Civil Liability in Europe for Terrorism-Related Risk Lucas Bergkamp, Michael Faure, Monika Hinteregger, Niels Philipsen, 2015-11-12 Comprehensive and forward looking analysis of civil liability for terrorism related risk under international EU and selected national tort laws Smart Mixes for Transboundary Environmental Harm Judith van Erp, Michael Faure, André Nollkaemper, Niels Philipsen, 2019-03-28 Analyzes how combinations of instruments at different levels of government or smart mixes can effectively regulate transboundary environmental harm Judicial Decisions in International Law Argumentation Letizia Lo Giacco, 2022-10-20 This book explores the question of how the multiplication of judicial decisions on international law has influenced the way in which legal findings in international law adjudication are justified International law practitioners frequently cite judicial decisions to persuade Courts interpreting international law are no exception to this practice However judicial decisions do much more than persuading they enable and constrain interpretive discretion Instead of taking the road of the sources of international law this book turns to the somewhat uncharted terrain of legal argumentation Using international criminal law as a case study it shows how the growing number of judicial decisions has normalised courts resort to them in legal justification and enabled some argumentative practices to become constitutive of international law In so doing it critically revisits the implications of an iterative use of judicial decisions and reassesses the influence of the judicialisation turn on the ways in which the meaning of international law is formed shaped and reshaped by reference to judicial decisions Comparative Counter-Terrorism Law Kent Roach, 2015-07-23 Terrorism law is as international as it is regionally distinct and as difficult to define as it is essential to address Given recent pressures to harmonize terrorism laws from international organizations like the United Nations Security Council the Financial Action Task Force and the Council of Europe this book presents readers with an up to date assessment of terrorism law across the globe Covering twenty two jurisdictions across six continents the common framework used for each chapter facilitates national comparisons of a range of laws including relevant criminal administrative financial secrecy and military laws Recognizing that similar laws may yield different outcomes when transplanted into new contexts priority of place is given to examples of real world application Including a thematic introduction and conclusion this book will help to establish comparative counter terrorism law as an emerging discipline crossing the boundaries of domestic and international law Citizenship in a Connected Canada Elizabeth Dubois, Florian Martin-Bariteau, 2020-11-10 No detailed description available for Citizenship in a Connected Canada Internet Service Provider Liability for Copyright and Trade Mark Infringement Zoi Krokida, 2022-06-16 This book critically evaluates the EU regulatory framework for the liability of host Internet Service Providers ISPs for copyright and trade mark infringements and provides a cluster of novel recommendations for its improvement The book recommends the imposition of a duty of care to host ISPs to curb the dissemination of unauthorised works and counterfeit goods the ascription of a transparency obligation to host ISPs towards their users and the establishment of a supervisory authority for host ISPs Host ISPs have facilitated the dissemination of content amongst users and the purchase of goods online enabling copyright holders and brand owners to attract a greater audience for their works and goods However their services have attracted a high number of copyright and trade mark violations too Neither Article 14 of the e Commerce Directive nor Article 17 of the Copyright in the Digital Single Market Directive provide a solid response to the issue of host ISPs liability This book is a valuable resource for researchers in IT and IP law and offers a new perspective for resolving online IP disputes

The European Union as an Area of Freedom, Security and Justice Maria Fletcher, Ester Herlin-Karnell, Claudio Matera, 2016-11-25 This book presents a collection of essays on key topics and new perspectives on the EU's Area of Freedom Security and Justice AFSJ and has a Foreword by the President of the Court of Justice of the European Union Prof Dr Koen Lenaerts Europe's area of freedom security and justice is of increasing importance in contemporary EU law and legislation It is worthy of special research attention because of its high stakes content particularly from an individual and a state perspective and because its development to date has tangentially thrown up some of the most important and contentious constitutional questions in EU law As the AFSJ becomes more and more intertwined with mainstream EU law this edited collection provides a timely analysis of the merger between the two Showcasing a selection of work from key thinkers in this field the book is organised around the major AFSJ themes of crime security border control civil law cooperation and important meta issues of governance and constitutional law It also analyses the major constitutional and governance challenges such as variable geometry institutional dynamics and interface with rights around data protection secrecy spying In the concluding section of the book the editors consider the extent to which the different facets of the AFSJ can be construed in a coherent and systematic manner within the EU legal system as well as identifying potential future research agendas The European Union as an Area of Freedom Security and Justice will be of great interest to students and scholars of European law and politics

Risk Perception, Culture, and Legal Change Matteo Ferrari, 2016-03-23 This study explores the reasons behind the different responses of the legal systems of Europe Japan and the USA in coping with BSE one of the major food safety crises in recent years Making reference to the most recent advances on risk perception that cognitive and social sciences such as legal anthropology and sociology of law have experimented with Risk Perception Culture and Legal Change examines the role that culture plays in moulding the process of legal change Attention is focused on the regulative frameworks implemented to guarantee the safety of the food chain against the BSE menace and on the liability responses sketched to compensate the victims of mad cow disease showing how both these elements have been influenced by the cultural context within which they are situated

Preventive Justice and the Power of Policy Transfer J. Ogg, 2015-05-25 As policy makers look first and easily for existing policy solutions which could be adapted from elsewhere policy transfer becomes increasingly central to policy development This book explores whether policy transfer in everyday policy making may be unintentionally creating a system of preventive justice

The

Long Decade Christopher David Jenkins, Amanda Jacobsen, Anders Henriksen, 2014 The terrorist attacks of 9 11 precipitated significant legal changes over the ensuing ten years a long decade that saw both domestic and international legal systems evolve in reaction to the seemingly permanent threat of international terrorism At the same time globalization produced worldwide insecurity that weakened the nation state s ability to monopolize violence and assure safety for its people The Long Decade How 9 11 Changed the Law contains contributions by international legal scholars who critically reflect on how the terrorist attacks of 9 11 precipitated these legal changes This book examines how the uncertainties of the long decade made fear a political and legal force challenged national constitutional orders altered fundamental assumptions about the rule of law and ultimately raised questions about how democracy and human rights can cope with competing security pressures while considering the complex process of crafting anti terrorism measures 9/11 and the Rise of Global
