None Wounded None Missing All Dead The Story Of Elizabeth Bacon Custer:

None Wounded, None Missing, All Dead Howard Kazanjian, Chris Enss, 2013-10 A popular biography of one of the most famous American women of the 19th century and a sweeping and tragic romance now in paperback Custer, the Seventh Cavalry, and the Little Big Horn Mike O'Keefe, 2012-11-20 Since the shocking news first broke in 1876 of the Seventh Cavalry's disastrous defeat at the Little Big Horn fascination with the battle and with Lieutenant George Armstrong Custer has never ceased Widespread interest in the subject has spawned a vast outpouring of literature which only increases with time This two volume bibliography of Custer literature is the first to be published in some twenty five years and the most complete ever assembled Drawing on years of research Michael O Keefe has compiled entries for roughly 3 000 books and 7 000 articles and pamphlets Covering both nonfiction and fiction but not juvenile literature the bibliography focuses on events beginning with Custer's tenure at West Point during the 1850s and ending with the massacre at Wounded Knee in 1890 Included within this span are Custer's experiences in the Civil War and in Texas the 1873 Yellowstone and 1874 Black Hills expeditions the Great Sioux War of 1876-77 and the Seventh Cavalry's pursuit of the Nez Percés in 1877 The literature on Custer the Battle of the Little Big Horn and the Seventh Cavalry touches the entire American saga of exploration conflict and settlement in the West including virtually all Plains Indian tribes the frontier army railroading mining and trading Hence this bibliography will be a valuable resource for a broad audience of historians librarians collectors and Custer enthusiasts

Killing Crazy Horse Bill O'Reilly, Martin Dugard, 2020-09-08 The latest installment of the multimillion selling Killing series is a gripping journey through the American West and the historic clashes between Native Americans and settlers The bloody Battle of Tippecanoe was only the beginning It's 1811 and President James Madison has ordered the destruction of Shawnee warrior chief Tecumseh's alliance of tribes in the Great Lakes region But while General William Henry Harrison would win this fight the armed conflict between Native Americans and the newly formed United States would rage on for decades Bestselling authors Bill O'Reilly and Martin Dugard venture through the fraught history of our country's founding on already occupied lands from General Andrew Jackson's brutal battles with the Creek Nation to President James Monroe's epic sea to shining sea policy to President Martin Van Buren's cruel enforcement of a treaty that forced the Cherokee Nation out of their homelands along what would be called the Trail of Tears O'Reilly and Dugard take readers behind the legends to reveal never before told historical moments in the fascinating creation story of America This fast paced wild ride through the American frontier will shock readers and impart unexpected lessons that reverberate to this day A Surgeon with Custer at the Little Big Horn James Madison DeWolf, 2017-05-25 In spring 1876 a physician named James Madison DeWolf accepted the assignment of contract surgeon for the Seventh Cavalry becoming one of three surgeons who accompanied Custer's battalion at the Battle of the Little Big Horn Killed in the early stages of the battle he might easily have become a mere footnote in the many chronicles of this epic campaign but he left behind an eyewitness account in his diary and correspondence A Surgeon with Custer at the Little Big Horn is the first annotated edition of these rare accounts since 1958 and the most complete treatment to date. While researchers have known of DeWolf's diary for many years, few details have surfaced about the man himself. In A Surgeon with Custer at the Little Big Horn, Todd E. Harburn bridges this gap, providing a detailed biography of DeWolf as well as extensive editorial insight into his writings. As one of the most highly educated men who traveled with Custer, the surgeon was well equipped to compose articulate descriptions of the 1876 campaign against the Indians, a fateful journey that began for him at Fort Lincoln, Dakota Territory, and ended on the battlefield in eastern Montana Territory. In letters to his beloved wife Fannie and in diary entries reproduced in this volume exactly as he wrote them, DeWolf describes the terrain, weather conditions, and medical needs that he and his companions encountered along the way. After DeWolf's death, his colleague Dr. Henry Porter, who survived the conflict, retrieved his diary and sent it to DeWolf's widow. Later, the DeWolf family donated it to the Little Bighorn Battlefield National Monument. Now available in this accessible and fully annotated format, the diary along with the DeWolf's personal correspondence serves as a unique primary resource for information about the Little Big Horn campaign and medical practices on the western frontier.

A Companion to Custer and the Little Bighorn Campaign Brad D. Lookingbill, 2019-09-18. Provides a detailed analysis of the battle maneuverings at Little Bighorn, paying special attention to Indian testimony from the battlefield. Outlaw Tales of California Chris Enss, 2013-09-03. Massacres, mayhem, and mischief fill the pages of Outlaw Tales of California 2 with compelling legends of the Golden State's most despicable desperadoes. Ride with horse thieves and cattle rustlers, duck the bullets of murderers, plot strategies with con artists, and hiss at lawmen turned outlaws.

Widowed Ones Chris Enss, Howard Kazanjian, 2022-06-15. There weren't many women in the late 1800s who had the opportunity to accompany their husbands on adventures that were so exciting they seemed fictitious. Such was the case for the women married to the officers in General George Armstrong Custer's Seventh Cavalry. There were seven officers' wives. They were all good friends who traveled from post to post with one another along with their spouses. Of the seven widows, Elizabeth Custer was the most well-known. As the wife of the commanding officer, Libbie felt it was her duty to be present when the officer's wives at Fort Lincoln were told their husbands had been killed at the Battle of the Little Bighorn. The women were overwhelmed with letters of condolence. Most people were sincere in their expressions of sorrow over the widows' loss. Others were ghoulish souvenir hunters requesting articles of their husbands' clothing and personal weapons as keepsakes. The press was preoccupied with how the wives of the deceased officers were handling their grief During the first year after the tragic event reporters sought them out to learn how they were coping what plans they had for the future and what if anything they knew about the battle itself The widows were able to soldier through the scrutiny because they had one another They confided in each other cried without apologizing and discussed their desperate financial situations The friendship the bereaved widows had with one another proved to be a critical source of support The transition from being officers wives living at various forts on the wild frontier to being single women with homes of their own was a difficult adjustment Without one another to depend upon the time might have been more of a struggle The Widowed Ones Beyond the Battle of the Little Bighorn tells the stories of these women and the unique bond they shared through never before seen materials from the Elizabeth Custer Library and Museum at Garryowen Montana including letters to and from politicians and military leaders to the widows fellow soldiers and critics of George Custer to the widows and letters between the widows themselves about when the women first met the men they married and their attempts to persevere after the tragedy
