Moral Education and Development Doret J. de Ruyter,Siebre Miedema,2012-01-01

Worries about the moral standard of younger generations are of all ages The older generation tends to believe that the moral education of young people deserves special attention because their moral development does not reach the level adults hope for This observation does not mean that the older generation is necessarily wrong but what it indisputably does show is that they attach high importance to morality and moral education But what characterises a moral person What influences people to behave morally What should moral education involve Which inter disciplinary contributions are relevant to improving moral education These questions continuously deserve the attention of academics students and professional educators This book is divided into four parts The first part focuses on interdisciplinary empirical research about the reasons why people act morally and the consequences for moral education The primarily philosophical chapters of the second part address the question what it means to be a moral person and the implication of this elucidation for moral education The third part contains five chapters that deal with moral aspects of sex education and civic education The fourth part consists of one chapter that looks at the moral education of students who will work in a pedagogical or educational environment arguing that one's moral development requires a lifetime commitment This book is written for a wide academic audience The collection of chapters will be of interest to pedagogues educational scientists moral philosophers and moral psychologists and to both newcomers and experts in the field

SAGE Handbook of Education for Citizenship and Democracy James Arthur, Ian Davies, Carole Hahn, 2008-07-01 This handbook brings together new work by some of the leading authorities on citizenship education and is divided into five sections The first section deals with key ideas about citizenship education including democracy rights globalization and equity Section two contains a wide range of national case studies of citizenship education including African Asian Australian European and North and South American examples The third section focuses on perspectives about citizenship education with discussions about key areas such as sustainable development anti racism gender Section four provides insights into different characterisations of citizenship education with illustrations of democratic schools peace and conflict education global education human rights education etc The final section provides a series of chapters on the pedagogy of citizenship education with discussions about curriculum teaching learning and assessment

Re-Enchanting Education and Spiritual Wellbeing Marian de Souza, Anna Halafoff, 2017-09-14 Education is in a constant state of renewal internationally where it responds to a number of pressing social political and cultural issues Processes of globalization a number of conflicts and acts of terror economic and environmental crises have led to large waves of migration and asylum seekers arriving in countries with the hope of finding safer and more stable places to settle This in turn has led to cultural and religious pluralism being a key characteristic of many societies with corresponding issues of belonging and identity As well for many people there has been a shifting influence of and allegiance away from traditional religious frameworks with the emergence of new religious movements both peaceful and violent and a rise in popularity of spirituality and non religious worldviews which provide alternate frameworks for living healthy and ethical lives In order to prepare today's student for tomorrow's world one which is confronted by a range of risks and crises and which is being shaped by rapidly changing technologies educators and researchers are investigating new ways of equipping students to deal with these challenges and opportunities including the nurturing of spiritual wellbeing This book brings together the voices of many experienced educators to discuss ways to re-enchant education and re-enliven learning programs in response to these 21st century issues in an increasingly global and interconnected world It examines a range of international contexts including secular and religious educational settings and provides an avenue for visionary voices that identify problems and offer solutions to help shape a more promising education system that will prepare children more constructively and beneficially to flourish in their future worlds

Life and Moral

Education in Greater China John Chi-Kin Lee, Stephen Yam-wing Yip, Raymond Ho-Man Kong, 2021-03-30 Arguing for life moral and values education as a bedrock for the original goals of school education this monograph explores how life and values education is conceptualised and imparted in Greater China Under a globalized transnational and technological world where there has been an increase in people's mobility in information and cultural exchanges there is also a growing emphasis on personal and professional ethics Against this context life moral and values education has gained attention for its impact on shaping students' characters as future citizens However the cultivation of these values is made deeply diversified and complex by varying interpretations of life education and values education across societies given that different societies are influenced by different socio cultural traditions educational ideologies and religious beliefs The means and approaches towards life education also vary vastly from formal school subjects school based programmes as well as teachers and peers role modelling community services extra curricular activities school discipline charity work pastoral care and school ethos Recognising this inherent diversity and complexity in the approach to and the dissemination of life education the contributors to this volume survey the practice of life education in Greater China so far suggesting that life education is most effective when it is diversified dynamic and developmental across contexts This book will provide the opportunity for engaging in important and serious debates about the future and the values that will underpin it and will prove of special interest to scholars and practitioners working on education policies curriculum development and teacher education in Greater China

Education, Arts, and Morality Doris B. Wallace, 2006-01-27 Inspired by Howard Gruber's Evolving Systems Approach these studies explore creativity in several domains The idea that the creative person embodies a system of loosely coupled sub systems knowledge purpose and affect that work together is viewed here in different chapters that explore this concept These include autobiographies of incarcerated youth curricula for moral and civic responsibility changing attitudes of readers to text romance novels as well as case studies of highly creative individuals such as George Bernard Shaw Gruber's approach provides concepts as well as methodological tools which the authors apply to diverse creative processes This book is a valuable resource for undergraduate as well as graduate level students interested in creativity development and education In addition to the intrinsic interest of each chapter the guiding theme of the book is the underlying theory of creativity Gruber's Evolving Systems Approach and illustrates the unusual breadth and flexibility of that theory

Educating Moral Sensibilities in Urban Schools, 2019-02-11 Nowadays schools face the challenge of creating pedagogical environments that are sensitive to numerous individual backgrounds in order to support students' social and academic success Urban schools are communities with rich possibilities to learn how to think feel and act morally In this task principals teachers parents and students of the schools each have their own voice All these voices have to be heard in order to build communities with moral sensibilities This book brings together recent work by international researchers from nine countries in the fields of moral development and citizenship education The book consists of twelve chapters and it is divided into three parts While the first part deals with the voices of urban school educators the second part contains chapters with the focus on students The third part is about curriculum programs and practices in schools that contribute to the education of moral sensibilities in the school communities This book can be used as a textbook in moral and citizenship education or as an updated research report on international research on moral sensibilities
