What You Need to Know about Starting a Business Kevin Duncan, 2011-09-26 Ever wanted to be an entrepreneur? Ever wanted to control what you do when you do it and stop just making money for someone else? Now is your chance. Starting up a business has never been more exciting. This book explains what you really need to know to make your business a success. How you'll know if you've got a good idea. The practicalities of setting up a company. How to manage the money. How to sell what you do. How to make sure you stay soon through it all. This is the book you need to swagger into the Dragon's Den full of confidence.

The Small Business Start-up Workbook Anita Roddick, Cheryl Rickman, 2005-05-27 In this practical and comprehensive workbook Cheryl Rickman offers a modern approach to self employment and business start up. Packed with real life case studies and practical exercises, checklists and worksheets, it provides a step by step guide to researching and formulating your business ideas, planning the right marketing strategies and managing a team that will drive your vision forward with you. You'll discover what with hindsight well known entrepreneurs would have done differently, what their biggest mistakes have been and what they've learnt.

Dame Anita Roddick, Julie Meyer, Stelios Haji Ioannou, Simon Woodroffe and others reveal their best and worst decisions and contribute their wisdom and tips for succeeding in business. You'll learn how to develop research and plan the idea, design and create the right products and services, define and understand your customers and target audience, secure finance and manage cash flow and accounts, create a winning brand and marketing message, gain and retain customers, achieve competitive advantage, plan, create, launch and promote your website and manage your business and time. This fresh approach to small business start up also includes information and recommendations on making your business ethical and socially responsible, along with exercises to help build self confidence and visualize success.
