Written Communication across Cultures Yunxia Zhu, 2005-11-02 Winner of ABC s award for Distinguished Publication for 2006 This book explores effective written communication across cultures both theoretically and practically Specifically it conceptualizes cross cultural genre study and compares English and Chinese business writing collected from Australia New Zealand and China It is also one of those inspired by contrastive rhetoric but has contributed innovatively and uniquely by incorporating research findings from genre analysis in particular the sociocognitive genre perspective into this cross cultural study On the one hand the endeavor represents an in depth theoretical exploration by considering not only discourse community and cognitive structuring but also the deep semantics of genre and intertextuality while broadening genre study by integrating insights from cross cultural communication as well as the Chinese perspectives On the other hand the book also addresses pragmatic issues As a particular feature it solicits professional members intercultural viewpoints thus confirming the shared social stock of knowledge employed in the culturally defined writing conventions Last but not least this book explores the implications for genre education and training and develops an appropriate model for cross cultural genre learning which encourages learning through legitimate peripheral participation and intercultural learning in business organizations Curriculum as Conversation Arthur N. Applebee, 2008-05-28 Applebee's central point the need to teach knowledge in context is absolutely crucial for the hopes of any reformed curriculum His experience and knowledge give his voice an authority that makes many of the current proposals on both the left and right seem shallow by comparison Gerald Graff University of Chicago Coaching Across Cultures Philippe Rosinski, 2010-11-26 Shows how to integrate the cultural dimension into coaching and coaching skills into intercultural work Handbook of Cross-cultural Psychology: Basic processes and human development John W.
