

Nicola A. Montani

Not too slow (alla breve)

1.

Mother of Christ, Mother of Christ,
What shall I ask of thee?
I do not sigh for the wealth of earth,
For joys that fade and flee;
But, Mother of Christ, Mother of Christ,
This do I long to see,
The bliss untold which thine arms enfold,
The treasure upon thy knee.

2.

Mother of Christ, Mother of Christ,
What shall I do for thee?
I love thy Son with my whole strength
My only King shall he be.
Yes, Mother of Christ, Mother of Christ,
This I do ask of thee,
Of all that are dear or cherished here,
None shall be dear as He.

3.

Mother of Christ, Mother of Christ,
I toss on a stormy sea,
O lift thy child as beacon high
To the port where I fain would be,
Then, Mother of Christ, Mother of Christ,
This do I ask of thee,
When the voyage is o'er, O stand on the shore
And show Him at last to me.

American Ecclesiastical Review Herman Joseph Heuser,1921 Singing, Soldiering, and Sheet Music in America during the First World War Christina Gier,2016-10-19 An advertisement in the sheet music of the song Goodbye Broadway Hello France 1917 announces Music will help win the war This ad hits upon an American sentiment expressed not just in advertising but heard from other sectors of society during the American engagement in the First World War It was an idea both imagined and practiced from military culture to sheet music writers about the power of music to help create a strong military and national community in the face of the conflict it appears straightforward Nevertheless the published sheet music in addition to discourse about gender soldiering and music evince a more complex picture of society This book presents a study of sheet music and military singing practices in America during the First World War that critically situates them in the social discourses including issues of segregation and suffrage and the historical context of the war The transfer of musical styles between the civilian and military realm was fluid because so many men were enlisted from homes with the sheet music while they were also singing songs in their military training Close musical analysis brings the meaningful musical and lyrical expressions of this time period to the forefront of our understanding of soldier and civilian music making at this time
