One Minute Stewardship Sermons Charles Cloughen, Jr, Charles Cloughen, 1997-09 Short concise inspirational meditations that can be used to explore the many aspects of stewardship throughout the year Includes tips from a dozen contributors representing several denominations and congregations of all sizes One-Minute Stewardship Charles Cloughen Jr, 2018-06-17 A collection of meditations on the importance of stewardship Much has changed in the 21st century world of stewardship Now a person may use electronic funds transfer or use a credit card after clicking on a website link instead of dropping a check in the offering plate Stewardship witness videos can be linked to the church's website One Minute Stewardship is designed to promote the development of a meaningful theology of giving in a new age These short reflections indexed by Scripture theme event and lectionary can be included in weekly parish e-mails newsletters weekly bulletins or read as an invitation to the offering during worship The book addresses the issue of designated giving which is usually separate from general stewardship appeals and is designed to empower clergy and lay leaders to promote the message of good stewardship every Sunday of the year One-Minute Stewardship Charles Cloughen Jr, 2018-06 Innovative approach to an issue that makes many uncomfortable Reflections can be used in multiple ways A Manual for Stewardship Development Programs in the Congregation Lonnie Schreiber, Thomas Gossen, 1998-08 This practical manual guides churches through a year long stewardship program Covers the fundamentals of building a successful program from teaching Christian stewardship to hosting creative successful commitment events Filled with useful advice and how to sections on topics ranging from recruiting and training leaders to charting progress Offers a complete overview of The Joyful Giving Program for stewardship Successful Church Fund-Raising John R. Bisagno, 2002-04-01 God is blessing many churches today with exponential growth and great opportunity for ministry in their community However many churches have inadequate facilities or feel the crunch of overcrowding and are without the immediate resources for expansion This book written from someone with the heart for the church and who had the joy of seeing his own congregation give in excess of 250 million over 30 years will equip a church of any size with the knowledge to conduct from beginning to end a full capital campaign Transforming Stewardship C.K. Robertson, 2009-02-01 At once a travel guide and a vision for the future this series is good news for the Episcopal Church at a time of fast and furious demographic and social change It analyzes the present plight of the church and sketches a positive way forward sprouting from the seeds of change those transformative practices already at work renewing the church What church models can help point us toward transformation What are the essential tools What will give us strength direction and purpose to the journey Each volume of the series will Explain why a changed vision is essential Give robust theological and biblical foundations Offer a guide to best practices and positive trends in churches large and small Describe the necessary tools for change Imagine how transformation will look For most Episcopalians stewardship is synonymous with pledge drives budgets and capital campaigns but the Bible is clear that God wants more than our tithes and offerings Looking to its scriptural roots in 1 Chronicles Luke Acts and the letters of Paul as well as St Francis third way Robertson offers a vision of holistic stewardship for the whole church holistic because it can't be separated from evangelism outreach scripture study and ministry to the newcomer It does not involve strong arm tactics only a willingness to risk changing existing structures and ideas in order to enrich the faith community and strengthen connections to the neighboring world Transforming Stewardship delivers both good and bad news about Episcopalians and stewardship Robertson provides essential models and spiritual practices in order to transform the church's outmoded attitudes toward stewardship and wealth into a broader context of faith

