Reflections Frances Wright,2013-03-15 Rearview Mirror Reflections depicts the family biographical reflections of one who was born and reared in the Deep South during the late 1940s This narrative presents a collection of illuminating short stories and incidents that reveals the delightful difficult and sometimes complicated experiences of my childhood These informative reflected stories events people and places were collected as the remembrance of them flowed from my richly endowed memories However the presentation of them will not always be arranged in the order in which these experiences occurred Life has a way of beckoning at us from our past Reflections of it show up as bright as the noonday sun alluding to the fact that it has in some way shaped our present day Experiences and lessons learned stare toward us with clear perceptions of those former days The joys and the sorrows of our family still stand out as markers of progressiveness and accomplishments Nowhere has it been known of as having a childhood such as ours As I was growing up I did not have anything to compare my life with So I simply accepted things as they were Nevertheless my growing up years holds many fond memories that I would not have traded for anything else Therefore many of my reflections may seem somewhat amusing and maybe incredible to believe by some or even a bit absurd Nevertheless they all identify my youth as I reflect upon my childhood It is my hope that you will enjoy reading my family biographical reflections as well as I did in sharing them with you
