The Artistry of Aeschylus and Zeami Mae J. Smethurst, 2014-07-14 By means of a cross cultural analysis of selected examples of early Japanese and early Greek drama Mae Smethurst enhances our appreciation of each form While using the methods of a classicist to increase our understanding of no as literary texts she also demonstrates that the fifteenth century treatises of Zeami an important playwright actor critic and teacher of no offer fresh insight into Aeschylus use of actors language and various elements of stage presentation Relatively little documentation apart from the texts of the plays is available for the Greek theater of the fifth century B C but Smethurst uses documentation on no and evidence from no performances today to suggest how presentations of the Persians could have been so successful despite the play s lack of dramatic confrontation Aeschylean theater resembles that of Zeami in creating its powerful emotional and aesthetic effect through a coherent organization of structural elements Both playwrights used such methods as the gradual intensification of rhythmic and musical effects an increase in the number and complexity of the actors movements and a progressive focusing of attention on the main actors and on costumes masks and props during the course of the play Originally published in 1989 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Entangled Fictions Suvadip Sinha, 2022-08-26 Entangled Fictions Nonhuman Animals in an Indian World studies the ethical and affective relationships between human and nonhuman animals in Indian fictional worlds While drawing upon existing theoretical and philosophical texts with nonhumanist underpinnings Entangled Fictions argues that the corpus is limited epistemologically and politically when it comes to their examinations of the nonhuman in India Deeply influenced by the political existential expediencies of our times the book traverses several genres shifts from fictional to anecdotal and transitions from autobiographical to spectra in effort to introduce readers to fictional worlds marked by human nonhuman fluidity and trans species contiguity that was imagined and lived much before the telos of human extinction became either a global or local concern

Modern Indian Literature as Cosmopolis Didier Coste, 2024-10-09 This book redefines modern Indian literature from a cosmopolitan comparative perspective inclusive of literature in English from India and the diaspora in native languages and works by non Indians It shows how since the mid 19th century Indian literary modernity pursued the conjunction of the sensuous and ethical spiritual that characterized its three traditions Sanskrit Persian and folk culture while the encounter both receptive and oppositional with the West vastly expanded the Indian literary sphere Aesthetics and ethics are not antithetical in the Indian cultural space but the quest for an exclusive Indian identity versus universalist approaches offsets concerns for social justice as well as enjoyable embodied communication The literary constellation in many languages now formed in and around India can be better apprehended as a virtual Cosmopolis a commonwealth of elaborate emotions The versatile figure of Hanuman metaphorically flies across this Ocean of Stories to make us discover new worlds of experience Yearning For Beauty Prafulla Chaulia,2024-03-19 I would not be fulfilling the purpose of this book if I did not at the same time reveal my own innermost feelings Rousseau in his autobiography Confessions Inlays of Subjectivity Nikhil Govind,2019-08-24 Inlays of Subjectivity is an incisive exposition of the theme of subjectivity and selfhood in modern Indian literature Scholarship in Indian literary studies tends to be divided along the lines of region language chronology class and caste This book traverses and connects these contentious lines to examine some of the most influential literary texts to emerge from India in the last hundred years It analyses literary expressions of intense emotionality suffering humiliation creativity and strife while inhabiting the linkages between justice speech and affect Nikhil Govind interprets a range of influential novelists such as Rabindranath Tagore and Saratchandra Chatterjee Bengali Agyeya Hindi Ismat Chughtai Urdu Krishna Sobti Hindi Urmila Pawar Marathi and K R Meera Malayalam to unearth narrative continuities of reflexive subject positions in relation to ongoing debates around free speech and egalitarianism The Quiz Book for BFFs Helaine Becker,2012-10 Are you and your BFF meant to be Find out in this awesome quiz book for best friends Can you keep a secret Do you always know the right things to say to cheer up a friend And most important of all can you throw the best sleepover ever If you answered yes to any of these you may just be the best friend ever If you aren't sure then it's time to crack open The Quiz Book for BFFs and find out what you're made of Chock full of quizzes this book is the humorously foolproof way for young readers to find out if they are BFF material and more importantly how to recognize their own BFFs when they find them The News Event Francis Cody,2023-04-05 In the hypermediated world of Tamil Nadu Francis Cody studies how news events are made Not merely the act of representing events with words or images a news event is the reciprocal relationship between the events being reported in the news and the event of the news coverage itself In The News Event Francis Cody focuses on how imaginaries of popular sovereignty have been remade through the production and experience of such events Political sovereignty is thoroughly mediated by the production of news and subjects invested in the idea of democracy are remarkably reflexive about the role of publicly circulating images and texts in the very constitution of their subjectivity The law comes to stand as both a limit and positive condition in this process of event making where acts of legal and extralegal repression of publication can also become