One Wild Bird at a Time Bernd Heinrich, 2016-04-12 Unique encounters with wild birds from the acclaimed scientist and a dedicated watcher happy to knock down the fourth wall of zoology The Wall Street Journal In his modern classics One Man's Owl and Mind of the Raven Bernd Heinrich has written memorably about his relationships with wild ravens and a great horned owl In One Wild Bird at a Time Heinrich returns to his great love close day to day observations of individual wild birds There are countless books on bird behavior but Heinrich argues that some of the most amazing bird behaviors fall below the radar of what most birds do in aggregate Heinrich's passionate observations that superbly mix memoir and science lead to fascinating questions and sometimes startling discoveries The New York Times Book Review A great crested flycatcher while bringing food to the young in their nest is attacked by the other flycatcher nearby Why A pair of Northern flickers hammering their nest hole into the side of Heinrich's cabin deliver the opportunity to observe the feeding competition between siblings and to make a related discovery about nest cleaning One of a clutch of redstart warbler babies fledges out of the nest from twenty feet above the ground and lands on the grass below It can't fly What will happen next Heinrich looks closely with his trademark hands and knees science at its most engaging delivering what can only be called psychological marvels of knowing The Boston Globe An engaging memoir of the opportunities for doing scientific research without leaving one's own backyard Kirkus Reviews

A Naturalist at Large Bernd Heinrich, 2018-05-08 Some of the world's greatest writings on birds insects trees elephants and more by a scientist who richly deserves the comparison to Thoreau The Washington Post Book World From one of the finest scientist writers of our time comes an engaging record of a life spent in close observation of the natural world one that has yielded marvelous mind altering Los Angeles Times insight and discoveries In essays that span several decades Heinrich finds himself at home in Maine where he plays host to visitors from Europe the cluster flies and more welcome guests from Asia ladybugs and as far away as Botswana where he unravels the far reaching ecological consequences of elephants bruising treatment of mopane trees The many fascinating discoveries in Naturalist at Large include the maple sap harvesting habits of red squirrels and the instant flower opening in the yellow iris as a way of ensuring potent pollination Heinrich turns to his great love the ravens some of them close companions for years as he designs a unique experiment to tease out the fascinating parameters of raven intelligence Finally he asks Where does a biologist find hope while delivering an answer that informs and inspires Praise for Bernd Heinrich One of the finest naturalists of our time Edward O Wilson Heinrich's ability to linger and simply be there for the moment when for instance an elderly spider descends from a silken strand to take the insect he offers her is the heart of his appeal The Wall Street Journal Passionate observations that superbly mix memoir and science The New York Times Book Review

A Year of Real and Literary Birds Laura Godfrey, 2025-02-28 A Year of Real and Literary Birds is simultaneously an almanac of bird life a work of interdisciplinary literary scholarship and a chronicle of family life The book paints an intimate portrait of a place and a diverse cast of authors by bringing to life the birds within landscapes both literary and actual Intertwined within each chapter are animal narratives from a diverse sampling of writers including among others Homer the Brothers Grimm Sarah Orne Jewett William Wordsworth Walt Whitman Emily Dickinson Emily Bront Thomas Pynchon Willa Cather Toni Morrison Marilynne Robinson Gabriel Garcia Marquez Mary Oliver Bronislaw Maj Mourning Dove and repeatedly given Godfrey s background as a Hemingway scholar Ernest Hemingway Using a blend of ecocriticism animal studies close reading and the techniques of creative nonfiction Godfrey unpacks the ways that authors and ornithologists spanning the centuries have tried to bridge the gap between human and nonhuman worlds Birds of the Pacific Northwest John Shewey, Tim

Blount, 2017-03-01 Birding in the Pacific Northwest has never been easier Birds of the Pacific Northwest describes and illustrates more than 400 bird species commonly encountered in Oregon Washington Idaho and British Columbia This comprehensive full color guide is organized to follow the order in which groups and species are presented by the American Union Range maps for each species provide valuable information for identification Chickadee: Criminal Mastermind

Monica Silvie, 2022-06-07 A cheeky chickadee discovers he s not quite who he thinks he is Meet Chickadee Criminal Rapsallion All around bad seed Sure he started out obeying the rules following his parents advice to not go near houses But then winter arrives And it s so much harder to find food So when he spies a vault of gold near a house Chickadee devises a plan to snatch some without getting caught He s the King of Thieves Only hmm the humans seem to want him to visit the vault Maybe Chickadee s not a criminal after all Kids will fall in love with this endearing masked bandit as he slowly figures out what they knew about him all along Inside Animal Hearts and Minds Belinda Recio, 2017-08-01 As Charles Darwin suggested more than a century ago the differences between animals and humans are of degree and not of kind Not long ago ethologists denied that animals had emotions or true intelligence Now we know that rats laugh when tickled magpies mourn as they cover the departed with greenery female whales travel thousands of miles for annual reunions with their gal pals seals navigate by the stars bears hum when happy and crows slide down snowy rooftops for fun In engaging text photographs and infographics Inside Animal Hearts and Minds showcases fascinating and heart warming examples of animal emotion and cognition that will foster wonder and empathy Learn about an orangutan who does macram monkeys that understand the concept of money and rats that choose friendship over food Even language math and logic are no longer exclusive to humans Prairie dogs have their own complex vocabularies to describe human intruders parrots name their chicks sea lions appear capable of deductive thinking akin to a ten year old child s and bears lemurs parrots and other animals demonstrate numerical cognition In a world where a growing body of scientific research is closing the gap between the human and non human Inside Animal Hearts and Minds invites us to change the way we view animals the world and our place in it