Lectionary Worship Workbook, Series II, Cycle C Wayne

H. Keller, 2000-06 The most impressive thing about Wayne Keller's body of ideas for worship throughout the Christian Year is his boldness. He is bold in demanding that we, his colleagues in liturgical leadership, plan worship that has to do with the reality of our congregations' experience in the world rather than just leading people through a proper agenda of acts and words that have no bearing on what we do the rest of the week. He is bold in challenging us to bring that real world with its pains and its pleasures, its hungers and its feasts, its beauty and its ugliness to exposure before the living God. And he is bold in helping us shine the strong, exposing light of the transforming Word on our real lives and on that real world so that we may move beyond planning worship as a nice, safe, feel-good routine from which we depart the same people we were when we arrived. We are thrilled by the seriousness and authentic reverence with which this author approaches the planning of worship. Thank God for Wayne Keller and for his deep respect for the central act of the Christian community, the blessed and life-transforming experience of the worship of God. Richard Avery and Donald Marsh, Port Jervis, New York. Wayne Keller's method creates not only a contemporary appeal but also effects a congregational involvement so necessary today within the liturgical context. His approach is fresh and practical and yet a reflection consistently of a solid liturgical and homiletical background. Keller has the ability to appeal to the everydayness of congregational experience. Donald Macleod, Francis L. Patton, Professor Emeritus, Princeton Theological Seminary. The good humor of Wayne Keller's work helps us feel at home in our imperfect world and feel more empathy for the rough edges of others and ourselves. Wayne's work encourages hope and faith with the way we are. Doug Adams, Professor of Christianity and the Arts, Pacific School of Religion and Graduate Theological Union. A cascade of insights, ideas, suggestions, and plans for stimulating the working pastor's imagination and guiding in worship planning. Robert Coote, Professor, San Francisco Theological Seminary, Editor, Mustard Seed Churches. Wayne Keller elevates us to an authentic, bring-your-warts-and-smiles encounter with the living God, a remarkable year-round resource for the entire worship team. Paul Hackett, Former pastor and member, First Presbyterian Church, Puyallup, Washington. Keller says, "I have seen people bored to death in worship seemingly because they come to worship as spectators, not as participants. For me, no spectators are allowed." Søren Kierkegaard's analogy of worship as drama has guided my thinking and planning. Wayne H. Keller graduated from Monmouth College in Monmouth, Illinois, and Pittsburgh Theological Seminary. He has served pastorates in Pennsylvania, Washington, and Oregon and has also been the director of a halfway house for recovering mental patients. A member of the Presbyterian Writers Guild, Keller has published several books and numerous articles and has been a columnist for the Bellingham Herald. He has also appeared frequently on radio and television programs and co-hosted a call-in counseling program and talk show. Remember the Future Gerald W. Keucher, 2006-02 Keucher's primer on sound asset management encourages leaders of congregations to remember the future when they're making decisions so that the needs of the present are balanced against what's best for the long term. The Stewardship Companion: Lectionary Resources for Preaching William H. Willimon, David N. Mosser, 2007 Sermon

Nuggets Fred R. Zimmerman, 2014-07-22 Sermon Nuggets is a collection of ninety one topics treated in hundreds of Fred R. Zimmerman's sermons delivered over the span of six decades to a wide ranging number of Protestant congregations mostly in Ohio. Three hundred and twenty six excerpts on these sermon topics are selectively chosen and titled to reflect the biblical, theological, and pastoral concerns. Sermon Nuggets provides insight into a variety of topics helpful to ministers in their own concerns and sermon preparations as well as to seminary students and teachers of religion. Rewiring Your Preaching Richard H. Cox, 2012-11-14 Psychologist, physician, and preacher Richard Cox calls on the best modern neuroscience to prove that a better understanding of the brain can transform your preaching. Arguing that the sermon is a highly charged cognitive event, Cox explains the role of brain stimuli in such crucial pastoral tasks as delivering comfort and provoking moral action. Minutes of the Rhode Island Baptist Anniversaries, 1902

A Christian View of Money Mark Vincent, Matthew M. Thomas, Zachary L. Vincent, 2017-01-05 Money touches everything in our lives. It communicates our values whether we want it to or not, often simultaneously resulting in what we prefer and what we regret. Those who wish to be thoughtful about how they reflect God's image in all things do well to think through what they believe about earning and using money. This volume walks through a logical progression of how to think and act in regards to money and provides scores of scenarios for discussion and application. Baccalaureate Sermon and Hymn, Class Day Oration, Poem, Ivy Oration, and Ode Harvard University.
