

#1 PROLOGUE/WE DANCE

Thunder roars and lightning flashes. A LITTLE GIRL cries out in terror and the adults begin to tell her a story in order to soothe her.

MAMA

There is an island where rivers run deep.

TONTON

Where the sea sparkling in the sun earns it the name "Jewel of the Antilles."

WOMAN 2

An island where the poorest of peasants labor.

DANIEL

And the wealthiest of grands hommes play.

ARMAND

Two different worlds on one island

ANDREA

The grands hommes, with their pale brown skins and their French ways, owners of the land and masters of their own fates.

MAN 1

And the peasants, black as night, eternally at the mercy of the wind and the sea...

MAN 2

Who pray constantly... to the Gods.

The STORYTELLERS appeal to the GODS. The dance begins.

MAMA

ASAKA, GROW ME A GARDEN.

TONTON

PLEASE AGWE, DON'T FLOOD MY GARDEN.

ANDREA, WOMAN 1, WOMAN 2

ERZULIE, WHO WILL MY LOVE BE?

ALL (EXCEPT TI MOUNE, PAPA GE)

PAPA GE, DON'T COME AROUND ME.

MAMA

Ah, such powerful, such temperamental gods rule our island.

Educational Radio Script Exchange, Gertrude Golden Broderick, 1946 Radio Script Catalog Gertrude Golden Broderick, 1950 Beyond Alterity: Contemporary Indian Fiction and the Neoliberal Script Shakti Jaising, 2023-09-15 Beyond Alterity contests a core tendency in postcolonial studies as well as emerging critiques of neoliberalism to assume that nations of the Global South are categorically distinct from their counterparts in the North and that they provide an alternative or even an antidote to the competitive and individualistic cultures of the advanced capitalist world Through a textured analysis of cultural production from contemporary India Shakti Jaising argues that neoliberal capitalism has produced significant continuities in class dynamics and subjective experience across the North South divide continuities that are at least as worthy of our consideration as differences arising from colonialism and its aftereffects The book engages an array of political economic and cultural narratives while focusing in particular on widely circulating Indian English language novels and their audio visual adaptations that demonstrate the growing currency of a neoliberal script extolling values like privatization and deregulation as conduits to both individual growth and national development as well as freedom from poverty With their potent enactments of personal and national maturation contemporary Indian novels and films offer striking illustrations of the imaginative means by which the neoliberal script proliferates even as economic precarity and inequality worsen in India much like elsewhere in the world Whereas literary scholars tend to approach the Indian English novel as an exemplar of resistance from the formerly colonized world Beyond Alterity contends that far from inevitably modelling resistance this genre's contemporary examples instead encapsulate the challenges of disentangling literature from the all pervasive logics and narratives of neoliberal capitalism

Inside Gilligan's Island Sherwood Schwartz, 2011-04-13 While every new TV series has to face some problems no show had to overcome greater obstacles than Gilligan's Island In spite of that no series has achieved greater success as measured by the fact that Gilligan's Island has given rise to three TV movies two animated series and is the most rerun program in the entire history of television Now Sherwood Schwartz creator writer and producer of Gilligan's Island tells the life story of the show from the labor pains of scripting casting and production to its golden years of afternoon reruns Fascinating history that could be known only by the show's creator is enhanced by wonderful photos sketches and other illustrations from the author's personal collection as well as the guest forewords by all seven Castaways An appendix lists plots writers and directors for every episode All this behind the scenes information makes the book a special treat not only for fans but for anyone interested in an inside look at the television industry Ambassadors from the Island of Immortals Zhenping Wang, 2005-08-31 Using recent archaeological findings and little known archival material Wang Zhenping introduces readers to the world of ancient Japan as it was evolving toward a centralized state Competing Japanese tribal leaders engaged in ambassador diplomacy and actively sought Chinese support and recognition to strengthen their positions at home and to exert military influence on southern Korea They requested among other things the bestowal of Chinese insignia official titles gold seals and bronze mirrors Successive Chinese courts used the bestowal or denial of the insignia to conduct geopolitics in East Asia Wang explains in detail the rigorous criteria of the Chinese and Japanese courts in the selection of diplomats and how the two prepared for missions abroad He journeys with a party of Japanese diplomats from their tearful farewell party to hardship on the high seas to their arrival amidst the splendors of Yangzhou and Changan and the Sui Tang court The depiction of these colorful events is combined with a sophisticated analysis of premodern diplomacy using the key concept of mutual self interest and a discussion of two major modes of diplomatic communication court reception and the exchange of state letters Wang reveals how the parties involved conveyed diplomatic messages by making accepting or rejecting court ceremonial arrangements Challenging the traditional view of China s tributary system he argues that it was not a unilateral tool of hegemony but rather a game of interest and power in which multiple partners modified the rules depending on changing historical circumstances Once a Week Eneas Sweetland Dallas,1862 Once a Week S.
