Shaping the Developing World Andy Baker, 2021-01-07 Why are some countries rich and others poor Colonialism globalization bad government gender inequality geography and environmental degradation are just some of the potential answers to this complex question Using a threefold framework of the West the South and the natural world Shaping the Developing World provides a logical and intuitive structure for categorizing and evaluating the causes of underdevelopment This interdisciplinary book also describes the social political and economic aspects of development and is relevant to students in political science international studies geography sociology economics gender studies and anthropology The Second Edition has been updated to include the most recent development statistics and to incorporate new research on topics like climate change democratization religion and prosperity the resource curse and more This second edition also contains expanded discussions of gender financial inclusion crime and police killings and the Middle East including the Syrian Civil War      Entrepreneurship in Africa Ven Sriram,David Lingelbach,Tigineh Mersha, Franklyn Manu,2020-11-16 It is now widely recognized that in regions like Africa for economic and other reasons the public sector has had to disengage and divest from many areas of the economy and allow private enterprise especially scalable start ups and new ventures to enter and flourish if economic development and employment are to grow There is however a training and education gap since entrepreneurship is rarely taught formally at African universities and when it is it is often approached from a Western perspective which may not be appropriate given that African environments are significantly different from most Western ones in terms of economic infrastructure and political considerations This book allows readers to understand the African entrepreneurial context by guiding them through the principal stages in the life of a new venture and offers approaches both Western and indigenous that can inform their entrepreneurial actions It concludes by examining some specialized topics including female youth and social entrepreneurship as well as real estate and technology Exercises throughout the book will enable readers to evaluate their motivations and preparedness for entrepreneurship and learn how to communicate a new venture s key features to potential stakeholders By focusing on the distinctive features of entrepreneurship in the African context and taking a conversational tone this is an informative and practical text that will be useful for students of Global Entrepreneurship and Business as well as actual and prospective entrepreneurs in the private non profit and public sectors      Law in a Changing World Jutta Brunnee,Brenda Cossman,Andrew Green,Benjamin Alarie,2025-05-31 Law in a Changing World explores how climate change is reshaping the law drawing on contributions from legal scholars across diverse fields The book examines how climate change impacts areas such as governance justice housing and disability law Rather than focusing on climate law alone the chapters explore how climate change is challenging foundational legal concepts and demanding adaptations across various sectors The authors consider the roles of international Indigenous and domestic legal systems in addressing climate related issues Topics include climate justice for vulnerable populations the role of government in crisis management and the intersection of law with emerging challenges like housing and disability rights Law in a Changing World provides a comprehensive cross disciplinary examination of how legal frameworks can respond to climate related emergencies and injustices offering fresh perspectives on the role of law in a warming world It is an essential read for those interested in the intersection of law policy and climate change      Unreason Kendrick Frazier,Benjamin Radford,2023-10-17 UNREASON Exploring Pseudoscience Conspiracies and Extraordinary Claims is a collection of forty five of the best articles the legendary Skeptical Inquirer magazine has published in the past decade Featuring articles from writers including Neil deGrasse Tyson on the process of science Richard Dawkins on the standards of truth Elizabeth Loftus on memory Steven Pinker on the notion of progress and many others covering topics from the politicization of science to the frightening rise of misinformation each entry in this collection brings scientific examination to bear in order to ferret out the facts and misconceptions behind popular claims All of the articles within are interesting and readable Yet they are also quite diverse Some articles reinforce and complement each other others as happens in science may voice disagreements or differing perspectives But they all have one thing in common a respect for evidence a demand for the best most well tested most scientifically reliable information Readers will learn Why and how conspiracy rumors start spread and readily gain believers How to stay afloat in a sea of disinformation and survive the age of misinformation Why and how we form beliefs and adhere to them so powerfully How and why memory is fallible and what we can do about it How pseudoexperiments mislead the public about science Unreason will arm readers with scientific knowledge to curb the misinformation and misconceptions that increasingly threaten our civil discourse Even further these essays present a way for us to be better citizens equipped to deal with the winds of misinformation and disinformation swirling about us and better able to look ahead to a world where science and reason indeed just good old common sense can prevail information about the new agenda its content aspirations and global partnership approach It describes the complex challenges to the agenda s effective implementation including the multiplicity of participants the growing diversity of financing the need for better knowledge and the persistence of state fragility Throughout the emphasis is on the importance of new thinking and new behavior that will shift the conversation from a focus on aid to a more comprehensive paradigm of development partnerships recognizing the crucial need to integrate sustainable development in coherent efforts to preserve our planet and enhance the well being of all its inhabitants The author concludes the report with suggestions about priorities for implementation of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development Global Problems, Global Solutions JoAnn

