Above the Law (Serapis Classics) Max Brand, 2017-10-09 HER eyes were like the sky on a summer night a color to be dreamed of but never reproduced From the golden hair to the delicate hands which cupped her chin a flower like loveliness kept her aloof from her surroundings like a rare pearl set in base metal Her companion young and darkly handsome crumpled in a hand scarcely less white than hers the check which the waiter had left In the mean time he gazed with some concern at his companion Her lips stirred she sighed Two dollars for ham she murmured Can you beat it Freddie He sort of sagged when we slipped him the order answered the dark and distinguished youth I guess the hens are only making one night stands in this country They ve got an audience anyway she returned and that s more than we could draw She opened her purse and passed two bills to him under the table Why the camouflage he asked as he took the money Freddie she said run your glass eye over the men in this joint If they see you pay for the eats with my money they d take you for a skirt in disguise A light twinkled for an instant far back in her eyes Take me for a skirt said Frederick Montgomery in his most austere manner Say cutie lay off on the rough stuff and get human The trouble with you La Belle Geraldine is that you forget your real name is Annie Kerrigan Her lazy smile caressed him Freddie she purred you do your dignity bit the way Charlie Chaplin would do Hamlet Mr Montgomery
