North Americas Lost Decade The Munk Debate On The North American Economy:

North America's Lost Decade? Patrick Luciani, Rudyard Griffiths, 2012 As stock markets gyrate Europe lurches from crisis to crisis and recovery in the United States slows the future of the North American economy is more uncertain than ever Can individual entrepreneurship corporate innovation and governments create a new era of sustained economic growth Or will the ongoing financial crisis political dysfunction in the United States and the rise of emerging nations erode living standards in North America for the long term In this edition of the Munk Debates Canada's premier international debate series Nobel Prize winning economist Paul Krugman and Chief Economist and Strategist at Gluskin Sheff and Associates David Rosenberg square off against former director of President Obama's National Economic Council Lawrence Summers and bestselling author Ian Bremmer to tackle the resolution Be it resolved North America faces a Japan style era of high unemployment and slow growth This riveting debate features four of the world's most renowned economists discussing the single most important issue facing all North Americans in a lively engaging forum The economy is a concern that demands our immediate attention and this enlightening and hugely important debate is a must read for all of us Arguing for the resolution It's now impossible to deny the obvious which is that we are not now and have never been on the road to recovery Paul Krugman When all of the stimulus is gone and the Emperor is disrobed it is not going to be a pretty picture David Rosenberg Arguing against the resolution The American people have not become less dedicated to hard work and the productive potential of this economy has not declined Lawrence Summers North America's long term prospects are brighter than Europe's or Japan's the rise of the rest does not automatically imply our decline Ian Bremmer

North America's Lost Decade? Paul Krugman, David Rosenberg, Lawrence Summers, Ian Bremmer, 2012-02-04 As stock markets gyrate Europe lurches from crisis to crisis and recovery in the United States slows the future of the North American economy is more uncertain than ever Can individual entrepreneurship corporate innovation and governments create a new era of sustained economic growth Or will the ongoing financial crisis political dysfunction in the United States and the rise of emerging nations erode living standards in North America for the long term In this edition of the Munk Debates Canada's premier international debate series Nobel Prize winning economist Paul Krugman and former Chief Economist at the Bank of America Merrill Lynch David Rosenberg square off against former director of President Obama's National Economic Council Lawrence Summers and bestselling author Ian Bremmer to tackle the resolution Be it resolved North America faces a Japan style era of high unemployment and slow growth This riveting debate features four of the world's most renowned economists discussing the single most important issue facing all North Americans in a lively engaging forum The economy is a concern that demands our immediate attention and this enlightening and hugely important debate is a must read for all of us

Can Donald Trump Make America Great Again? Newt Gingrich, Robert Reich, Laura Ingraham, Jennifer Granholm, 2016-10-31 Will Donald J Trump be America's next president For some his brash politically incorrect campaign is the panacea for the

Washington and Wall Street elites that have saddled the country with endless wars an anemic economy and growing racial division Trump s boosters believe he will usher in a Reagan like era of domestic prosperity at home and free America from a destructive global web of counterproductive trade agreements and military entanglements abroad Trump s critics are having none of this They see not a president in waiting but a dangerously unstable and inexperienced demagogue one who threatens U S democracy and global peace and security Rather than being a harbinger of the country s renewal Trump s candidacy is supposedly destroying the social fabric of America by demonizing minorities denigrating women and exacerbating racial differences To engage with the controversy of the moment the Fall 2016 Munk Debate will move the motion Be it resolved Donald Trump can make America great again

The 2015 Canadian Federal Election Debate on Foreign Policy

Stephen Harper, Thomas Mulcair, Justin Trudeau, 2015-10-09 Prime Minister Stephen Harper NDP leader Thomas Mulcair and Liberal leader Justin Trudeau squared off on September 28 2015 in Toronto for the first ever federal election debate on Canada s foreign policy Too often foreign policy issues have been afterthoughts in federal election campaigns Now for the first time Canadians will have the opportunity to see the three federal party leaders recognized in Parliament defend their foreign policy visions for the country in a nationally televised debate From the war against terror to Canada U S relations to challenges and opportunities of international trade the Munk Debate on Canada s Foreign Policy will provide the public with important insights into how our next prime minister will defend and project Canada s interests and values on the global stage