Chirico,2024-03-08 A global look at social problems using the UN s 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development as a framework Enlightenment Now Steven Pinker,2018-02-13

INSTANT NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER A NEW YORK TIMES NOTABLE BOOK OF 2018 ONE OF THE ECONOMIST S BOOKS OF THE YEAR My new favorite book of all time Bill Gates If you think the world is coming to an end think again people are living longer healthier freer and happier lives and while our problems are formidable the solutions lie in the Enlightenment ideal of using reason and science By the author of the new book Rationality Is the world really falling apart Is the ideal of progress obsolete In this elegant assessment of the human condition in the third millennium cognitive scientist and public intellectual Steven Pinker urges us to step back from the gory headlines and prophecies of doom which play to our psychological biases Instead follow the data In seventy five jaw dropping graphs Pinker shows that life health prosperity safety peace knowledge and happiness are on the rise not just in the West but worldwide This progress is not the result of some cosmic force It is a gift of the Enlightenment the conviction that reason and science can enhance human flourishing Far from being a na ve hope the Enlightenment we now know has worked But more than ever it needs a vigorous defense The Enlightenment project swims against currents of human nature tribalism authoritarianism demonization magical thinking which demagogues are all too willing to exploit Many commentators committed to political religious or romantic ideologies fight a rearguard action against it The result is a corrosive fatalism and a willingness to wreck the precious institutions of liberal democracy and global cooperation With intellectual depth and literary flair Enlightenment Now makes the case for reason science and humanism the ideals we need to confront our problems and continue our progress The Digital Continent Mohammad Amir Anwar,Mark Graham,2022

The Digital Continent investigates what the impact of the growth of digital work in Africa means for workers The volume draws on a year long field study conducted in South Africa Kenya Nigeria Ghana and Uganda to provide one of the first empirical studies on the topic Humanity in Crisis David Hollenbach,2019-10-01 The major humanitarian crises of recent years are well known the Shoah the killing fields of Cambodia the Rwandan genocide the massacre in Bosnia and the tsunami in Southeast Asia as well as the bloody conflicts in South Sudan Syria and Afghanistan Millions have been killed and many millions more have been driven from their homes the number of refugees and internally displaced persons has reached record levels Could these crises have been prevented Why do they continue to happen This book seeks to understand how humanity itself is in crisis and what we can do about it Hollenbach draws on the values that have shaped major humanitarian initiatives over the past century and a half such as the commitments of the International Committee of the Red Cross Oxfam Doctors Without Borders as well as the values of diverse religious traditions including Catholicism to examine the scope of our responsibilities and practical solutions to these global crises He also explores the economic and political causes of these tragedies and uncovers key moral issues for both policy makers and for practitioners working in humanitarian agencies and faith communities

The Planetary Emergency Kent D. Shifferd, 2021-01-13 Earth and its inhabitants face an unprecedented crisis the human caused destruction of the planet's life support systems Deteriorating climate bringing super storms mass forest fires melting glaciers droughts extreme heat and rising seas a decline in food production soil loss water pollution and declining fisheries all threaten the future of life on earth with a looming extinction event not seen for 60 million years Beginning in the 17th century we developed a civilization based on radical materialism exploitation of natural resources and the myth of endless economic growth For all its technological wonders this hypercivilization has proven unsustainable This book explores ways we can create an ecocivilization compatible with the laws and limits of nature a new way of living already developing with new technologies new forms of social organization and a new story about ourselves and the Earth

Talking Book Topics, 2016 Ideas, Institutions, and Interests Peter W.B. Phillips, David Castle, 2022-03-31 Canada's thirteen provinces and territories are significant actors in Canadian society directly shaping cultural political and economic domains Regions also play a key role in creating diversity within innovative activity The role of provinces and territories in setting science technology and innovation policy is however notably underexplored Ideas Institutions and Interests examines each province and territory to offer real world insights into the complexity and opportunities of regionally differentiated innovation policy in a pan continental system Contributing scholars detail the distinctive ways in which provinces and territories articulate ideas and interests through their institutions programs and policies Many of the contributing authors have engaged first hand with either micro or macro level policy innovation and are innovation leaders in their own right providing invaluable perspectives on the topic Exploring the vital role of provinces in the last thirty years of science technology and innovation policy development and implementation Ideas Institutions and Interests is an insightful book that places innovation policy in the context of multilevel governance
