Supporting Reading in Grades 6-12 Sybil M. Farwell, Nancy L. Teger, 2012-06-11 This book presents a curricular framework for students grades 6-12 that school librarians and teachers can use collaboratively to enhance reading skill development, promote literature appreciation, and motivate young people to incorporate reading into their lives beyond the required schoolwork. Supporting Reading Grades 6-12 addresses head-on the disturbing trend of declining leisure reading among students and demonstrates how school librarians can contribute to the development of lifelong reading habits as well as improve students' motivation and test scores. The book provides a comprehensive framework for achieving this: the READS curriculum, which stands for Read as a personal activity, Explore characteristics, history, and awards of creative works, Analyze structure and aesthetic features of creative works, Develop a literary-based product, and Score reading progress. Each of these five components is explained thoroughly, describing how school librarians can encourage students to read as individuals, in groups, and as school communities support classroom teachers' instruction and connect students to today's constantly evolving technologies. Used in combination with an inquiry/information skills model, the READS curriculum enables school librarians to deliver a dynamic, balanced library program that addresses AASL's Standards for the 21st Century Learner.

Directing the Writing Workshop Jean Wallace Gillet, Lynn Beverly, 2001-08-17 This book is a practical, highly readable guide to teaching writing across a broad range of ages and grade levels (K-8). Each stage of the writing process is covered in detail, from setting a purpose for writing to drafting, revising, editing, and producing a finished product. The goal is to provide a comprehensive overview of writing development and best practices in teaching, richly illustrated with examples of student work. Teachers learn strategies and techniques to help students work independently and in groups to develop meaningful projects, master needed skills through engaging mini-lessons, produce various forms of fiction and nonfiction writing, and use literature as a source of inspiration and modeling. Special features include Teacher's Tips and quick reference lists that reinforce key points and aid in instructional planning. An invaluable Appendix provides booklists for mini-lessons on a variety of thematic, stylistic, and grammatical topics.

Write to Know Gary Jensen, 2005 The value of nonfiction writing lies not only in the writing but also in the editing and rewriting. Research overwhelmingly indicates that nonfiction writing with feedback and revision leads to higher student achievement in all content areas. These prompts can be used immediately in the classroom with students.

The Better Writing Breakthrough Eleanor Dougherty, Laura Billings, Terry Roberts, 2016-03-04 Every teacher knows the challenge of trying to engage reluctant readers and struggling writers: students whose typical response to a writing prompt is a few sentence fragments scribbled on a sheet of paper followed by an elaborate shrug of the shoulders. The best way to engage less confident readers and writers is to give them something powerful to think about. The Discourse and Writing Cycle explores writing as a means to focus student thinking, fuel deeper learning, and build complex understanding in English, social studies, math, and science. This field-tested approach from well-respected experts, Eleanor Dougherty Laura Billings and Terry Roberts is designed for use in grades 4 12 The book explores the three interrelated sequences of the cycle the Discourse Sequence the Transition to Writing Sequence and the Writing Sequence and includes classroom examples and sample lesson plans from across the content areas The cycle will inspire you as a teacher and help you to inspire your students to write with confidence and competence How often we dim or extinguish the creative sparks that can come from good writing William Butler Yeats proclaimed that Education is not the filling of a pail but the lighting of a fire This book lights the fire for the teaching of writing John Hattie author of the Visible Learning books Teaching the Teachers Cathy A. Common Core State Standards with the integration of children's literature can transform teaching and learning into a holistic and engaging experience. Tackling nearly every aspect of the English Language Arts Standards and the measures they employ, it offers a thorough plan for engaging elementary school students with literature. It explores the benefits and teaching principles behind CCSS and explains how to apply them to literature. Along with the strengths it has in connection to CCSS, you will learn about the history of children's literature and what both fiction and nonfiction bring to the classroom. You will find plenty of practical applications of the CCSS, including book lists and lesson ideas, along with thorough examples. There is also a wealth of information on the kinds of readers you will encounter and explanations of how to meet their needs. A final section focuses on creating a curriculum connecting the theory throughout the book with concrete lessons, plans, and units that cover the main CCSS skill sets.
