DIV From a highly respected thinker on race gender and American politics a new consideration of black women and how distorted stereotypes affect their political beliefs div Savage Sand and Surf Lisa A. Eargle, Ashraf Esmail, 2015-04-02 It was almost November 2012 when Hurricane Sandy a late arrival in an otherwise quiet tropical season slammed into the Mid Atlantic US coastline Millions of residents were plunged into darkness and billions of dollars in property and infrastructure were flooded or washed away in surging waters Blizzard conditions struck the Appalachians as the hybrid Halloween monster moved inland Savage Sand and Surf The Hurricane Sandy Disaster is multi faceted examination into one of the most recent natural disasters in the United States Scholars from multiple disciplines address a wide range of important aspects of this event including unique meteorological and social impacts of Sandy Sandy s intersection with vulnerable social groups in society and social institutions adaptations to the disaster Also different theoretical models of disasters are explored and applied to better understand and prepare for similar events in the future Black Liberation in Higher Education Chayla Haynes, Milagros Castillo-Montoya, Meseret F. Hailu, Saran Stewart, 2021-05-10 In this book on higher education the contributors make The Black Lives Matter BLM their focus and engage in contemporary theorizing around the issues central to the Movement Black Deprivation Black Resistance and Black Liberation The BLM movement has brought national attention to the deadly oppression shaping the everyday lives of Black people With the recent murders of Breonna Taylor and George Floyd from state sanctioned violence by police the public outrage and racial unrest catapulted BLM further into the mainstream Institutional leaders e g provosts department heads faculty campus administrators particularly among white people soon began realizing that anti Blackness could no longer be ignored making BLM the most significant social movement of our time The chapters included in this volume cover topics such as white institutional space and the experiences of Black administrators a Black transnational ethic of Black Lives Matter depictions of BLM in the media racially liberatory pedagogy campus rebellions and classrooms as sites for Black liberation Black women s labor and intersectional interventions and Black liberation research The considerations for research and practice presented are intended to assist institutional leaders policy makers transdisciplinary researchers and others outside higher education to dismantle anti

Blackness and create supportive mechanisms that benefit Black people especially those working learning and serving in higher education The chapters in this book were originally published in a special issue of International Journal of Qualitative Studies in Education Black Beaches and Bayous Lisa A. Eargle, Ashraf Esmail, 2012-11-02 Black Beaches and Bayous The BP Deepwater Horizon Oil Spill Disaster provides a multidisciplinary international perspective on one of the major disaster events within the United States during the last ten years Scholars from various disciplines including sociology political science ecology psychology and criminal justice investigate the different components and issues associated with this event The contributors address topics such as the social and historical context of fossil fuel use steps within the technological disaster process and similarities and differences between this disaster and other technological disasters They also discuss the social and psychological impacts on Gulf Coast residents the transformation of natural ecological systems changes in risk assessment and media portrayals of the Obama administration and its response to this disaster

Systemic Crises of Global Climate Change Phoebe Godfrey, Denise Torres, 2016-04-14 Sociological literature tends to view the social categories of race class and gender as distinct and has avoided discussing how multiple intersections inform and contribute to experiences of injustice and inequity This limited focus is clearly inadequate Systemic Crises of Global Climate Change is an edited volume of 49 international interdisciplinary contributions addressing global climate change GCC by intentionally engaging with the issues of race gender and class through an intersectional lens The volume challenges and inspires readers to foster new theoretical and practical linkages and think beyond the traditional and oftentimes reductionist environmental science frame by examining issues within their turbulent political cultural and personal landscapes Varied media and writing styles invite students and educators to reflexively engage different yet complementary approaches to GCC analysis and interpretation mirroring the disparate voices and viewpoints within the field The second volume Emergent Possibilities for Sustainability will take a similar approach but will examine the possibilities for solutions as in the quest for global sustainability This book is a valuable resource for academics researchers and both undergraduate and post graduate students in the areas of Environmental Studies Climate Change Gender Studies and International studies as well as those seeking a more intersectional analysis of GCC

