North Carolina Let Vol 11:

Civil War Courts-Martial of North Carolina Troops Aldo S. Perry, 2012-08-08 During the Civil War Confederate military courts sentenced to death more soldiers from North Carolina than from any other state This study offers the first exploration of the service records of 450 of these wayward Confederates most often deserters Arranged by army corps division and brigade it chronicles their military trials and frequent executions and offers explanations of how the lucky and the clever were able to avoid their fate Focus on court activity by company allows for comparisons that emphasize the wide disparity in discipline within a regiment and brigade By stressing the effectiveness of these deadly decisions as deterrents to others this work maintains that an earlier and wider reliance on execution would have strengthened the Confederacy sufficiently to force a negotiated end to the war thus saving many Confederate and Federal lives

The 4th North Carolina Cavalry in the Civil War Neil Hunter Raiford, 2006-12-06 In April 1862 the Civil War was entering its second year and North Carolina was rallying to supply more troops for the Confederacy The Partisan Ranger Act passed by the Confederate Congress on April 21 prompted local leaders to recruit companies of irregular soldiers for service in the Confederate Army Seven such companies were banded together into a regiment to form the 4th North Carolina Cavalry a true cross section of North Carolina it contained soldiers from the largest urban areas and smallest rural areas from fifteen counties This history of the 4th North Carolina Cavalry is based largely on primary source material the official records letters diaries and recollections of the soldiers The 4th North Carolina saw action in North Carolina Virginia Maryland and Pennsylvania and was a part of General Lee s Army of Northern Virginia The roster comprises a large part of the book and provides biographical genealogical and military information about each soldier

The 21st North Carolina Infantry Lee W. Sherrill, Jr., 2015-04-14 The 21st North Carolina Troops 11th North Carolina Volunteers was one of only two Tar Heel Confederate regiments that in 1865 could boast From Manassas to Appomattox The 21st was the only North Carolina regiment with Stonewall Jackson during his 1862 Valley Campaign and remained with the same division throughout the war It participated in every major battle fought by the Army of Northern Virginia except the 1864 Overland Campaign when General Lee sent it to fight its own intense battles near New Bern and Plymouth This book is written from the perspective of the 1 942 men who served in the regiment and is filled with anecdotal material gleaned from more than 700 letters and memoirs In several cases it sheds new light on accepted but often incorrect interpretations of events Names such as Lee Jackson Hoke Trimble Hill Early Ramseur and Gordon charge through the pages as the Carolina regiment gains a name for itself Suffering a 50 percent casualty rate over the four years only 67 of the 920 young men and boys who began the war surrendered to Grant at its end

The Battle of Hanover Court House Michael C. Hardy, 2024-12-04 One year into the Civil War beset by military and political pressures General George B McClellan committed his Army of the Potomac to the Peninsula Campaign with the capture of Richmond his ultimate goal Hampered by Lincoln s demand for troops to protect Washington a limited Union Army entered a series of battles around the community of Hanover Court House Virginia Although they forced a Confederate retreat they missed the opportunity to press on and capture Richmond an opportunity that never came again Here is the first detailed look at the battle most widely known as Hanover Court House and Slash Church focusing on the engagements between Union V Corps commander Fitz John Porter and Confederate General Lawrence O Bryan Branch Photographs are included along with appendices featuring the official reports of both commanders and lists of casualties from both sides Grant Jean Edward Smith,2002-04-09 In this magnificent biography Jean Edward Smith skillfully reconciles the disparate conflicting assessments of Ulysses S Grant confirming his genius as a general but convincingly showing that Grant s presidential accomplishments were as considerable as his military victories 40 photos Confederate Tide Rising Joseph L. Harsh,1998 This analysis of the military policy and strategy adopted by Robert E Lee and Jefferson Davis in the first two years of the Civil War argues that their policies allowed the Confederacy to survive longer than it otherwise could have and were the policies best designed to win Southern independence Bibliography of the Geology and Mineralogy of Tin Frank Lee Hess,Smithsonian Institution,Eva Hess,1912 Smithsonian Physical Tables Smithsonian Institution,1912 Legal Bibliography ... ,1903

