To be at Home James Williams, Felicitas Hentschke, 2018-09-24 Houses and homes are dynamic spaces within which people work to organize and secure their lives, livelihoods, and relationships. Written by a team of renowned historians and anthropologists and accompanied by original photography by Maurice Weiss, To Be at Home: House, Work and Self in the Modern World compares the ways people in different societies and historical periods strive to make and keep houses and homes under conditions of change, upheaval, displacement, impoverishment, and violence. These conditions speak to the challenges of life in our modern world. The contributors of this volume position the home as a new nodal point between work, the self, and the world to explore people's creativity, agency, and labour. Houses and homes prove complex and powerful concepts if also often elusive, invoking places, persons, objects, emotions, values, attachments, and fantasies. This book demonstrates how the relations between houses, work, and the self have transformed dramatically and unpredictably under conditions of capitalism and modernity and continue to change today.

Encyclopedia of Renaissance Philosophy Marco Sgarbi, 2022-10-27 Gives accurate and reliable summaries of the current state of research. It includes entries on philosophers, problems, terms, historical periods, subjects, and the cultural context of Renaissance Philosophy. Furthermore, it covers Latin, Arabic, Jewish, Byzantine, and vernacular philosophy and includes entries on the cross fertilization of these philosophical traditions. A unique feature of this encyclopedia is that it does not aim to define what Renaissance philosophy is rather simply to cover the philosophy of the period between 1300 and 1650.

Assisted Reproduction Across Borders Merete Lie, Nina Lykke, 2016-10-04 Today it often seems as though Assisted Reproductive Technologies (ARTs) have reached a stage of normalization at least in some countries and among certain social groups. Apparently, some practices, for example, in vitro fertilization (IVF), have become standard worldwide. The contributors to Assisted Reproduction Across Borders argue against normalization as an uncontested overall trend. This volume reflects on the state of the art of ARTs. From feminist perspectives, the contributors focus on contemporary political debates triggered by ARTs. They examine the varying ways in which ARTs are interpreted and practised in different contexts depending on religious, moral, and political approaches. Assisted Reproduction Across Borders embeds feminist analysis of ARTs across a wide variety of countries and cultural contexts, discussing controversial practices such as surrogacy.
