North Vietnamese Army Soldier 1958 75 Warrior:

North Vietnamese Army Soldier 1958-75 Gordon L. Rottman, 2012-10-20 Commonly mistaken for the locally raised Viet Cong the NVA was an entirely different force conducting large scale operations in a conventional war Despite limited armour artillery and air support the NVA were an extremely politicized and professional force with strict control measures and leadership concepts Gordon Rottman follows the fascinating life of the highly motivated infantryman from conscription and induction through training to real combat experiences Covering the evolution of the forces from 1958 onwards this book takes an in depth look at the civilian and military lives of the soldiers whilst accompanying artwork details the uniforms weapons and equipment used by the NVA in their clash against America and her allies

US Air Cavalry Trooper vs North Vietnamese Soldier Chris McNab, 2020-09-17 The tactics and technologies of modern air assault vertical deployment of troops by helicopter or similar means emerged properly during the 1950s in Korea and Algeria Yet it was during the Vietnam War that helicopter air assault truly came of age and by 1965 the United States had established fully airmobile battalions brigades and divisions including the 1st Cavalry Division Airmobile This division brought to Vietnam a revolutionary new speed and dexterity in battlefield tactics using massed helicopters to liberate its soldiers from traditional overland methods of combat manoeuvre However the communist troops adjusted their own thinking to handle airmobile assaults Specializing in ambush harassment infiltration attacks and small scale attrition the North Vietnamese operated with light logistics and a deep familiarity with the terrain They optimized their defensive tactics to make landing zones as hostile as possible for assaulting US troops and from 1966 worked to draw them into Hill Traps extensive kill zones specially prepared for defence in depth By the time the 1st Cavalry Division Airmobile withdrew from Vietnam in 1972 it had suffered more casualties than any other US Army division Featuring specially commissioned artwork archive photographs and full colour battle maps this study charts the evolution of US airmobile tactics pitted against North Vietnamese countermeasures The two sides are analysed in detail including training logistics weaponry and organization

Army of the Republic of Vietnam 1955-75 Gordon L. Rottman, 2012-01-20 This book discusses the original reorganization of these forces into the first national army evolved from the colonial units created by the French Complete with a detailed history of the command structure and orders of battle the author also sheds light on the little known divisional histories of the army through rare original source material Moreover the author examines in detail the evolution of such key units as armoured forces ranger commands as well as combat unit organisation This together with a detailed analysis of the experiences of the typical rank and file soldier as well as officer corps provides a concise and detailed history of an army that is too often neglected or quickly judged

F-105 Wild Weasel vs SA-2 'Guideline' SAM Peter E. Davies, 2011-12-20 A detailed account of the suppression of North Vietnam's surface to air missile defences during the Vietnam War initiating a totally new concept of air war The Vietnam War was the first conflict that saw extensive use of surface to air anti aircraft missiles and thus became a training ground for the tactics of this new type of battle as USAF pilots battled with supersonic Soviet ground to air missiles. Featuring illustrations throughout this instalment in Osprey's Duel series presents this story in the context of two of the main opponents: America's top fighter bomber and the NVA's best anti-aircraft missile. UH-1 Huey Gunship vs NVA/VC Forces

Peter E. Davies, 2021-08-19

Often described as the US Army's aerial jeep, the UH-1 Iroquois Huey was the general purpose vehicle that provided mobility in a hostile jungle environment which made rapid troop movement extremely challenging by any other means. Hueys airlifted troops, evacuated casualties, rescued downed pilots, transported cargo externally and enabled rapid transit of commanders in the field. Although vertical aviation had only become a practical reality during the Korean War, helicopters evolved rapidly in the decade before Vietnam and by 1965 the US Army and US Marines relied on them as primary combat tools. This was principally because North Vietnam's armed forces had long experience of jungle operations, camouflage and evasion. Generally avoiding set-piece pitched battles, they relied on rapid, frequent strikes and withdrew using routes that were generally inaccessible to US vehicles. They commonly relied on darkness and bad weather to make their moves, often rendering them immune to conventional air attack. Gunship helicopters, sometimes equipped with Firefly searchlights and early night vision light intensifiers, were more able to track and attack the enemy. Innovative tactics were required for this unfamiliar combat scenario and for a US Army that was more prepared for conventional operations in a European type setting. One of the most valuable new initiatives was the UH-1C Huey Hog or Frog gunship, conceived in 1960 and offering more power and agility than the UH-1B that pioneered gunship use in combat. Heavily armed with guns and rockets and easily transportable by air, these helicopters became available in large numbers and they became a major problem for the insurgent forces throughout the war. Covering fascinating details of the innovations in tactics and combat introduced by gunship helicopters, this book offers an analysis of their adaptability and usefulness in a variety of operations while exploring the insurgent forces' responses to the advent of vertical aviation. A-4 Skyhawk vs North Vietnamese

