The Favor Adele Griffin, 2023-06-13 From National Book Award finalist Adele Griffin an insightful and warmhearted story of two very different women who make an unexpected connection when one decides to carry a baby for the other At I ll Have Seconds a high end fairytale vintage dress shop in Manhattan Nora Hammond loves nothing better than pairing a rare find with the perfect client At home Nora grapples with the bleaker reality of enormous debt a tiny apartment and ever dwindling hope that she and her husband Jacob will have a family of their own When socialite Evelyn Elliot charges into Nora's life the women spark an immediate connection and Nora is jettisoned into the heady whirl of New York's moneyed elite As Evelyn's stylist and confidante Nora needs to learn all new rules of engagement for the uber wealthy But it isn't until Evelyn decides her next cause is to carry a baby for Nora that these rules and this unlikely friendship are tested A contemporary story that celebrates alternative routes to family The Favor is an incisive examination of what it means to long for a child and what relationships cost us and what they're worth

Grace Sticks Kristina Robb-Dover, 2013-10-10 Even on a bumper sticker grace is irresistible Grace Sticks The Bumper Sticker Gospel for Restless Souls is light hearted spiritual memoir and theological travel guidance for restless souls looking for more direction more truth and more life Robb-Dover invites readers to reflect on how the bumper stickers they affix to their cars or entertain at traffic lights are themselves spiritual aspirations of sorts pointing to One who is the Way the Truth and the Life In their meanderings with bumper stickers as pit stops readers will laugh cry be provoked and be inspired to look for God in the most seemingly frivolous and unlikely of places They'll discover in the process there's as much grace to be found in the journeying itself as in the destination

Learning in Social Context: The Nature and Profit of Living in Groups for Development Ildikó Király, David Buttelmann, 2017-05-25 One of the distinctive features of humans is their unique sociality Humans live in organized societies that are characterized by a high level of interdependence of group members in various aspects of life ranging from the economic phenomenon of labour division to providing emotional support to others Under these circumstances the capacity to track social connections within and between groups has great adaptive value in managing everyday life We may understand the importance and adaptive value of tracking the scope of culturally shared knowledge if we consider the importance of cultural norms in guiding behaviour To become a competent member of their cultural group one must be able to conform to the group s specific behavioural norms and to accumulate culturally shared knowledge Acquiring this knowledge is essential for successful social interactions In contrast to current dominant explanatory theories emphasizing that social category formation is simply rooted in humans need to belong and affiliate with a group the aim of this e book is to provide evidence that in addition to its affiliative role children form social categories for epistemic purposes We show that children use specific cues like kinship patterns of resource allocation and consensus to understand group cohesion Section 1 Once children figured out who is in group and who is out group they show a significant in group bias in attention acting and learning Section 2 Yet this in group bias can be attenuated by induced synchronous behavior Section 3
