Social Entrepreneurship in the Age of Atrocities Zachary Daniel Kaufman, 2012-01-01. How can anyone make a difference in a world marked by genocide, civil war, refugee crises, disease epidemics? With conscience, hope, and sweat and equity, Dr. Zachary Kaufman and the other contributors to this book have offered aid, created organizations serving victims of human rights violations, and learned from setbacks and failures. Their insight into challenges of sustainable fund-raising, organizational design and management, and skepticism about young Western volunteers can inspire and instruct others who hope to address suffering and injustice through initiative, analysis, and commitment.

— Martha Minow, Dean of the Faculty of Law and Jeremiah Smith Jr. Professor of Law, Harvard Law School. Author, Between Vengeance and Forgiveness: Facing History After Genocide and Mass Violence. This book makes an all too rare and important point. One of the distinguishing characteristics of social entrepreneurs is the way their actions and their example pave the way for peace. Kaufman gives us multiple examples here to demonstrate that the kind of empathetic leadership exhibited by these social entrepreneurs builds an alternative to conflict and contributes to the stability and security of societies.
