Mountains explains how competing guerrilla forces and the French military sought to harness djem as as part of a hearts and minds strategy Djem as formed a pole of opposition to the patron client relations of the rural lites with clandestine urban rural networks emerging that prepared the way for armed resistance and a system of rebel governance Contrary to accepted historical analysis suggesting that rural society was massively uprooted and dislocated War in the Mountains demonstrates that the peasantry demonstrated a high level of social cohesion and resistance based on powerful family and kin networks
