The Social Work Business John Harris, 2002-11 This book gives a comprehensive picture of social work in its new guise as a quasi public enterprise and is an invaluable resource for social work and social policy students practice teachers trainers and managers Arthibliographies Modern, 1990 Abstracts of journal articles books essays exhibition catalogs dissertations and exhibition reviews The scope of ARTbibliographies Modern extends from artists and movements beginning with Impressionism in the late 19th century up to the most recent works and trends in the late 20th century Photography is covered from its invention in 1839 to the present A particular emphasis is placed upon adding new and lesser known artists and on the coverage of foreign language literature Approximately 13 000 new entries are added each year Published with title LOMA from 1969 1971 The Cumulative Book Index, 1989 A world list of books in the English language Beyond Mothering Earth Sherilyn Macgregor, 2011-11-01 Women s environmental activism is often described in maternalist terms as if motherhood and caring for the environment go hand in hand While feminists celebrate this connection women and all those who care for people and environments are facing increasing burdens and decreasing time for civic engagement In Beyond Mothering Earth MacGregor argues that celebrations of earthcare as women s unique contribution to the search for sustainability often neglect to consider the importance of politics and citizenship in women s lives Drawing on interviews with women who juggle private caring with civic engagement in quality of life concerns she proposes an alternative a project of feminist ecological citizenship that affirms the practice of citizenship as an intrinsically valuable activity while recognizing the foundational aspects of caring labour and natural processes that allow its specificity to flourish Beyond Mothering Earth provides an original and empirically grounded understanding of women s involvement in quality of life activism and an analysis of citizenship that makes an important contribution to contemporary discussions of green politics globalization neoliberalism and democratic justice It will be of value to scholars and activists interested in the politics of environmental sustainability and the shifting meanings of citizenship in an increasingly vulnerable world Anthology on Caring Peggy L. Yeandle,2013-04-30 Summary As populations around the world age increasing efforts are required from families and governments to secure care and support for older and disabled people Furthermore both women and men are expected to work later into life Taken together these two facts have made the relationship between work and care a burning issue for social and employment policy as well as for those working toward economic sustainability Emphasizing the lessons that can be learned from individual experiences this book widens current debates on these topics bringing the experiences of individuals who support older disabled or chronically ill partners relatives or children to the discussion table Whitaker's Cumulative Book List ,1986 The Oxford Handbook of Levinas Michael L. Morgan,2019-04-10 Emmanuel Levinas 1906 1995 emerged as an influential philosophical voice in the final decades of the twentieth century and his reputation has continued to flourish and increase in our own day His central themes the primacy of the ethical and the core of ethics as our responsibility to and for others speak to readers from a host of disciplines and perspectives However his writings and thought are challenging and difficult The Oxford Handbook of Levinas contains essays that aim to clarify and engage Levinas and his writings in a number of ways Some focus on central themes of his work others on the ways in which he read and was influenced by figures from Plato Hobbes Descartes and Kant to Blanchot Husserl Heidegger and Derrida And there are essays on how his thinking has been appropriated in moral and political thought psychology film criticism and more and on the relation between his thinking and religious themes and traditions Finally several essays deal primarily with how readers have criticized him and found him wanting The volume exposes and explores both the depth of Levinas's philosophical work and the range of applications to which it has been put with special attention to clarifying why his interests in the human condition the crisis of civilization the centrality and character of ethics and morality and the very meaning of human experience should be of interest to the widest range of readers Annual Bibliography of Modern Art Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.). Library,1986 Childbirth, Midwifery and Concepts of Time Christine McCourt,2009 All cultures are concerned with the business of childbirth so much so that it can never be described as a purely physiological or even psychological event This volume draws together work from a range of anthropologists and midwives who have found anthropological approaches useful in their work Using case studies from a variety of cultural settings the writers explore the centrality of the way time is conceptualized marked and measured to the ways of perceiving and managing childbirth how women midwives and other birth attendants are affected by issues of power and control but also actively attempt to change established forms of thinking and practice The stories are engaging as well as critical and invite the reader to think afresh about time and about reproduction Disabling Barriers - Enabling Environments John Swain,Vic Finkelstein,Sally French,Mike Oliver,1993-03-02 The major theme of this accessible and engaging text is that disability is caused by the way society is organized The contributors demonstrate the many ways in which disabled people have taken the initiative in reshaping both the meaning of disability and the services and support available to them The notion that disability is either a medical condition or a personal tragedy is strongly challenged and the marginalized position of black disabled people and disabled women is also addressed Focusing on the barriers which disabled people encounter in education housing leisure and employment this book critically reviews professional practice and describes alternative models of support which give disabled people control over their own Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2002-04 Responding to Grief Caroline Currer,2017-03-14 This book argues that dying and bereavement are issues for all social care practitioners illustrating the wide variety of ways in which they are involved Examples are taken from mainstream as well as specialist settings Early chapters focus upon the relevance of theoretical understandings and the perspectives of dying and bereaved people themselves There is detailed consideration of practitioners accounts of their responses to people who are grieving Conclusions relate to issues of training and support and implications for practice Medical Ethics and Elderly People R. John Elford,1987 Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index ,1975 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1996 Books in Print ,1994 Forest and Stream ,1889
