Library and Information Services Division, 1977 A Bibliographical Catalogue of Italian Books Printed in England 1558-1603 Soko Tomita, 2016-12-05 Through entries on 291 Italian books 451 editions published in England during the reign of Queen Elizabeth I covering the years 1558 1603 this catalogue represents a summary of current research and knowledge of diffusion of Italian culture on English literature in this period It also provides a foundation for new work on Anglo Italian relations in Elizabethan England Mary Augusta Scott's 1916 Elizabethan

Translations from the Italian forms the basis for the catalogue Soko Tomita adds 59 new books and eliminates 23 of Scott's original entries. The information here is presented in a user friendly and uncluttered manner guided by Philip Gaskell's principles of bibliographical description. The volume includes bibliographical descriptions, tables, graphs, images and two indices, general and title. In an attempt to restore each book to its original status, each entry is concerned not only with the physical book but with the human elements guiding it through production; the relationship with the author, editor, translator, publisher, book seller and patron are all recounted as important players in the exploration of cultural significance.

Renaissance Anglo-Italian relations were marked by both patriotism and xenophobia; this catalogue provides reliable and comprehensive information about books and publication as well as concrete evidence of what elements of Italian culture the English responded to and how Italian culture was acclimatized into Elizabethan England. Catalogue of the Library of Congress, 1864 Catalogue of Books Added to the Library of Congress During the Year 1871 Library of Congress, 1872 Bibliotheca Lindesiana ... James Ludovic Lindsay Earl of Crawford, 1910 Widener Library Shelflist: Periodical classes Harvard University.
