Farnsworth's book is the finest collection of such figurative comparisons ever assembled. It offers an original analysis of patterns in the sources and uses of metaphor. It also explains the different stylistic ways that comparisons can be written and with what effects. The book starts by dividing the sources of metaphor into families including nature architecture animals and myth. It then shows how the best writers have put each of those traditions to distinctive use for the sake of caricature to make an abstract idea visible to make a complicated idea simple. The book provides along the way an extraordinarily wide ranging tour of examples from novelists playwrights philosophers and orators. There is interest instruction and amusement to be found on every page. Ward Farnsworth lawyer dean teacher and polymath has produced another indispensable book for the writer.