Real-Time Rendering, Fourth Edition Tomas Akenine-Mo"ller,Eric Haines,Naty Hoffman,2018-08-06 Thoroughly updated this fourth edition focuses on modern techniques used to generate synthetic three dimensional images in a fraction of a second With the advent of programmable shaders a wide variety of new algorithms have arisen and evolved over the past few years This edition discusses current practical rendering methods used in games and other applications It also presents a solid theoretical framework and relevant mathematics for the field of interactive computer graphics all in an approachable style New to this edition new chapter on VR and AR as well as expanded coverage of Visual Appearance Advanced Shading Global Illumination and Curves and Curved Surfaces Edward A. Wild and the African Brigade in the Civil War Frances H. Casstevens,2015-08-31 Edward Wild the controversial Union general who headed the all black African Brigade in the Civil War was one of the most loved and most hated figures of the 19th century The man was neither understood nor appreciated by military or civilian black or white Northerner or Southerner After enlisting at the outbreak of the war Wild was promoted to Brigadier General and placed in charge of the United States Colored Troops In fulfilling his assignment to free slaves and gain recruits he took three women as hostages and ordered a great deal of property destruction He freed hundreds perhaps thousands of slaves and settled them safely on Roanoke Island Wild then not only recruited the newly freed blacks but trained them and gave them the opportunity to prove their worth in battle Nobody it seems was happy about serving with them but the African Brigade performed courageously in several battles Wild did some inexplicable things Were his actions typical of the 19th century or did he act outside the norm Was the criticism he suffered from his fellow Union officers valid or was it due to personality conflicts Did he deserve to be arrested court martialed and even wiped from the history books or was he the victim of discrimination This work draws its answers from extensive research and includes many rare letters to and from Wild including one from one of the North Carolinian hostages Forest and Stream ,1916 History of Alaska , Volume II Jonathan M. Nielson, Ph.D.,2018-03-01 The most significant military development to touch Alaska during the interwar years was the advent of air power an innovation that completely altered Alaska s strategic position Suddenly the world became smaller as areas once thought safely distant from potential enemies became vulnerable Nowhere was this more evident than in the Pacific whose countless islands became potential advanced air bases As air technology improved the ability of long range bombers and by the 1930s of carrier aircraft to penetrate American airspace was a development of far reaching significance While such warnings were largely limited to a handful of air power advocates their vocal advocacy constituted nothing less than an insurrection a revolution in military thinking fought against entrenched military conservatism cultural aversion to change fears of budget cuts and War Department lethargy Indeed it was the air power crusader General Billy Mitchell who aggressively fought to convince the War and Navy Departments to embrace the new doctrine of offensive air power Mitchell came to understand Alaska s strategic importance early on Consequently he saw the Aleutians as a vulnerability if left unguarded Japan could creep up and by establishing air dominance take Alaska and Canada s West Coast But he also saw Alaska as a strategic base from which American planes could reduce Tokyo to powder Prophetically in 1923 Mitchell forecast precisely the military threat and strategic arguments that would shape military thinking almost twenty years later I am thinking of Alaska In an air war if we were unprepared Japan could take it away from us first by dominating the sky and creeping up the Aleutians By the mid to late 1930s military and civilian advocates of air power and more visionary strategists were beginning to make their voices heard in Congress and elsewhere decrying Alaska s military vulnerability Between 1933 and 1944 no one was more adamant than Alaska s Delegate in Congress Anthony Joseph Tony Dimond who challenged the nation to defend itself by defending Alaska To Dimond it seemed poor strategy to fortify one pacific base Hawaii while ignoring another Alaska Dimond s campaign was strengthened by passage of the Wilcox Bill sponsored by Representative J Mark Wilcox D Florida officially known as the National Air Defense Act This truly significant legislation authorized the location and construction of military airfields throughout the United States as a general defense preparedness measure Alaska was recognized as one of the nation s six strategic regions and two bases one at Anchorage the other at Fairbanks were recommended in part because Alaska was closer to Japan than it is to the center of the continental United States Fortuitously for Alaska defense advocates General Douglas MacArthur stepped down as Chief of Staff of the Army and was replaced by Major General Malin Craig in October 1935 Craig and Brigadier General Stanley D Embick advocated a substantial reconfiguration of Plan Orange arguing that the Philippines presented an invitation to attack and should be neutralized in favor defending the Alaska Hawaii Panama Triangle Both the Army and Navy were charged with defending Alaska as far west as Dutch Harbor and the army pledged to mobilize 6 600 troops in Alaska within a month of attack by Japan In contemplating the defense of Alaska the Army General Staff formulated five priority objectives first increase the Alaska garrison second establish a major base for Army operations near Anchorage third develop a network of air bases within Alaska fourth garrison these bases with combat troops and fifth protect the naval installations at Sitka Kodiak and Dutch Harbor Alaska was about to go to war
