Religion and Urbanism Yamini Narayanan,2015-11-19 Conceptions of sustainable cities in the pluralistic and multireligious urban settlements of developing nations need to develop out of local cultural religious and historical contexts to be inclusive and accurately respond to the needs of the poor ethnic and religious minorities and women Religion and Urbanism contributes to an expanded understanding of sustainable cities in South Asia by demonstrating the multiple and often conflicting ways in which religion enables or challenges socially equitable and ecologically sustainable urbanisation in the region In particular this collection focuses on two aspects that must inform the sustainable cities discourse in South Asia the intersections of religion and urban heritage and religion and various aspects of informality This book makes a much needed contribution to the nexus between religion and urban planning for researchers postgraduate students and policy makers in Sustainable Development Development Studies Urban Studies Religious Studies Asian Studies Heritage Studies and Urban and Religious Geography     Al-Shabaab in Somalia Stig Jarle Hansen,2013 A remarkable book based on intensive field research as well as on the ground interviews with Shabaab leaders     Localising Salafism Terje Østebø,2011-10-06 The political transition in 1991 and the new regime s policy towards the ethnic and religious diversity in Ethiopia have contributed to increased activities from various Islamic reform movements Among these we find the Salafi movement which expanded rapidly throughout the 1990s particularly in the Oromo speaking south eastern parts of the country This book sheds light on the emergence and expansion of Salafism in Bale Focusing on the diversified body of situated actors and their role in the process of religious change it discusses the early arrival of Salafism in the late 1960s follows it through the Marxist period 1974 1991 before discussing the rapid expansion of the movement in the 1990s The movement's dynamics and the controversies emerging as a result of the reforms are discussed particularly with reference to different understandings of sources for religious knowledge and the role of Islamic literacy

Globalizing Somalia Emma Leonard, Gilbert Ramsay, 2013-11-07 This collection of essays demonstrates how chronic state failure and the inability of the international community to provide a solution to the conflict in Somalia has had transnational repercussions Following the failed humanitarian mission in 1992-93 most countries refrained from any direct involvement in Somalia but this changed in the 2000s with the growth of piracy and links to international terrorist organizations The deterritorialization of the conflict quickly became apparent as it became transnational in nature In part because of it lacked a government and was unable to work with the international community Somalia came to be seen as a testing ground by many international actors Globalizing Somalia demonstrates how China Japan and the EU among others have all used the conflict in Somalia to project power test the bounds of the national constitution and test their own military capabilities Contributed by international scholars and experts the work examines the impact of globalization on the internal and external dynamics of the conflict arguing that it is no longer geographically contained By bringing together the many actors and issues involved the book fills a gap in the literature as one of the most complete works on the conflict in Somalia to date It will be an essential text to any student interested in Somalia and the horn of Africa as well as in terrorism and conflict processes

Muslim Traditions and Modern Techniques of Power Armando Salvatore, 2001 This volume deals with historical and contemporary articulations of the relation of tension between the civilizing impetus of Muslim traditions and modern forms fields and techniques of power These techniques are associated with the process of state building as well as with the related constraints of disciplining normative cohesion control of the territory and monitored social differentiation The contributions conceptualize Muslim traditions as deriving their legitimacy authority as well as normative and organizing power from being embedded in the discourses and institutions of Islam which constitute one major center within world history by now also encompassing Muslim communities within Western societies

Rethinking the Anthropology of Islam Katja Föllmer, Lisa Maria Franke, Ramzi Ben Amara, 2024-07-01 The contributions of this volume discuss the broad field of transformation processes in Muslim societies from different perspectives with various disciplinary approaches Apart from methodological questions the authors investigate religious and social developments in Africa and the Near and Middle East while focusing e.g. on the production of meaning negotiation of religious values and spaces gendered agency and debates of identity

