

NORTH CAROLINA EDUCATION LOTTERY POLICIES AND PROCEDURES MANUAL

CHAPTER 2 – GAME RULES

2.04A – POWERBALL GAME RULES

General Rules

- A. The purpose of the Powerball draw game is the generation of revenue for the Participating Lotteries, consisting of members from the Multi-State Lottery Association ("MUSL") to which the North Carolina Education Lottery ("NCEL") is a member, and participating U.S. lotteries operating under an agreement to sell Mega Millions, through the operation of a specialty-designed multi-state lottery game that will award prizes to ticket holders matching specified combinations of numbers randomly selected in regularly scheduled drawings. These Rules shall apply to all NCEL Powerball ticket holders and claimants. These Rules incorporate the Multi-State Lottery ("MUSL") Powerball Game Rules.

- B. During each Powerball drawing, six (6) Powerball Winning Numbers will be selected from two (2) fields of numbers in the following manner: five (5) winning numbers from a field of one (1) through sixty-nine (69) numbers, and one (1) winning number from a field of one (1) through twenty-six (26) numbers.

- C. Definitions

Annuity Grand Prize – The Powerball top prize that would be paid in thirty (30) annual installments.

Authorized Claim Center - Any NCEL Retailer or NCEL Office, based upon the prize claim limits as established by the NCEL.

Cash Option – The manner in which the Powerball Grand/Jackpot Prize may be paid in a single payment.

Claimant and Claim - Any person or entity submitting a claim form and such claim form is received by a NCEL Office within the one hundred eightieth (180th) day from the Powerball drawing date to collect a prize for an Official Powerball Ticket. If the 180th calendar day falls on a day in which the NCEL is not open for business, the ticket must be claimed by the end of the NCEL's next business day. A Claimant may be the Purchaser, the person or entity named on a signed Official Powerball Ticket, the bearer of an unsigned Official Powerball Ticket or any other person or entity who may seek entitlement to a Powerball prize payment in accordance with these Rules, the North Carolina Lottery Act, NCEL policies and procedures. No Claimant may assert rights different from the rights acquired by the original Purchaser at the time of purchase. A submitted claim does not guarantee payment.

Director(s) - The chief officers of the Participating Lotteries or any other persons to whom the Directors' authority is lawfully delegated.

Drawing – The formal process of selecting winning numbers which determine the number of winners for each prize level of the game.

North Carolina Government & Politics Jack D. Fler, 1994-01-01 North Carolina has been a leader in the South and the nation since 1775 when it became First in Freedom by calling for its independence from British rule Throughout its history the state has had a reputation as a progressive force This book offers both an assessment and an examination of the realities of the state s leadership Analyzing a wide range of political actors and organizations which includes the state legislature the governor and executive branch the judiciary political parties interest groups and the media Fler illuminates North Carolina s rich political history its evolving constitutional order and its changing political culture Although revealing a pattern of elitist paternalism in the state s political history the book illustrates a parallel pattern of popular participation and control Major forces of change are increasingly defining the state These transitional factors include a significant biracial electorate a stratified society a diverse electorate increasingly varied and mobilized political interest groups a competitive political party system and a more representative political leadership New challenges to the state s future development are its aging population the preparedness of its work force the globalization of its economy the protection of its natural resources and the education of its children for the next century Each new political debate policy choice and election reminds North Carolinians of their fundamental challenge establishing a government by enlightened and effective popular consent Jack D Fler is a professor of political science at Wake Forest University and the author of North Carolina Politics An Introduction

The New Politics of North Carolina Christopher A. Cooper, H. Gibbs Knotts, 2012-09-01 Political scientist V O Key in 1949 described North

Carolina as a progressive plutocracy He argued that in the areas of industrial development public education and race relations North Carolina appeared progressive when compared to other southern states Reconsidering Key s evaluation nearly sixty years later contributors to this volume find North Carolina losing ground as a progressive leader in the South The new politics of the state involves a combination of new and old new opportunities and challenges have forced the state to change but the old culture still remains a powerful force In the eleven essays collected here leading scholars of North Carolina politics offer a systematic analysis of North Carolina s politics and policy placed in the context of its own history as well as the politics and policies of other states Topics discussed include the evolution of politics and political institutions the roles of governors the judicial branch interest groups and party systems and the part played by economic development and environmental policy Contributors also address how geography affects politics within the state region and nation Designed with students and interested citizens in mind this collection provides an excellent introduction to contemporary North Carolina politics and government Contributors Hunter Bacot Elon University Christopher A Cooper Western Carolina University Thomas F Eamon East Carolina University Jack D Fleer Wake Forest University Dennis O Grady Appalachian State University Ferrel Guillory University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Sean Hildebrand Western Carolina University Jonathan Kanipe Town Manager Catawba North Carolina H Gibbs Knotts Western Carolina University Adam J Newmark Appalachian State University Charles Prysby University of North Carolina at Greensboro Ruth Ann Strickland Appalachian State University James H Svava Arizona State University Timothy Vercellotti Rutgers University

Volatility in State Spending for Higher Education Jennifer A. Delaney,2023-10-30 The severity of cuts and the unpredictability in state funding for higher education have garnered headlines across the nation since the turn of the present century In this context the authors in this new groundbreaking volume argue that too little attention is paid to the consequences of volatility in funding as most discussions focus on levels of funding Their research addresses an important blind spot in the academic literature since predictability matters to institutions students families and states In addition the risks of operating in an uncertain financial environment have led to behaviors that are not always in the best interests of states institutions faculty students or the public good

Informing Public Policy Stefanie Haeffele,Abigail R. Hall,Adam Millsap,2019-04-25 Market process theory illustrates how the market is the most effective institution for overcoming the knowledge problem Specifically the institutional characteristics of private property monetary prices and the disciplining mechanisms of profit and loss guide actors to utilize knowledge dispersed among society to allocate resources effectively and to adjust their behavior when errors occur to provide valuable goods and services to society The chapters in this manuscript explore through applications to issues within the United States and internationally contemporary issues in public policy through the theoretical framework of knowledge problems and market process economics Utilizing this approach as well as other fundamental insights from economics these chapters aim to illustrate how individuals in society address pressing public issues the problems faced by policymakers and the potential for novel solutions to policy challenges Authored by individuals from a variety of disciplines with interests in public policy this work includes discussions of education child welfare urban planning and U S healthcare policy as well as topics in e commerce the Global War on Terror international trade and economic development Research in Education ,1971