AAA Peter E. Davies, 2020-09-17

While the F-105 Thunderchief was the USAF's principal strike weapon during the Rolling Thunder campaign, the US Navy relied on the Douglas A-4 Skyhawk for the majority of its strikes on North Vietnam. The Skyhawk entered service in 1956 and remained in continuous production for 26 years. Throughout Operation Rolling Thunder, it was the US Navy's principal daytime light strike bomber, remaining in use after its replacement, the more sophisticated A-7 Corsair II, began to appear in December 1967. During the 1965-68 Rolling Thunder period, up to five attack carriers regularly launched A-4 strike formations against North Vietnam. These formations faced an ever-expanding and increasingly coordinated Soviet-style network of anti-aircraft artillery, missiles and fighters. Skyhawk pilots were often given the hazardous task of attacking anti-aircraft defences and to improve accuracy they initially dropped ordnance below 3000 ft in a 30-degree dive in order to bomb visually below the persistent low cloud over North Vietnam, putting the aircraft within range of small arms fire. The defenders had the advantage of covering a relatively small target area and the sheer weight of light-medium and heavy gunfire directed at an attacking force brought inevitable casualties and a single rifle bullet could have the same effect as a larger shell This illustrated title examines both the A 4 Skyhawk and the Vietnamese AAA defences in context exploring their history and analysing their tactics and effectiveness during the conflict Political Warfare in Republican Vietnam Robert A. Silano,2024-08-30 This work examines the development of the Republic of Vietnam Armed Forces as a national institution explores the historical origins of the political warfare system and assesses that system s nurturing of military morale popular support and ways to weaken enemy resolve North Vietnam in the 1940s and South Vietnam in the 1960s embraced the system of political control over the military that was developed in Soviet Russia after the Bolshevik Revolution and in Republican China in the 1920s where it influenced both the Nationalist and Communist movements The book discusses the overall effectiveness of political warfare activities in the Republic of Vietnam s army the advice and support offered by the U S military to the South Vietnamese political warfare establishment and the consequences of the war s end for the members of the Republic of Vietnam Armed Forces who served in the political warfare system Kontum Thomas McKenna,2011-09-01 In the spring of 1972 North Vietnam invaded South Vietnam in what became known as the Easter Offensive Almost all of the American forces had already withdrawn from Vietnam except for a small group of American advisers to the South Vietnamese armed forces The 23rd ARVN Infantry Division and its American advisers were sent to defend the provincial capital of Kontum in the Central Highlands They were surrounded and attacked by three enemy divisions with heavy artillery and tanks but with the help of air power managed to successfully defend Kontum and prevent South Vietnam from being cut in half and defeated Although much has been written about the Vietnam War little of it addresses either the Easter Offensive or the Battle of Kontum In Kontum The Battle to Save South Vietnam Thomas P McKenna fills this gap offering the only in depth account available of this violent engagement McKenna a U S infantry lieutenant colonel assigned as a military adviser to the 23rd Division participated in the battle of Kontum and combines his personal experiences with years of interviews and research from primary sources to describe the events leading up to the invasion and the battle itself Kontum sheds new light on the actions of U S advisers in combat during the Vietnam War McKenna s book is not only an essential historical resource for America s most controversial war but a personal story of valor and survival The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2009 Pulp Vietnam Gregory A. Daddis,2020-10-22 In this compelling evaluation of Cold War popular culture Pulp Vietnam explores how men s adventure magazines helped shape the attitudes of young working class Americans the same men who fought and served in the long and bitter war in Vietnam The macho pulps boasting titles like Man s Conquest Battle Cry and Adventure Life portrayed men courageously defeating their enemies in battle while women were reduced to sexual objects either trivialized as erotic trophies or depicted as sexualized villains using their bodies to prey on unsuspecting innocent men The result was the crafting and dissemination of a particular version of martial masculinity that helped establish GIs expectations and perceptions of war in Vietnam By examining the role that popular culture can play in normalizing wartime sexual violence and challenging readers to consider how American society should move beyond pulp conceptions of normal male behavior Daddis convincingly argues that how we construct popular tales of masculinity matters in both peace and war The American Culture of War Adrian R. Lewis, 2006-12-21 The American Culture of War presents a sweeping critical examination of every major American war since 1941 Timely incisive and comprehensive it is a unique and invaluable survey of over sixty years of American military history Air University Library Index to Military Periodicals, 1997 Salute to Service Julia Millen, 1997 A study of the role of the RNZCT and its predecessors the NZASC and the RNZASC It examines the roles of those organisations within the army transport supply and catering and tells the stories of the many thousands of New Zealanders who worked in them Illustrated with black and white photographs The author has written many books including a biography of Ronald Hugh Morrieson Historical Abstracts, 1999 Combat Surgeons John Laffin, 1999 This fully illustrated tribute to doctors and nurses at war is a stirring testament to the skill and courage of the combat surgeons

How We Fight Dominic Tierney, 2010-11-04 Americans love war We've never run from a fight Our triumphs from the American Revolution to World War II define who we are as a nation and a people Americans hate war Our leaders rush us into conflicts without knowing the facts or understanding the consequences Korea Vietnam and now Iraq and Afghanistan define who we are as a nation and a people How We Fight explores the extraordinary doublemindedness with which Americans approach war and reveals the opposing mindsets that have governed our responses throughout history the crusade tradition our grand quests to defend democratic values and overthrow tyrants and the quagmire tradition our resistance to the work of nation building and its inevitable cost in dollars and American lives How can one nation be so split Studying conflicts from the Civil War to the present Dominic Tierney has created a secret history of American foreign policy and a frank and insightful look at how Americans respond to the ultimate challenge And he shows how success is possible His innovative model for tackling the challenges of modern war can mean longstanding victory in Iraq and Afghanistan by rediscovering a lost American warrior tradition Making and Marketing Arms Edward A. Kolodziej, 2014-07-14 France ranks as the world's third largest arms exporter and supplies arms and military technology to over a hundred countries This book exposes the compelling aims and interests national independence security economic welfare foreign influence grandeur that explain the nation's successes in arms production and transfers Originally published in 1987 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Military Chaplains Assn, 1996-06-15 American Book Publishing Record Cumulative,