HBO's Treme and Post-Katrina Catharsis Dominique Gendrin, Catherine Dessinges, Shearon Roberts, 2017-04-07 Ten years after Hurricane Katrina outsiders will have two versions of the Katrina experience One version will be the images they recall from news coverage of the aftermath The other will be the intimate portrayal of the determination of New Orleans residents to rebuild and recover their lives HBO's Treme offers outsiders an inside look into why New Orleanians refused to abandon a place that many questioned should not be rebuilt after the levees failed This critically acclaimed series expanded the boundaries of television making in its format plot casting use of music and realism in fictionalized TV However Treme is not just a story for the outside gaze on New Orleans It was a very local collaborative experience where the show's creators sought to enlist the city in a commemorative project Treme allowed many in the city who worked as principals extras and who tuned in as avid viewers to heal from the devastation of the disaster as they experimented with art imitating life imitating art This book examines the impact of HBO's Treme not just as television making but in the sense in which television provides a window to our worlds The book pulls together scholarship in media communications gender area studies political economy critical studies African American studies and music to explain why Treme was not just about television The Booklover's Guide to New Orleans Susan Larson,2013-09-05 The literary tradition of New Orleans spans centuries and touches every genre its living heritage winds through storied neighborhoods and is celebrated at numerous festivals across the city For booklovers a visit to the Big Easy isn't complete without whiling away the hours in an antiquarian bookstore in the French Quarter or stepping out on a literary walking tour Perhaps only among the oak lined avenues Creole town houses and famed hotels of New Orleans can the lust of A Streetcar Named Desire the zaniness of A Confederacy of Dunces the chill of Interview with the Vampire and the heartbreak of Walker Percy's Moviegoer begin to resonate Susan Larson's revised and updated edition of The Booklover's Guide to New Orleans not only explores the legacy of Tennessee Williams and William Faulkner but also visits the haunts of celebrated writers of today including Anne Rice and James Lee Burke This definitive guide provides a key to the books authors festivals stores and famed addresses that make the Crescent City a literary destination HBO's Treme and the Stories of the Storm Robin Andersen,2017-11-20 This book analyses the HBO program Treme from multiple perspectives and argues that the series depictions of music culture cuisine and identity are innovative and represent unique televisual storytelling strategies The location themes and characters create a compelling story arc and highlight the city's culture and cuisine jazz musicians and musical performances and Mardi Gras Indians The program challenges initial reporting of Hurricane Katrina and in doing so rewrites the disaster myth coverage through which the city has been framed Recommended for scholars of communication media studies music studies and cultural studies The Spike Lee Brand Delphine Letort,2015-08-04 In this groundbreaking book Delphine Letort sheds light on a neglected part of Spike Lee's filmmaking by offering a rare look at his creative engagement with the genre of documentary filmmaking Ranging from history to sports and music Lee has tackled a diversity of topics in such nonfiction films as 4 Little Girls A Huey P Newton Story Jim Brown All American and When the Levees Broke A Requiem in Four Acts Letort analyzes the narrative and aesthetic discourses that structure these films and calls attention to Lee's technical skills and narrative framing devices Drawing on film and media studies African American studies and cultural theories she examines the sociological value of Lee's investigations into contemporary culture and also explores the ethics of his commitment to a genre characterized by its claim to truth Viewing America C. W. E. Bigsby,2013-10-10 Christopher Bigsby explores the potential of television drama to offer a radical critique of American politics myths and values Routledge Companion to Media and Humanitarian Action Robin Andersen,Purnaka L. de Silva,2017-09-14 In this moment of unprecedented humanitarian crises the representations of global disasters are increasingly common media themes around the world The Routledge Companion to Media and Humanitarian Action explores the interconnections between media old and new and the humanitarian challenges that have come to define the twenty first century Contributors including media professionals and experts in humanitarian affairs grapple with what kinds of media language discourse terms and campaigns can offer enough context and background knowledge to nurture informed global citizens Case studies of media practices content analysis and evaluation of media coverage and representations of humanitarian emergencies and affairs offer further insight into the ways in which strategic communications are designed and implemented in field of humanitarian action

Social Well-Being, Development, and Multiple Modernities in Asia Jaeyeol Yee,Hiroo Harada,Masayuki Kanai,2024-10-02

This book presents an integrated international exploration of social well being from a comparative standpoint how it is framed how it is perceived by the people and how it is exploited by the state It provides a genuine multicultural and multidimensional understanding of social well being in an Asian context by showing the strength of comparative analysis The idiosyncrasy of an individual society is reinterpreted through the universality of harmonized data analysis and imaginative discussion of the findings The book offers the reader a deep understanding of how social well being is framed in eight Asian countries how it is contextualized in each society and how it is correlated with the concept of development and sustainability Articulated by carefully chosen examples historical background and interpretation of the latest data analysis this book is highly recommended to readers who seek to understand the relationship among the well being of individuals national development and global sustainability

In Case of Katrina Ellen Jeffery Blue,2016-08-04 Since six months after landfall Ellen Blue has taught The Church s Response to Katrina It sidesteps disaster response where clearly the church should be involved What was unclear was how leaders in a connectional denomination like United Methodism should decide which churches to merge or decommission after floods destroyed seventy churches and displaced ninety pastors and no one knew how many members would return Katrina gave the church a chance to re make itself without deteriorating structures in no longer thriving neighborhoods Yet as members returned to chaos they sought solace Should the church meet needs for Sanctuary and reassurance or use newfound flexibility to seek justice In Case of Katrina examines leadership strategies and the theological convictions that underlay them during the struggle to decide The larger United Methodist Church controls real estate and the hierarchy had the power to choose Instead they let verdicts spring primarily from congregants and pastors on the ground through a long controversial process Recovery has been entwined with issues of race and class Cooperation among African American and Anglo congregations has birthed vibrant multi racial worship and ministries Yet other prophetic ministry was left undone and it should set the agenda for the next decade

Race and Racism in the United States Charles A. Gallagher,Cameron D. Lippard,2014-06-24 How is race defined and perceived in America today and how do these definitions and perceptions compare to attitudes 100 years ago or 200 years ago This four volume set is the definitive source for every topic related to race in the United States In the 21st century it is easy for some students and readers to believe that racism is a thing of the past in reality old wounds have yet to heal and new forms of racism are taking shape Racism has played a role in American society since the founding of the nation in spite of the words all men are created equal within the Declaration of Independence This set is the largest and most complete of its kind covering every facet of race relations in the United States while providing information in a user friendly format that allows easy cross referencing of related topics for efficient research and learning The work serves as an accessible tool for high school researchers provides important material for undergraduate students enrolled in a variety of humanities and social sciences courses and is an outstanding ready reference for race scholars The entries provide readers with comprehensive content supplemented by historical backgrounds relevant examples from primary documents and first hand accounts Information is presented to interest and appeal to readers but also to support critical inquiry and understanding A fourth volume of related primary documents supplies additional reading and resources for research
