1996 summer Olympics in Atlanta the world has become accustomed to seeing Kenyan women medal at major championships

sweep marathons and set world records Yet little is known about the pioneer generation of women who paved the way for Kenya's reputation as an international powerhouse in women's track and field In Kenya's Running Women A History historian and former professional runner Michelle M Sikes details the triumphs and many challenges these women faced from the advent of Kenya's athletics program in the colonial era through the professionalization of running in the 1980s and 1990s Sikes reveals how over time running became a vehicle for Kenyan women to expand the boundaries of acceptable female behavior Kenya's Running Women demonstrates the necessity of including women in histories of African sport and of incorporating sport into studies of African gender and nation building The Gold Mine Effect Rasmus Ankersen,2012-07-05

A great read and a fascinating insight into performance Sir Clive Woodward We all want to discover our hidden talents and make an impact with them But how Rasmus Ankersen an ex footballer and performance specialist quit his job and for six intense months lived with the world's best athletes in an attempt to answer this question Why have the best middle distance runners grown up in the same Ethiopian village Why are the leading female golfers from South Korea How did one athletic club in Kingston Jamaica succeed in producing so many world class sprinters Ankersen presents his surprising conclusions in seven lessons on how anyone or any business organisation or team can defy the many misconceptions of high performance and learn to build their own gold mine of real talent Unbound Bill Donahue,2024-06-04 A riveting collection of stories from the world of endurance sports Endurance athletes know the feeling that oscillation between pain and delight the pursuit not so much of beating others but of testing their own limits the finish that often comes with the recognition of how sweet and big life is It doesn't matter if it's a kid trying to break a pogo stick world record or a professional athlete attempting to topple the reigning marathon champion these endeavors in endurance have a way of fascinating us all In Unbound Unforgettable True Stories from the World of Endurance Sports journalist Bill Donahue has pulled together a captivating collection from his years of reporting on everything from cycling the wilds of Dominica to cross country skiing in Alaska with the U S military The stories feature the fearless Swiss explorer Sarah Marquis breaking up the boys club of exploration four year old Budhia Singh running 37 miles without stopping a visit to Tour de France contender Nairo Quintana's Colombian village in the High Andes and more Unbound spans across seven countries on five continents moving from the slums of Bhubaneswar India to the windswept tundra of the Alaskan Arctic Discover diverse cultures and indelible inspiring characters as you journey with the author along the roads and trails of the world RUN Fitzgerald Matt,2010-05-24 Most serious runners don't realize their potential They simply stop getting faster and don't understand why The reason is simple most runners are unable to run by feel The best elite runners have learned that the key to faster running is to hear what their bodies are telling them Drawing on new research on endurance sports best selling author Matt Fitzgerald explores the practices of elite runners to explain why their techniques can be effective for all runners RUN The Mind Body Method of Running by Feel will help runners reach their full potential by teaching them how to train in the most personalized and adaptable way Fitzgerald's mind/body method will revolutionize how runners think about training their personal limits and their potential. RUN explains how to interpret emotional and physical messages like confidence, enjoyment, fatigue, suffering, and aches and pains. RUN guides readers toward the optimal balance of intensity and enjoyment, volume and recovery, repetition and variation. As the miles add up, runners will become increasingly confident that they are doing the right training on the right day from one season to the next. RUN marks the start of a better way to train. The culmination of science and personal experience, the mind/body method of running by feel will lead runners to faster, more enjoyable training and racing.

The Coolest Race on Earth John Hanc, 2009. Chronicling the world's most difficult race through the eyes of one who ran it, this vivid and humorous memoir shares the adventures of inspiring contestants including a wheelchair-bound runner and three record-breaking grandmothers as they trek across the daunting terrain of extinct volcanoes, craggy mountain peaks, and the turbulent Drake passage, all in a quest to complete the Antarctica Marathon. Revealing the runners' struggles against melting glaciers and hostile skuas, the narrative also recounts their unique experiences with curious penguins and whale sightings. Spotlighting the people and the place that make this annual event so remarkable, this account not only reflects why marathons are so successful but also presents a deeply funny meditation on what makes people run.

The Korean Africa Byongchan Yoon, 2021-11-17. Africa Yoon, nee Engo, was about to turn 30. She was a celebrated activist working in Manhattan and around the world when she found she had gained 120 pounds and was obese. She realized she needed a life beyond her work and dreamed about having a husband and children. For her dream to come to fruition, she must work on herself to achieve her goal. The activist starts on the road toward the greatest cause of her career to save herself and decides she will do a spiritual and physical makeover to find self-love in hopes it may lead to true love. One afternoon at the Asian grocery store H Mart, a Korean grandmother calls her fat. After the initial embarrassment of the public moment, the two begin an unusual friendship that leads her to eating kimchi, and that moment changes everything. This memoir is full of culture, food, inspiration, and travel in this ugly duckling-turned-swan transformation story, not unlike the self-discovery and romance vein of Sex and the City.

Africa Toyin Falola, Daniel Jean-Jacques, 2015-12-14. These volumes offer a one-stop resource for researching the lives, customs, and cultures of Africa's nations and peoples. Unparalleled in its coverage of contemporary customs in all of Africa, this multivolume set is perfect for both high school and public library shelves. The three-volume encyclopedia will provide readers with an overview of contemporary customs and life in North Africa and sub-Saharan Africa through discussions of key concepts and topics that touch everyday life among the nations' peoples. While this encyclopedia places emphasis on the customs and cultural practices of each state, history, politics, and economics are also addressed. Because entries average 14,000 to 15,000 words each, contributors are able to expound more extensively on each country than in similar encyclopedic works with shorter entries. As a result, readers will gain a more complete understanding of what life is like in Africa's 54 nations and territories and will be better able to draw cross-cultural comparisons based on their reading On Running and Becoming Human Thomas F. Carter, 2018-04-10 How does the simple act of running make us human As a form of enskilled movement that shapes how we perceive our surroundings running enacts a mindful bodily engagement with the world an engagement that generates our very minds through perceptual learning Thomas F Carter examines the interrelated aspects of a runner's being mind body and environs to illustrate that the skillful act of locomotion is one of principle ways that we as human beings become integral parts of the larger world Synthesizing recent developments in neuroscience anthropology and philosophy of mind On Running proves there is more to running than merely clocking up the miles