the stuff of news about news makers When the subjects of news inhabit multiple participant roles in the unfolding of public events when the very technologies of recording and circulating events themselves become news the act of representing a political event becomes difficult to disentangle from that of participating in it This Cody argues is the crisis of contemporary news making the news can no longer claim exteriority to the world on which it reports My Country Is Literature Chandrahas Choudhury,2021-11-30 A book is only one text but it is many books It is a different book for each of its readers My Anna Karenina is not your Anna Karenina your A House for Mr Biswas is not the one on my shelf When we think of a favourite book we recall not only the shape of the story the characters who touched our hearts the rhythm and texture of the sentences We recall our own circumstances when we read it where we bought it and for how much what kind of joy or solace it provided how scenes from the story began to intermingle with scenes from our life how it roused us to anger or indignation or allowed us to make our peace with some great private discord This is the second life of the book its life in our life In his early twenties the novelist Chandrahas Choudhury found himself in the position of most young people who want to write impractical hard up ill at ease in the world Like most people who love to read his most radiant hours were inside the pages of a book Seeking to combine his love of writing with his love of reading he became an adept of a trade that is mainly transacted lying down that is he became a book reviewer Pleasure independence aesthetic rapture even a modest livelihood all these were the rewards of being a worker bee of literature ingesting the output of the publishers of the world in great quantities and trying to explain in the pages of newspapers and magazines exactly what makes a book leave a mark on the soul Even as Choudhury s own novels began to be published he continued to write about other writers books his contemporaries at home and abroad the great Indian writers of the past the relationship of the reading life in particular the novel to selfhood and democracy all the ways in which literature sings the truths of the human heart My Country Is Literature brings together the best of his literary criticism a long train of perceptive essays on writers as diverse as VS Naipaul and Orhan Pamuk Gandhi and Nehru Bibhutibhushan Bandyopadhyay and Jhumpa Lahiri The book also contains an introductory essay describing Choudhury s book saturated years as a young writer in Mumbai the joys and sorrows and stratagems of the book reviewer s trade and the ways in which literature is made as much by readers as by writers Delightfully punctuated with 15 portraits of writers by the artist Golak Khandual My Country Is Literature is essential reading for everyone who believes that books are the most beautiful things in life Xeno Politics Theresa Morris,2010-04-03 Xeno Politics Men in Black The Alien and ETs of UFOlogy and Exo Politics This is the introduction The Dramatic Works of Wycherley, Congreve, Vanbrugh, and Farquhar William Wycherley,1840 The Survivors Mode Anthony McMaryion,2018-07-10 Its years later in her life She thought felt and believed she had gotten over and had gotten past wanting to be a daddys girl but she kept remembering and reliving how something in her daddy daughter relationship was needed yet wasnt there didnt show up and never did happen or was taken away preventing her from having the daddy daughter relationship she so desired The Politics of Modern

Indian Language Literature MK Raghavendra, 2024-04-16 Indian literature is produced in a wealth of languages but there is an asymmetry in the exposure the writing gets which owes partly to the politics of translation into English This book represents the first comprehensive political scrutiny of the concerns and attitudes of Indian language literature after 1947 to cover such a wide range including voices from the cultural margins of the nation like Kashmiri and Manipuri that of women alongside those of minority and marginalised communities In examining the politics of the writing especially in relation to concerns like nationhood caste tradition and modernity postcoloniality gender issues and religious conflict the book goes beyond the declared ideology of each writer to get at covert significations pointing to widely shared but often unacknowledged biases The book is deeply analytical but lucid and jargon free and to those unfamiliar with the writers it introduces a new keenness into Indian literary criticism to make its objects exciting As Ever Joanne Kyger, 2002-07-30 This collection of Joanne Kyger's work reveals her as one of the major experimenters hybridizers and visionaries of poetry Kyger is a poet of place with a strong voice delicate graceful and never wasteful her poems explore themes of friendship love community and morality and draw on Native American myth as well as Asian religion and philosophy Kyger's love for poetry manifests itself in a grander scheme of consciousness expansion and lesson but always in the realm of the everyday Edited with a foreword by Michael Rothenberg and with an introduction by poet David Meltzer this book is a marvelous overview of a wonderfully challenging and important poet Absolutely Nothing Darielys Tejera, 2009-06-04 The purpose of this book is to give hope to those going through the same situation as Ms Tejera once did To put out something in which people can relate to to have others be aware that suicide does occur it does happen and no one is alone in it Some people have gifts while others have to find their meaning I realized my gifts and found my purpose which was to help someone else There for I decided to write this book I think that is why we are all here the purpose we serve in our life through some time or another through some way shape or form is to save someone else whether you know it or not Works George Farquhar, 1728