Egypt in the Future Tense Samuli Schielke, 2015-03-05 Illustrates the complex and contradictory impact of Muslim revivalism on the expectations and hopes of Egyptian youth Recommended Choice Against the backdrop of the revolutionary uprisings of 2011-2013 Samuli Schielke asks how ordinary Egyptians confront the great promises and grand schemes of religious commitment middle class respectability romantic love and political ideologies in their daily lives and how they make sense of the existential anxieties and stalled expectations that inevitably accompany such hopes Drawing on many years of study in Egypt and the life stories of rural lower middle class men before and after the revolution Schielke views recent events in ways that are both historically deep and personal Schielke challenges prevailing views of Muslim piety showing that religious lives are part of a much more complex lived experience This wonderful book brings fresh insights into the anthropology of hope in general and Egypt in particular It makes a rewarding read for scholars interested in how life and all its ambiguities and aspirations unfold under changing notions of religious commitment new regimes of circulation and emerging patterns of consumption American Anthropologist An altogether innovative compelling and sensitive perspective on what is perhaps the most important question facing young people in the Middle East today how to make a life in rapidly shifting complex times whose future is uncertain Jessica Winegar author of Creative Reckonings The Politics of Art and Culture in Contemporary Egypt Islamic Reform in Twentieth-Century Africa Roman Loimeier, 2016-09-08 The first comprehensive analysis of Muslim movements of reform in modern sub Saharan Africa Based on twelve case studies Senegal Mali Nigeria Niger Chad Sudan Ethiopia Somalia Kenya Tanzania Zanzibar and the Comoros this book looks at patterns and peculiarities of different traditions of Islamic reform Considering both Sufi and Salafi oriented movements in their respective historical contexts it stresses the importance of the local context to explain the different trajectories of development The book studies the social religious and political impact of these reform movements in both historical and contemporary times and asks why some have become successful as popular mass movements while others failed to attract substantial audiences It also considers jihad minded movements in contemporary Mali northern Nigeria and Somalia and looks at modes of transnational entanglement of movements of reform Against the background of a general inquiry into what constitutes areform the text responds to the question of what areform actually means for Muslims in contemporary Africa Key features Biographies of reformist scholars complement the text Case studies are placed in the context of the dynamics of areform in the larger world of Islam Addresses the importance of trans national entanglements and their formative power Focuses on the dynamics of social and religious development the political dynamics of Islamic areform and issues of youth generational change and gender The Perils of Joy Samuli Schielke, 2012-12-13 Mulids festivals in honor of Muslim friends of God have been part of Muslim religious and cultural life for close to a thousand years While many Egyptians see mulids as an expression of joy and love for the Prophet Muhammad and his family many others see them as opposed to Islam a sign of a backward mentality a piece of folklore at best What is it about a mulid that makes it a threat to Islam and modernity in the eyes of some and an indication of pious devotion in the eyes of others What makes the celebration of a saint s festival appear in such dramatically different contours The Perils of Joy offers a rich investigation both historical and ethnographic of conflicting and transforming attitudes toward festivals in contemporary Egypt Schielke argues that mulids are characterized by a utopian momentum of the extraordinary that troubles the grand schemes of order and perfection that have become hegemonic in Egypt since the twentieth century. Not an opposition between state and civil society nor a division between Islamists and secularists but rather the competition between different perceptions of what makes up a complete life forms the central line of conflict in the contestation of festive culture. Islam and Gender in Colonial Northeast Africa Silvia Bruzzi, 2017-12-11 In Islam and Gender in Colonial Northeast Africa Silvia Bruzzi provides an account of Islamic movements and gender dynamics in the context of colonial rule in Northeast Africa. The thread that runs through the book is the life and times of Sitt Alawiyya al M r an 1892-1940 a representative of a well established transnational Sufi order in the Red Sea region. Silvia Bruzzi gives us not only a social history of the colonial encounter in the Eritrean colony but also a wider historical account of supra regional dynamics across the Red Sea, the Ethiopian hinterland and the Mediterranean region using a wide range of fragmentary historical materials to make an important contribution towards filling the gap that currently exists in women's and gender history in Muslim societies. Debt, Trust, and Reputation Sebastian Schwecke, 2022-06-16 Starting in the late nineteenth century colonial rule in India took an active interest in regulating financial markets beyond the bridgeheads of European capital in intercontinental trade. Regulatory efforts were part of a modernizing project seeking to produce alignments between British and Indian business procedures and to create the financial basis for incipient industrialization in India. For vast sections of Indian society however they pushed credit debt relations into the realm of extra legality while the new regulated agents of finance remained incapable and unwilling of serving their needs. Combining historical and ethnographic approaches the book questions underlying assumptions of modernization in finance that continue to prevail in postcolonial India and delineates the socioeconomic responses they produced and studies the reputational economies of debt that have emerged instead extra legal markets embedded into communication flows on trust and reputation that have turned out to be significantly more exploitative than their colonial predecessors. A Global Middle East Liat Kozma, Cyrus Schayegh, Avner Wishnitzer, 2014-12-03 The start of the twentieth century ushered in a period of unprecedented change in the Middle East. These transformations brought about by the emergence of the modern state system and an increasing interaction with a more globalized economy irrevocably altered the political and social structures of the Middle East even as the region itself left its mark on the processes of globalization themselves. As a result of these changes there was an intensification in the movement of people, commodities and ideas across the globe, commercial activity, urban space, intellectual life, leisure, culture, immigration patterns and education, nothing was left untouched. It shows how even as the Middle East was responding to increased economic interactions with the rest of the world by restructuring not only local economies but also cultural, political and social institutions, the region's engagement with these trends altered the nature of globalization itself. This period has been seen as one in which the modern state system and its oftentimes artificial boundaries emerged in the Middle East. But this book highlights how despite this it was also one of tremendous interconnection. Approaching the first period of modern globalization by investigating the movement of people objects and ideas into around and out of the Middle East the authors demonstrate how the Middle East in this period was not simply subject or reactive to the West but rather an active participant in the transnational flows that transformed both the region and the world A Global Middle East offers an examination of a variety of intellectual and more material exchanges such as nascent feminist movements and Islamist ideologies as well as the movement of sex workers across the Mediterranean and Jewish migration into Palestine A Global Middle East emphasises this by examining the multi directional nature of movement across borders as well as this movement s intensity volume and speed By focusing on the theme of mobility as the defining feature of modern globalization in the Middle East it provides an essential examination of the formative years of the region

The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Religion and Materiality Vasudha Narayanan, 2020-04-16 The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Religion and Materiality provides a thoughtfully organized inclusive and vibrant project of the multiple ways in which religion and materiality intersect The contributions explore the way that religion is shaped by and has shaped the material world embedding beliefs doctrines and texts into social and cultural contexts of production circulation and consumption The Companion not only contains scholarly essays but has an accompanying website to demonstrate the work of performers architects and expressive artists ranging from musicians and dancers to religious practitioners These examples offer specific illustrations of the interplay of religion and materiality in everyday life The project is organized from a comparative perspective highlighting examples and case studies from traditions originating in both East and West To summarize the volume Brings together the leading figures theories and ideas in the field in a systematic and comprehensive way Offers an interdisciplinary approach drawing together religious studies anthropology archaeology history sociology geography the cognitive sciences ecology and media studies Takes a comparative perspective covering all the major faith traditions