Has the European Experiment Failed? Niall Ferguson, Josef Joffe, 2012 In the sweep of human history the European Union stands out as one of humankind s most ambitious endeavors It encompasses half a billion people twenty seven member states twenty three languages and an economy valued at over 15 trillion Modern Europe s stunning achievements aside its sovereign debt crisis has shaken the world s largest political and economic union to its core Can the federal institutions and shared values of Europeans meet the challenges of debt crisis that are as much political as economic Or are Europe s current woes indicative of a series of deep structural faults that will doom the European Union to breakup and failure In this edition of the Munk Debates Canada s premier international debate series former EU commissioner Lord Peter Mandelson French German EU parliament leader of the Greens Daniel Cohn Bendit German Euro skeptic and bestselling author Josef Joffe and Scottish historian Niall Ferguson debate one of the most pressing issues of our day has the great European experiment failed This electrifying debate featuring some of Europe s most outspoken parliamentary figures and academics is guaranteed to be an unforgettable and riveting verbal sparring match on the question that will determine the future of world s economy

Are Men Obsolete? Hanna Rosin, Maureen Dowd, Caitlin Moran, Camille Paglia, 2014-02-08 For the first time in history will it be better to be a woman than a man in the upcoming century The twelfth semi annual Munk Debate pits Hanna Rosin and Maureen Dowd against Caitlin Moran and Camille Paglia to debate one of the biggest socio economic phenomena of our time the relative decline of the power and status of men in the workplace in the family and society at large Men have traditionally been the dominant sex But now for the first time a host of indicators suggests that women not only are achieving equality with men but are fast emerging as the more successful sex of the species Whether in education employment personal health or child rearing statistics point to a rise in the status and power of women at home in the workplace and in traditional male bastions such as politics But are men and the age old power structures associated with maleness permanently in decline In this edition of the Munk Debates Canada's premier debate series renowned author and editor Hanna Rosin and Pulitzer Prize winning columnist Maureen Dowd square off against New York Times bestselling author Caitlin Moran and academic trailblazer Camille Paglia to debate the future of men With women increasingly demonstrating their ability to have it all while men lag behind the Munk Debate on gender tackles the essential socio economic question Are men obsolete

Is American Democracy in Crisis? E.J. Dionne Jr., Andrew Sullivan, Newt Gingrich, Kimberley Strassel, 2018-04-24 The twenty first semi annual Munk Debate pits award winning journalist E J Dionne Jr and influential author and blogger Andrew Sullivan against former Speaker of the U S House of Representatives Newt Gingrich and bestselling author and editor Kimberley Strassel to debate the current crisis of American democracy Our country is now as close to crossing the line from democracy to autocracy as it has been in our lifetimes E J Dionne Jr It is the public debate of the moment is Donald Trump precipitating a crisis of American democracy For some the answer is an emphatic yes Trump's disregard for the institutions and political norms of U S democracy is imperiling the Republic The sooner his presidency collapses the sooner the healing can begin and the ship of state righted For others Trump is not the villain in this drama Rather his young presidency is the conduit not the cause of Americans deep seated anger towards a privileged and self dealing Washington elite Trump's disruption of politics as usual is what America needs to start the process of restoring democracy by the people for the people

