Christopher Grau, Aaron Smuts

On Romantic Love Simple Truths About A Complex Emotion Philosophy In Action:

On Romantic Love Berit Brogaard, 2014-12-30 Written with a general audience in mind On Romantic Love offers a new theory of love as a partially unconscious sometimes rational and always controllable emotion while explaining some of the neuroscience underlying our wildest passions

On Romantic Love Berit Brogaard, 2015 Romantic love presents some of life's most challenging questions Can we choose who to love Is romantic love rational Can we love more than one person at a time And can we make ourselves fall out of love In On Romantic Love Berit Brogaard attempts to get to the bottom of love's many contradictions This short book informed by both historical and cutting edge philosophy psychology and neuroscience combines a new theory of romantic love with entertaining anecdotes from real life and accessible explanations of the neuroscience underlying our wildest passions Against the grain Brogaard argues that love is an emotion that it can be at turns both rational and irrational and that it can be manifested in degrees We can love one person more than another and we can love a person a little or a lot or not at all And love isn't even always something we consciously feel However love like other emotions both conscious and not is subject to rational control and falling in or out of it can be a deliberate choice This engaging and innovative look at a universal topic featuring original line drawings by illustrator Gareth Southwell illuminates the processes behind heartbreak obsession jealousy attachment and more

Into His Presence Timothy L.

Anderson, 2019-07-30 A theologically grounded treatment of what it means to be close to God Numerous Christian books aim to provide guidance on relationships with God but few base their conclusions on a biblical theology of intimacy In this volume Tim Anderson develops a biblical and holistic portrait of nearness to God exploring key themes like God's Trinitarian union the fall God's fatherhood marriage imagery suffering and our relationship with the Holy Spirit A concluding chapter examines contemporary Christian songs that address oneness with God and evaluates their theological messages in light of the previous chapters Into His Presence is a helpful guide for pursuing intimacy with God and distinguishing contemporary cultural understandings of close relationships from those communicated in Scripture

When Doing the Right Thing Is Impossible

Lisa Tessman, 2017-06-01 In this accessible yet thought provoking work Lisa Tessman takes us through gripping examples of the impossible demands of morality some epic and others quotidian whose central predicament is How do we make decisions when morality demands we do something that we cannot

The Character Gap Christian B. Miller, 2018 We like to think of ourselves and our friends and families as pretty good people The more we put our characters to the test however the more we see that we are decidedly a mixed bag Fortunately there are some promising strategies both secular and religious for developing better characters

A Meaning to Life Michael Ruse, 2019-03-21 Does human life have any meaning Does the question even make sense today For centuries the question of the meaning or purpose of human life was assumed by scholars and theologians to have a religious answer life has meaning because humans were made in the image of a good god In the 19th century however Charles Darwin's theory of evolution changed everything and the human organism was seen to be more machine than spirit Ever since with the rise of science and decline of religious belief there has been growing interest and growing doubt about whether human life really does have meaning If it does where might we find it The historian and philosopher of science Michael Ruse investigates this question and wonders whether we can find a new meaning to life within Darwinian views of human nature If God no longer exists or if God no longer cares rather than promoting a bleak nihilism many Darwinians think we can convert Darwin into a form of secular humanism Ruse explains that in a tradition going back to the time of Darwin himself and represented today by the evolutionist E O Wilson evolution is seen as progress from monad to man and that positive meaning is found in continuing and supporting this upwards path of life In A Meaning to Life Michael Ruse argues that this is a false turn and there is no real progress in the evolutionary process Rather meaning in the Darwinian age can be found if we turn to a kind of Darwinian existentialism seeing our evolved human nature as the source of all meaning both in the intellectual and social worlds Ruse argues that it is only by accepting our true nature evolved over millennia that humankind can truly find what is meaningful Seeing and Saying Berit Brogaard, 2018 Imagine you are sitting at Starbucks glancing at the blue coffee mug in front of you The mug is blue on the outside white on the inside It's large for a mug And it's nearly full of freshly made coffee In the envisaged case you see all those aspects of the scene in front of you but it remains a question of ferocious debate whether the visual experience that makes up your seeing is a direct perceptual relation between you and your environment or a psychology state that has a content that represents the mug If your experience involves an external perceptual relation to an external mind independent object it is unlike familiar mental states such as belief and desire states which are widely considered psychological states with a representational content that stands between you and the external world Your belief that the coffee mug in front of you is blue has a content that represents the coffee mug as being blue Your desire that the coffee in the mug is still hot has a content that represents a state of affairs that may or may not in fact obtain namely the state of affairs that the coffee in the mug is still hot In this book Brit Brogaard defends the view that visual experience is like belief in having a representational content Her defense differs from most previous defenses of this view in that it begins by looking at the language of ordinary speech She provides a linguistic analysis of what we say when we say that things look a certain way or that the world appears to us to be a certain way She then argues that this analysis can be used to argue for the view that visual experience has a representation content that mediates between you and the world when you visually perceive The Palgrave Handbook of Sexual Ethics David Boonin, 2022-02-08 The Palgrave Handbook of Sexual Ethics is a comprehensive collection of recent research on the ethics of sexual behavior representing a wide range of perspectives It addresses a number of traditional subjects in the area including questions about pre marital extra marital non heterosexual and non procreative sex and about the nature and significance of sexual consent sexual desire and sexual activity as well as a variety of more recent topics including sexual racism sexual ableism sex robots and the metoo response to sexual harassment Each chapter defends a substantive thesis about the topic it addresses and the handbook as a whole thereby provides a strong foundation for future research in this important and growing field of inquiry

Faith, Film and Philosophy R. Douglas Geivett, James S. Spiegel, 2009-09-20 Those who tell stories rule society Plato So who today are our principal storytellers Not philosophers but filmmakers For those who know both the enormous entertainment potential and the culture shaping power of film this book will stir mind and imagination For great stories freight world sized ideas ideas worthy of contemplation and conversation Great cinema inspires wonder But another philosopher Aristotle reminds us that wonder is the true source of philosophy So perhaps Plato or Aristotle might have a shot at ruling society even today if they took an interest in film These fourteen essays consider classic and current films together with several major philosophical themes all within the context of Christian faith 1 the human condition 2 the human mind and the nature of knowing 3 the moral life and 4 faith and religion Citizen Kane Big Fish and Pretty Woman contribute to an in depth consideration of the human condition The Truman Show The Matrix Being John Malkovich and It s a Wonderful Life among others illuminate reflection on the human mind and the nature of knowing Looking at the moral life contributors interact with such notable films as Pleasantville Bowling for Columbine Mystic River and The Silence of the Lambs The final section pursues the theme of faith and religion traced through a number of Hong Kong martial arts films Contact 2001 A Space Odyssey and U2 s music documentary Rattle and Hum A veritable film festival for all those who want to nurture the wonder of philosophical inquiry and the love of Christian theology through an engagement with the big ideas on the big screen
