Gonugunta Murali,2020-01-01 I am dedicating this book to my parents family members faculty and friends I would like to appreciate policies of the Government to introduce implement Insolvency and Bankruptcy code and Valuation courses for the development of the Nation Top 100 Motivational Stories Meir Liraz,2017-05-03 Some of the stories will make you cry others will make you smile none will leave you indifferent Are you ready to be empowered For this book we scanned hundreds of motivational stories and anecdotes to bring you this collection of the top 100 inspirational short stories The stories here will open your eyes and give you valuable insights regarding success love money achievement overcoming obstacles relationships hope positive thinking life happiness family leadership dreams appreciation uplifting adversity moving on perseverance inspiring words encouraging thoughts faith inspiring sayings friendship quotes famous people motivation and children You ll find the stories in this book witty touching amusing and spirit soothing We hope you ll enjoy reading them as much as we enjoyed putting them together Here s one of the stories featured Your Personal Angel A story about an angel who has been taking care of you even before you were born and will always take care no matter how much you grow old you know that angel as Mother Mamma Mom My mom only had one eye I hated her She was such an embarrassment She cooked for students and teachers to support the family There was this one day during elementary school where my mom came to say hello to me I was so embarrassed How could she do this to me I ignored her threw her a hateful look and ran out The next day at school one of my classmates said Eeee your mom only has one eye I wanted to bury myself I also wanted my mom to just disappear I confronted her that day and said If you re only gonna make me a laughing stock why don t you just die My mom did not respond I didn t even stop to think for a second about what I had said because I was full of anger I was oblivious to her feelings I wanted out of that house and have nothing to do with her So I studied real hard got a chance to go abroad to study Then I got married I bought a house of my own I had kids of my own I was happy with my life my kids and the comforts Then one day my Mother came to visit me She hadn t seen me in years and she didn t even meet her grandchildren When she stood by the door my children laughed at her and I yelled at her for coming over uninvited I screamed at her How dare you come to my house and scare my children Get Out Of Here Now And to this my mother quietly answered Oh I m so sorry I may have gotten the wrong address and she disappeared out of sight One day a letter regarding a school reunion came to my house So I lied to my wife that I was going on a business trip After the reunion I went to the old shack just out of curiosity My neighbors said that she died I did not shed a single tear They handed me a letter that she had wanted me to have My dearest son I think of you all the time I m

sorry that I came to your house and scared your children I was so glad when I heard you were coming for the reunion But I may not be able to even get out of bed to see you I m sorry that I was a constant embarrassment to you when you were growing up You see when you were very little you got into an accident and lost your eye As a mother I couldn t stand watching you having to grow up with one eye So I gave you mine I was so proud of my son who was seeing a whole new world for me in my place with that eye With all my love to you Your mother

The Laziness Myth Christine Jeske,2020-12-15 When people cannot find good work can they still find good lives By investigating this question in the context of South Africa where only 43 percent of adults are employed Christine Jeske invites readers to examine their own assumptions about how work and the good life do or do not coincide The Laziness Myth challenges the widespread premise that hard work determines success by tracing the titular laziness myth a persistent narrative that disguises the systems and structures that produce inequalities while blaming unemployment and other social ills on the so called laziness of particular class racial and ethnic groups Jeske offers evidence of the laziness myth s harsh consequences as well as insights into how to challenge it with other South African narratives of a good life In contexts as diverse as rapping in a library manufacturing leather shoes weed whacking neighbors yards negotiating marriage plans and sharing water taps the people described in this book will stimulate discussion on creative possibilities for seeking the good life in and out of employment in South Africa and elsewhere