Animalities Michael Lundblad, 2017-05-24 New and cutting edge work in animality studies human animal studies and posthumanism Representations of animality continue to proliferate in various kinds of literary and cultural texts This pioneering volume explores the critical interface between animal and animality studies marking out the terrain in relation to twentieth century literature and film The range of texts considered here is intentionally broad answering questions like how do contemporary writers such as Amitav Ghosh Terry Tempest Williams and Indra Sinha help us to think about not only animals but also humans as animals What kinds of creatures are being constructed by contemporary artists such as Patricia Piccinini Alexis Rockman and Michael Pestel How do animality studies animate such diverse texts as the poetry of two women publishing under the name of aMichael Field or an early film by Thomas Edison depicting the electrocution of a circus elephant named Topsy Connecting these issues to fields as diverse as environmental studies and ecocriticism queer theory gender studies feminist theory illness and disability studies postcolonial theory and biopolitics the volume also raises further questions about disciplinarity itself while hoping to inspire further work beyond the human in future interdisciplinary scholarship Key Features 10 provocative case studies focused on representations and discourses of animals and animality in twentieth and twenty first century literature art and film in English New work from both internationally renowned and emerging figures in the burgeoning fields of animality studies human animal studies and posthumanism suggesting innovative and significant new directions to explore Broad introduction to the kinds of questions scholars in the humanities have considered in relation to animals and animality Critical Terms for Animal Studies Lori Gruen, 2018-10-23 Alexandra Horowitz Peter Singer Barbara King Christine Korsgaard and others explore the core concepts of this interdisciplinary field Recommended Choice Animal Studies is a rapidly growing interdisciplinary field devoted to examining understanding and critically evaluating the complex relationships between humans and other animals Scholarship in Animal Studies draws on a variety of methodologies to explore these multi faceted relationships in order to help us understand the ways in which other animals figure in our lives and we in theirs Bringing together the work of a group of internationally distinguished scholars Critical Terms for Animal Studies offers distinct voices and diverse perspectives exploring significant concepts and asking important questions What do we mean by anthropocentrism captivity empathy sanctuary and vulnerability and what work do these and other critical terms do in Animal Studies How do we take non human animals seriously not simply as metaphors for human endeavors but as subjects themselves Sure to become an indispensable reference for the field Critical Terms for Animal Studies not only provides a framework for thinking about animals as subjects of their own experiences but also serves as a touchstone to help us think differently about our conceptions of what it means to be human and the impact human activities have on the more than human world The subject of animal studies is at a crucial stage still being mapped out and defining itself and this volume is very useful given its conciseness its all star cast of contributors and its breadth in providing a guide to some of the key ideas Colin Jerolmack New York University Saving Nature One Yard at a Time: How to Protect and Nurture Our Native Species David Deardorff, Kathryn Wadsworth, 2022-05-10 Discover 100 ways to support endangered plant and wildlife species in your community and beyond David Deardorff and Kathryn Wadsworth present 100 home projects designed to inspire and empower anyone who wants to help save our native flora and fauna in the face of habitat loss and climate change This book focuses on saving creatures and plants that are especially vulnerable but that can be successfully helped by our efforts such as bees frogs butterflies birds trees and wildflowers Each project meets four crucial criteria 1 it will make a significant difference to the survival of the species 2 has a high likelihood of success 3 is easy to implement and 4 is family friendly The book raises awareness of endangered species that readers can help by undertaking projects unique to their bioregion Examples include building an amphibian house for salamanders raising tadpoles creating nesting sites for bees and much more Saving Nature One Yard at a Time is an inspirational and practical compendium that will give readers the knowledge and tools they need to take an active role in nurturing the world around us no matter we live Audubon at Sea Christoph Irmscher, Richard J. King, 2024-05-31 This one of a kind lavishly illustrated anthology celebrates Audubon's connection to the sea through both his words and art The American naturalist John James Audubon 1785 1851 is widely remembered for his iconic paintings of American birdlife But as this anthology makes clear Audubon was also a brilliant writer and his keen gaze took in far more than creatures of the sky Culled from his published and unpublished writings Audubon at Sea explores Audubon's diverse observations of the ocean the coast and their human and animal inhabitants With Audubon expert Christoph Irmscher and scholar of the sea Richard J King as our guides we set sail from the humid expanses of the American South to the shores of England and the chilly landscapes of the Canadian North We learn not only about the diversity of sea life Audubon documented birds sharks fish and whales but also about life aboard ship travel in early America Audubon's work habits and the origins of beloved paintings As we face an unfathomable loss of seabirds today Audubon's warnings about the fragility of birdlife in his time are prescient and newly relevant Charting the course of Audubon's life and work from his birth in Haiti to his death in New York City Irmscher and King's sweeping introduction and carefully drawn commentary confront the challenges Audubon's legacy poses for us today including his participation in American slavery and the thousands of birds he killed for his art Rounded out by hundreds of historical and ornithological notes and beautiful illustrations and with a foreword by distinguished photographer and conservationist Subhankar Banerjee Audubon at Sea is the most comprehensively annotated collection of Audubon's work ever published More Philadelphia Murals and the Stories They Tell Jane Golden, Robin Rice, Natalie Pompilio, 2006 Featured here is the remarkable story of an unlikely artistic collaboration between boys who live in a residential facility and men who lived in a maximum security state correctional facility and the eight mile long mural they created Country Life, 1906 Country Life Illustrated, 1906 Animals, 1911 Bulletin American Game Protective Association, 1914 Our Dumb Animals, 1911 Forest and Stream, 1917 The Game Breeder and Sportsman, 1917 A History of the Earth and Animated Nature.