Has Obama Made the World a More Dangerous Place? Bret Stephens, Fareed Zakaria, Robert Kagan, Anne-Marie Slaughter, 2015-02-07 The fourteenth semi annual Munk Debate which will be held in Toronto on November 5 2014 pits Bret Stephens and Robert Kagan against Fareed Zakaria and Anne Marie Slaughter to debate the legacy of President Obama From Ukraine to the Middle East to China the United States is redefining its role in international affairs Alliance building public diplomacy and eschewing traditional warfare in favour of the focused use of hard power such as drones and special forces are all hallmarks of the so called Obama Doctrine Is this a farsighted foreign policy for the United States and the world in the twenty first century one that acknowledges and embraces the increasing diffusion of power among states and non state actors Or is an America leading from behind a boon for the nations and blocs who want to roll back economic globalization international law and the spread of democracy and human rights In this edition of the Munk Debates Pulitzer Prize winning journalist Bret Stephens and famed historian and foreign policy commentator Robert Kagan square off against CNN's Fareed Zakaria and noted academic and political commentator Anne Marie Slaughter to debate the legacy of President Obama With ISIS looking to reshape the Middle East Russia increasingly at odds with the rest of the West and the Israeli Palestinian conflict at a standstill the Munk Debate on Foreign Policy asks Has Obama's foreign policy taken the U S in the right direction Should We Tax the Rich More? George Papandreou, Newt Gingrich, Arthur Laffer, Paul Krugman, 2013-11-02 As middle class incomes stagnate in advanced economies while the rich experience record income gains the eleventh semi annual Munk Debate pits wealth redistribution supporters Paul Krugman and George Papandreou against Newt Gingrich and Arthur Laffer to debate taxation should the rich pay more For some the answer is obvious redistribute the wealth of the top income earners who have enjoyed for almost a generation the lion's share of all income gains Imposing higher taxes on the wealthy is the best way for countries such as Canada to reinvest in their social safety nets education and infrastructure while protecting the middle class Others argue that anemic economic growth not income inequality is the real problem facing advanced countries In a globalized economy raising taxes on society's wealth creators leads to capital flight falling government revenues and less money for the poor These same voices contend that lowering taxes on everyone stimulates innovation and investment fuelling future prosperity In this edition of the Munk Debates Canada's premier international debate series Nobel Prize winning economist Paul Krugman and former Prime Minister of Greece George Papandreou square off against former Speaker of the U S House of Representatives Newt Gingrich and famed economist Arthur Laffer to debate if the rich should bear the brunt of higher taxes For the first time ever this stimulating debate which will take place in front of a sold out audience will be available in print With advanced countries facing overextended social services crumbling infrastructure and sluggish economic growth the Munk Debate on economic inequality tackles the essential public policy issue Should we tax the rich more Political Correctness Rudyard Griffiths, 2018-11-06 The twenty second Munk Debate pits acclaimed journalist professor and ordained minister Michael Eric Dyson and New York Times columnist Michelle Goldberg against renowned actor and writer Stephen Fry and University of Toronto professor and author Jordan Peterson to debate the implications of political correctness and freedom of speech Is political correctness an enemy of free speech open debate and the free exchange of ideas Or by confronting head on the dominant power relationships and social norms that exclude marginalized groups are we creating a more equitable and just society For some the argument is clear Political correctness is stifling the free and open debate that fuels our democracy It is also needlessly dividing one group from another and promoting social conflict Others insist that creating public spaces and norms that give voice to previously marginalized groups broadens the scope of free speech The drive towards inclusion over exclusion is essential to creating healthy diverse societies in an era of rapid social change Should the West Engage Putin's Russia? Stephen F. Cohen, Vladimir Pozner, Anne Applebaum, Garry Kasparov, 2015-11-12 How should the West deal with Putin's Russia For the U S and some European powers the answer is obvious isolate Russia with punishing economic sanctions remove it from global institutions such as the G8 and arm the nations directly threatened by Putin In short return to the Cold War doctrine that froze Soviet aggression in Europe and helped bring about the collapse of communist Russia

Others argue that such a policy is a dead end Putin s Russia has legitimate grievances against Western and NATO powers meddling in its sphere of influence Instead of further antagonizing Putin and risking a dangerous escalation of the current conflict the U S and Europe should seek common cause with Russia to address shared threats from the Middle East to Asia to combatting terrorism In the fifteenth semi annual Munk Debate acclaimed academic Stephen F Cohen and veteran journalist and bestselling author Vladimir Poznar square off against internationally renowned expert on Russian history Anne Applebaum and Russian born political dissident Garry Kasparov to debate the future of the West s relationship with Russia

Lost Decades in Growth Performance Y. Chu, 2015-04-20 There have been many noticeable incidents of lost decades in economic growth occurring in countries across the world It has been found that in many economies the lost decade phenomenon persists even after the conventional set of contributing factors such as per capita income fertility rate life expectancy rule of law educational attainment ratio of investment to national income and openness have been taken into account This book explains where and how these lost decades in economic growth occur in the world The authors identify that dominant macroeconomic factors contributing to their occurrence are an abnormal supply of credits relative to national income and poor demand management The study pays special attention to the cases of Japan South Korea and Taiwan exploring their specific cases and analyzing contributing factors While Japan suffered from excessive credit prior to the bubble bursting and from insufficient domestic demand subsequently Korea s growth has been stunted through structural imbalances between and within industries as well as through changes in the orientation of public policies from growth to equality Adversely reduced economic growth in Taiwan has led from its populism ridden democracy and mass media as well as from internal disputes over national identity Lost Decades in Growth Performance provides a revealing insight into the factors affecting economic growth across the world and will be an invaluable resource for anyone with an interest in global and Asian economics It also offers a fundamental source of reference for students and academics in general equilibrium models economic development and East Asian economies

