Paul and the Early Jewish Encounter with Deuteronomy David Lincicum, 2013-06-15 This study offers a fresh thorough engagement with Paul's use of Deuteronomy paying full attention to the concrete realities of Paul's exposure in life and literature to Torah David Lincicum compares Paul's handling of Deuteronomy to the treatment of Deuteronomy in other contemporary Jewish sources He shows how this key book of Jewish Scripture was influential in Jewish life and liturgy and how it bears on Paul's relationship to the Law Originally published by Mohr Siebeck in the Wissenschaftliche Untersuchungen zum Neuen Testament series this work is now available as an affordable North American paperback

The Composition of the Gospel of Thomas Simon J. Gathercole, Simon Gathercole, 2012-03 This groundbreaking study argues that the Gospel of Thomas was written in Greek and influenced by New Testament writings

Godly Fear or Ungodly Failure? Michael Kibbe, 2016-05-10 A cursory glance at Hebrews critique of Israel's fear at Sinai in Heb 12:18-29 suggests that the author has misunderstood or manipulated his sources In the Pentateuch the appointment of Moses as Israel's mediator receives explicit approval Exod 19:9 Deut 5:28 while Heb 12:25 labels their request for mediation a refusal to heed the word of God This book argues that Hebrews use of the Sinai narratives resides on a complex trajectory established by four points the Sinai covenant according to Exodus the reenactment of that covenant according to Deuteronomy the call for a NEW covenant according to Jeremiah and the present reality of that covenant established by God and mediated by Jesus Christ The basis for Hebrews critique arises from its insight that while Israel's request established covenant from a distance Jesus demonstrates that true covenant mediation brings two parties into a single space The purpose for Hebrews critique lies in its summons to Zion the mountain on which Jesus sits at the right hand of God as the high priestly mediator of the new covenant

Paul and the Resurrection of Israel Jason A. Staples, 2023-11-23 Promotes an exciting new idea Paul's gospel of Gentile inclusion is intrinsic to Israel's salvation promised in the Hebrew Bible

The Fear of God in 2 Corinthians 7:1 Euichang Kim, 2019-02-21 Euichang Kim focuses upon the phrase the fear of God drawn from 2 Corinthians exhortation to reconcile with God As opposed to these words appearing from no particular source Kim points to the wider contexts of Old Testament passages quoted by Paul and demonstrates that God's eschatological promises in particular his coming judgment his promise to redeem his people and the prospect of a new covenant are intertwined with this motif of fear Beginning with an analysis of the meaning of fear in both the Old Testament and the New Kim proceeds to the context of fear within 2 Corinthians Scripture the writings of Second Temple Judaism and the very eschatology of Paul suggesting that it stems from an awareness of God s judgment to come and serves to motivate righteous behavior Kim finally argues that in the context of 2 Corinthians the fear of God functions as the proper response to God s saving acts in Christ and provides motivation for believers to pursue a holy life in anticipation of the eschatological judgment to come

The Pauline Christology of 1 Corinthians 8:6 Emad Atef Ezzat Hanna,2023-07-27 This thesis aims to investigate the Christology presented in 1 Cor 8 6 as it is one of the most important christological texts in the New Testament and to do this against the backdrop of the modern scholarly discussion about New Testament Christology The present thesis argues that divine Christology in this text is the essential component for our understanding of the Pauline Christology and the earliest Christology of early Christians

In Your Mouth and In Your Heart Colin J. Smothers,2022-08-12 Paul s use of Deuteronomy 30 in Romans 10 has puzzled interpreters and led to many divergent readings In this book Smothers argues that what Paul has found in Deuteronomy 30 11 14 is a prophetic promise of righteousness which he declares fulfilled in the gospel of the Lord Jesus the message of the righteousness of faith By quoting Deuteronomy 30 12 14 in Romans 10 as the content of the message of the righteousness of faith over against Leviticus 18 5 and the righteousness of the law in Romans 10 5 8 Paul proclaims a promise fulfilled in accord with the original meaning of the text written by Moses in Deuteronomy More precisely Paul reads Deuteronomy 30 11 14 as an extension of the reality foretold in Deuteronomy 30 1 10 which points forward to the new covenant experience of faith empowered obedience or heart circumcision which includes the internalization of the word of God the eschatological torah by the Spirit of God

The Purity and Sanctuary of the Body in Second Temple Judaism Hannah K. Harrington,2019-08-12 This study traces the emergence of the concept of the body as a sanctuary from its biblical roots to its expressions in late Second Temple Judaism Harrington s hypothesis is that the destruction of the first Jerusalem temple was a catalyst for a new reality vis vis the temple and the emergence of increased emphasis on the holiness of the people along with concomitant standards of purity in a certain stream of Judaism The study brings into relief elements of this attitude from exilic texts e g Ezekiel to Ezra Nehemiah the Dead Sea Scrolls and other Second Temple Jewish texts including early Jesus and Pauline traditions The goal is to provide a history of the concept of the body cum temple metaphor which comes to its fullest expression in the letters of Paul to the Corinthians The concept of the body as a sanctuary as it comes to fruition in late second temple Judaism must be understood within the conceptual world of Jewish holiness of the time The metaphor of the temple provides a frame of reference but only a close analysis of the concepts of holiness purity and impurity and the dynamics between them can provide depth and distinction Of particular importance critical to proper understanding of the temple metaphor are the notions of the elect holy status of Israel and its possible desecration by wrongful sexual relations the loss of the temple and the ripple effect of creating at least temporary substitutes for processes of the cult the widespread concern in Second Temple Judaism for ritual purity in support of greater holiness and a desire among Jews for the residence and agency of the spirit of holiness

"Take Courage, O Jerusalem..." Géza G. Xeravits, 2015-04-24 the volume researches Baruch chapters 4 5 in the following successive steps The first step is a structural analysis of the three different units of the chapters 4 5 29 4 30 5 6 5 7 9 during which the structure of the greater units strophes cantos will be investigated together with the structural relationship of these units with each other After this the biblical background of the passages is explored The Scriptural passages that prove to be authoritative or influential for the author s of the Baruch passages give clues as to the particular interest and intention of the author s This step is supplemented by an inquiry into the tradition historical background of the prophetic psalms Finally I close this short monograph with some basic comments on several formative issues of Baruch 4 5 5 9 The book is written for the interest of scholars of Second Temple Judaism biblical interpretation and the effective history of Scripture

Mutual Boasting in Philippians Isaac D. Blois, 2020-07-23 Isaac Blois argues that Paul's focus in Philippians on the mutual boasting shared between himself and his converts draws on the mutual boasting shared between Israel and her covenant God as apparent in both Deuteronomy and Isaiah Using the appearance of this central theme in the pivotal passages of Phil 1 25 26 and 2 14 16 as his focus Blois stresses the integral relation between mutual boasting and the role that it plays in Paul's exhortations to the Philippian believers exploring its backdrop in both the biblical tradition and the cultures surrounding them Blois demonstrates how the mutual boasting that Paul shares with his beloved community is culturally appropriate the sharing of honor among friends and family was common in antiquity as seen through the epistolary writing of prominent Roman authors such as Cicero Seneca and Fronto In light of the Scriptural and cultural basis for this motif of shared boasting Blois argues that the apostle is able to deploy the motif in order to motivate an appropriate response from his audience in the letter Focusing on the prominence of mutual honor and its use for motivation in Philippians 1 and 2 Blois offers a fresh perspective on the exhortative function of the eschatological boasting that is to exist between Paul and his congregation on the day of Christ
