Game Spy D-50 Digital Trail Camera

Why does a hunter need a flash game digital trail camera? Simple: It's in your best interest to learn the lay of the land while planning the hunt for game. A hunter needs to know what game is available and where. The perfect place to start is with the Moultrie D-50 Digital Trail Camera, which offers high-end scouting equipment packed with features in an affordably priced game camera.

Loaded With Features

With 5.0 megapixel images, a white flash and the ability to shoot color video during the day and still photos at night, this camera is a great way to start monitoring game for hunting season.

This flash game camera has 16 megabytes of built-in memory and handles up to a 16GB SD card for even more photos and videos of your game. The D-50 camera offers three different resolutions for photos and two more for videos. It will take up to three multi-shot photos of your game.

Great-looking Photos - Day or Night

Your daytime game photos are crisp and clear; night photos are enhanced with a white flash that throws up to 45 feet. When game moves in front of the camera, it goes to work right away thanks to the infrared sensor. The 10-second time for video clips helps you determine what direction your game