Is This the End of the Liberal International Order? Niall Ferguson, Fareed Zakaria, 2017-11-04 The twentieth semi annual Munk Debate pits Niall Ferguson against Fareed Zakaria to debate the end of the liberal international order Since the end of World War II global affairs have been shaped by the increasing free movement of people and goods international rules setting and a broad appreciation of the mutual benefits of a more interdependent world Together these factors defined the liberal international order and sustained an era of rising global prosperity and declining international conflict But now for the first time in a generation the pillars of liberal internationalism are being shaken to their core by the reassertion of national borders national interests and nationalist politics across the globe Can liberal internationalism survive these challenges and remain the defining rules based system of the future Or are we witnessing the beginning of the end of the liberal international order The twentieth semi annual Munk Debate held on April 28th 2017 pits prominent historian Niall Ferguson against CNN s Fareed Zakaria to debate the future of liberal internationalism The Future of Capitalism Rudyard Griffiths, 2020-06-02 The twenty fifth semi annual Munk Debate held on December 4 2019 pits editorial director and publisher of the Nation Katrina vanden Heuvel and former finance minister of Greece Yanis Varoufakis against Harvard professor Arthur Brooks and New York Times columnist David Brooks to debate whether the capitalist system is broken We need to organise politically to defend the weak empower the many and prepare the ground for reversing the absurdities of capitalism Yanis Varoufakis In Western societies the capitalist system is facing a level of distrust not seen in decades Economic inequality is rampant Life expectancy is falling The environment is being destroyed for profit Political power is wielded by wealthy elites and big business For capitalism s critics it is clear that the system is not designed to help average people Their solution is a top to bottom reform of the free market along more socialist and democratic lines For proponents of capitalism however this system has been the greatest engine of economic and social progress in history Not only has capitalism made all of us materially better off its ideals are responsible for everything from women s rights to a cleaner environment to political freedoms The answer to society s current ills is more capitalism more economic freedom and more free markets The twenty fifth semi annual Munk Debate held on December 4 2019 pits editorial director and publisher of the Nation Katrina vanden Heuvel and former finance minister of Greece Yanis Varoufakis against Harvard professor Arthur Brooks and New York Times columnist David Brooks to debate whether the capitalist system is broken The World After COVID Rudyard Griffiths, 2021-02-23 From the world renowned Munk Debates comes a collection of dialogues by leading intellectuals envisioning our post pandemic future During this time of social distancing the acclaimed Munk Debates series have been reimagined into a series of dialogues by leading intellectuals who examine the geopolitical economic technological and historical angles of this unprecedented new era How will the world look after COVID 19 What is the future for the international economy and institutions Will the global balance of power shift Can technology save us These are the questions that have occupied the best minds since the beginning of the pandemic In a series of one on one conversations with moderator Rudyard Griffiths renowned author Malcolm Gladwell journalist Fareed Zakaria and New York Times columnist David Brooks along with six other thinkers dissect what brought us here and what comes next The Global Refugee Crisis: How Should We Respond? Louise Arbour, Simon Schama, Nigel Farage, Mark Steyn, 2016-11-26 The world is facing the worst humanitarian crisis since the Second World War Over 300 000 are dead in Syria and one and half million are either injured or disabled Four and a half million people are trying to flee the country And Syria is just one of a growing number of failed or failing states in the Middle East and North Africa How should developed nations respond to human suffering on this mass scale Do the prosperous societies of the West including Canada and the U S have a moral imperative to assist as many refugees as they reasonably and responsibly can Or is this a time for vigilance and restraint in the face of a wave of mass migration that risks upending the tolerance and openness of the West The eighteenth semi annual Munk Debate which was held on April 1 2016 pits former UN High Commissioner for Human Rights Louise

Arbour and leading historian Simon Schama against leader of the UK Independence Party Nigel Farage and bestselling author Mark Steyn to debate the West's response to the global refugee crisis
