Mandell, 2023-09-22 The SAGE Guide to Writing in Criminal Justice Research Methods Jennifer M. Allen, Steven Hougland, 2020-01-28

The SAGE Guide to Writing in Criminal Justice Research Methods equips students with transferable writing skills that can be applied across the field of criminal justice both academically and professionally. Authors Jennifer M. Allen and Steven Hougland interweave professional and applied writing, academic writing, and information literacy with the result being a stronger, more confident writer, researcher, and student in criminal justice. Focused on teaching students how to write in the academic setting while introducing them to a number of other writing tools specific to research methods such as writing literature reviews, abstracts, proposals, and more. The perfect companion for any criminal justice research methods course, this brief text focuses on key topics that will benefit students in their classes and in the field. Patterns for College Writing Laurie G. Kirsznier, 1986 Patterns for College Writing, High School Edition Laurie G. Kirsznier, Stephen R. Mandell, 2014-11-21

Patterns for College Writing is a best seller in high schools because its approach to writing works, focusing students on the kinds of reading and writing they will need to do in order to succeed in class and on their state and national exams. The authors provide students with exemplary models and instructors with class-tested selections that balance classic and contemporary essays. Along with more examples of student writing than any other reader, Patterns has the most comprehensive coverage of active reading, research, and the writing process, with a five-chapter mini-rhetoric, the clearest explanations of the patterns of development, and the most thorough apparatus of any rhetorical reader. The new edition includes exciting new readings and expanded coverage of critical reading, working with sources, and research.
