and bodies have transformed into interconnected interfaces The book challenges the reader to participate in a broader discussion of the potential limitations alternatives and criticisms of cybersemiotics Transatlantic Reflections on the Practice-Based PhD in Fine Art Jessica Schwarzenbach,Paul Hackett,2015-08-11 Once the US was the only country in the world to offer a doctorate for studio artists however the PhD in fine art disappeared after pressures established the MFA as the terminal degree for visual artists Subsequently the PhD in fine art emerged in the UK and is now offered by approximately 40 universities Today the doctorate is offered in most English speaking nations much of the EU and countries such as China and Brazil Using historical political and social frameworks this book investigates the evolution of the fine art doctorate in the UK what the concept of a PhD means to practicing artists from the US and why this degree disappeared in the US when it is so vigorously embraced in the UK and other countries Data collected through in depth interviews examine the perspectives of professional artists in the US who teach graduate level fine art These interviews disclose conflicting attitudes toward this advanced degree and reveal the possibilities and challenges of developing a potential doctorate in studio art in the US Moving-With & Moving-Through Homelands, Languages & Memory ,2017-01-01 This book is a work of walkography its central source is the use of walking as a mode of inquiry which is shared through the ography of an account or portrayal that is written visual performed The walk of this walkography is an embodied movement through space as well as a performance drawing of experience and encounter This method of inquiry resonates with the fundamental premise of this work that of migration and diaspora In 2015 an unprecedented number of migrants and refugees reached Europe The resultant crisis was the biggest in history with most migrants entering Europe by sea Although under different circumstances and different times this event has synergies with post War migration described through the lens of Arts based research in Displacement Identity and Belonging An Arts based Auto Biographical Portrayal of Ethnicity however it is also a development and a complete work in and of itself both embedded in and transcendent of the first book The books can operate both in tandem and individually as stand alone works The layering of stories photography and poetry build upon each other in an engaging and accessible reading that appeals to a multitude of audiences and purposes This work can be used as a core reading in a range of courses in education teacher education ethnicity studies cultural studies sociology psychology history and communication or read simply for pleasure The book makes significant contributions to the literature on qualitative research arts based research and walking research Stunning simply stunning Alexandra Lasczik Cutcher has created a breathtaking work of scholarship that is evocative and provocative poetic and artistic and perhaps most of all captivating and challenging She calls us into her walkography and we are spellbound walking with her through her homelands memories and languages The interruptions of poems and images give pause as we take a breath to linger in our own stories before we venture forward again to breathe in again the images and histories past and present The entire book is an event an encounter a walking with and walking through as we come to understand what it means to come home to a place we ve never lived before Stunning simply stunning Rita L Irwin Professor Art Education Distinguished University Scholar The University of British Columbia Dr Alexandra Lasczik Cutcher is a multi award winning academic at Southern Cross University Australia Her research focuses on what the Arts can be and do educationally expressively as research method language catharsis reflective instrument and documented form These understandings inform Alexandra s teaching and her spirited advocacy for Arts education

Do I Look at You with Love? Mark Freeman, 2021-02-15 Do I Look at You with Love were the words uttered by Mark Freeman s mother when she learned once again that he was her son This book explores the experience of dementia as it transpired during the course of the final twelve years of her life from the time of her diagnosis until her death in 2016 at age 93 As a longtime student of memory identity and narrative as well as the son of a woman with dementia he had a remarkable opportunity to try to understand and tell her story Much of the story is tragic But there were other periods and other dimensions of relationship that were beautiful and that could not have emerged without her very affliction In the midst of affliction there were gifts arriving unbidden that served to alert Freeman and his family to what is most precious and real These are part of the story too Part narrative psychology part memoir part meditation on the beauty and light that might be found amidst the ravages of time and memory Freeman s moving story is emblematic of nothing less than the bittersweet reality of life itself
