm effects of our continuing efforts to extract resources from the sea further highlighting environmental concerns that range from pollution to the exhaustion of fish stocks This chronologically organized two volume reference addresses the history of the sea beginning with ancient civilizations 4000 to 1000 BCE and ending with the modern era 1945 to the present day Each of the eight chapters is further broken down into sections that focus on specific nations or regions offering detailed descriptions of that area of the world and shorter entries on specific topics individuals and events The book spans maritime history covering major seafaring peoples and nations famous explorers travelers and commanders events battles and wars key technologies including famous ships important processes and ongoing events such as piracy and the slave trade and more Readers will benefit from dozens of primary source documents ranging from ancient Egyptian tales of seafaring to texts by renowned travelers like Marco Polo Zheng He and Ibn Battuta that provide firsthand accounts from the age of discovery as well as accounts of battle from World War I and II and more modern accounts of the sea      Annual Report of the New York State Soldiers' and Sailors' Home for the Year ... New York State Soldiers' and Sailors' Home,1901 Provides operational and fiscal information on the Home plus listings of its members many of whom were Civil War veterans      Men-of-War Patrick O'Brian,1996-11 This richly illustrated book offers a concise overview of the historical background to Patrick O Brian s acclaimed Aubrey Maturin series a straightforward exploration of what daily life in Nelson s navy was really like for everyone from the captain to the rawest recruit Line drawings and charts help us to understand the construction and rigging of the great ships the types and disposition of the guns and how they were operated in battle Contemporary drawings and cartoons illustrate aspects of naval life from the press gang to the scullery Finally a generous selection of full color paintings renders the majesty and the excitement of fleet actions in the age of fighting sail Resting Places Scott Wilson,2016-08-19 In its third edition this massive reference work lists the final resting places of more than 14 000 people from a wide range of fields including politics the military the arts crime sports and popular culture Many entries are new to this edition Each listing provides birth and death dates a brief summary of the subject s claim to fame and their burial site location or as much as is known Grave location within a cemetery is provided in many cases as well as places of cremation and sites where ashes were scattered Source information is provided House documents ,1888 Navies and State Formation ,2012 If the power to tax stems from the need to finance standing armies as Schumpeter claims what about the more expensive navies The answer demonstrated in this book is that Schumpeter was right We cannot document a single case of a tax financed navy This work has been generously supported by the Kyriazis family foundation Series Wirtschaft Forschung und Wissenschaft Vol 27 The purpose of this work is to examine the economic theories of Joseph Alois Schumpeter 1883 1950 who proposed that creative destruction of older economic models is necessary for economic progress will prove of great interest to students of the rise of permanent military institutions The NYMAS Review No 57 Winter Spring 2014 Subject Military Studies Naval Studies Official Register of the United States ,1887 Cobbett's Parliamentary Debates Great Britain.
