Online Book Power Politics Asias Contested Waters:

Power Politics in Asia's Contested Waters Enrico Fels, Truong-Minh Vu, 2016-02-19 This volume offers a comprehensive and empirically rich analysis of regional maritime disputes in the South China Sea SCS By discussing important aspects of the rise of China's maritime power such as territorial disputes altered perceptions of geo politics and challenges to the US led regional order the authors demonstrate that a regional power shift is taking place in Asia Pacific The volume also provides in depth discussions of the responses to Chinese actions by SCS claimants as well as by important non claimant actors

Chinese Assertiveness in the South China Sea Richard Q. Turcsányi, 2017-10-27 This book offers an assessment of China's assertive foreign policy behavior with a special focus on Chinese policies in the South China Sea SCS By providing a detailed account of the events in the SCS and by analyzing power dynamics in the region it identifies the driving forces behind China's assertive foreign policy Considering China's power on a domestic as well as an international level it examines a number of different sources of hard and soft power including military economics geopolitics and domestic legitimacy The author demonstrates that Chinese assertiveness in the SCS can be explained not only by increases in China's power but also by effective reactions to other actors foreign policy changes The book will appeal to scholars in international relations especially those interested in a better understanding of South China Sea developments China's political power and foreign policy and East Asian international affairs

The Global Society and Its Enemies Ludger Kühnhardt, 2017-05-05 This book discusses contemporary constellations of international politics and global transformation It offers guidance on how to conceptualize the complexity of current global changes and practical policy advice in order to promote an open global society In the light of today's challenges the author re interprets the main argument of the philosopher Karl Popper in The Open Society and Its Enemies Based on this framework and new empirical evidence the book discusses the thesis of an ongoing Third World War triggered by fundamental deficits in nation building occurring primarily within states and not between them and accelerated by asymmetric forms of warfare and Islamist totalitarianism The book also explores various threats to the global order such as the paradox of borders as barriers and bridges the global effects of the youth bubble in many developing countries and the misuse of religious interpretation for the use of political violence Lastly the author identifies advocates and supporters of a liberal multilateral and open order and argues for a reinvention of the Western world to contribute to a revival of a liberal global order based on mutual respect and joint leadership

Unresolved Border, Land and Maritime Disputes in Southeast Asia Alfred Gerstl, Mária Strašáková, 2016-11-14 Unresolved Border Land and Maritime Disputes in Southeast Asia edited by Alfred Gerstl and Mária Strašáková sheds light on various unresolved and lingering territorial disputes in Southeast Asia and their reflection in current inter state relations in the region The authors academics from Europe and East Asia particularly address the territorial disputes in the South China Sea and those between Vietnam and Cambodia and Thailand and Cambodia They apply International Relations theories in a wider regional and comparative perspective The empirical analyses are embedded in a concise theoretical discussion of the principles of sovereignty territorial integrity and borders Furthermore the book discusses the role of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN and other multi track mechanisms in border conflict mediation Contributors are Petra And lov Alica Kizekov Filip Kraus Josef Falko Loher Padraig Lysaght J rg Thiele Richard Turcs nyi Truong Minh Vu and Zden k K

Knowing the Salween River: Resource Politics of a Contested Transboundary River Carl Middleton, Vanessa Lamb, 2019-08-12 This open access book focuses on the Salween River shared by China Myanmar and Thailand that is increasingly at the heart of pressing regional development debates The basin supports the livelihoods of over 10 million people and within it there is great socio economic cultural and political diversity The basin is witnessing intensifying dynamics of resource extraction alongside large dam construction conservation and development intervention that is unfolding within a complex terrain of local national and transnational governance With a focus on the contested politics of water and associated resources in the Salween basin this book offers a collection of empirical case studies that highlights local knowledge and perspectives Given the paucity of grounded social science studies in this contested basin this book provides conceptual insights at the intersection of resource governance development and politics of knowledge relevant to researchers policy makers and practitioners at a time when rapid change is underway Fills a significant knowledge gap on a major river in Southeast Asia with empirical and conceptual contributions Inter disciplinary perspective and by a range of writers including academics policy makers and civil society researchers the majority from within Southeast Asia New policy insights on a river at the cross roads of a major political and development transition

China's Foreign Policy Contradictions Tim Nicholas Rühlig, 2021-06-17 China s rise to great power status is indisputable but can it shape the future international order This question remains widely debated because China s foreign policy is contradictory Contrary to conventional wisdom this book shows that China does not act from a position of strength but that foreign policy contradictions are the result of the domestic vulnerabilities of the ruling Chinese Communist Party Providing exceptional insights into the considerations behind the opaque institutional structures of Chinese foreign policymaking and decision making it shows that China will not provide a model for a new international system but could undermine the existing order

The Euro-Atlantic Security System in the 21st Century Ryszard Zięba, 2018-04-25 This book examines the evolution of the Euro Atlantic security system from cooperation to rivalry and crisis since the beginning of the 21st century By highlighting the causes manifestations and international consequences of this evolution the author describes a stage of crisis in the security system characterized by increasing rivalry for spheres of influence militarization of policies and the suspension of cooperation due to the growing divergence between the interests of the West now including the Central European states and Russia leading to a subsequent reconfiguration of the world order Adopting a neo realistic approach the author demonstrates that members of the Euro Atlantic security system irrespective of the values they claim to hold are guided in their actions on the international stage by clearly defined interests The first part of the book analyses the nature of the Euro Atlantic security system while the second part illustrates the limited success of Euro Atlantic collaboration for example in combating terrorism Lastly the third part discusses the consequences of the crisis such as the conflict in Ukraine and prospects for the future evolution of the Euro Atlantic security system US-Chinese Strategic Triangles S. Mahmud Ali, 2017-06-07 This book reveals the nature of Sino US strategic competition by examining the influence exerted by major secondary stakeholders e g Japan Russia India the Koreas and ASEAN on the two powers USA and its rival China who consider each other as a source of greatest challenges to their respective interests By adopting strategic triangles as the analytical framework and assessing triangular relational dynamics such as US China Japan or US China Russia the author illustrates how secondary stakeholders advance their own interests by exploiting their respective linkages to the two rivals thereby shaping Sino US competitive dynamics This work adds a regional and multivariable perspective to the understanding of the Indo Pacific s insecurity challenges From Disputed Waters to Seas of Opportunity Clive H. Schofield, 2011

Power and Water in Central Asia Filippo Menga, 2017-12-01 Water is an irreplaceable and transient resource which crosses political boundaries in the form of rivers lakes and groundwater aquifers The collapse of the Soviet Union in 1991 led to the birth of fifteen countries including the five Central Asian republics Kazakhstan Kyrgyzstan Tajikistan Turkmenistan and Uzbekistan When the USSR ceased to exist so did the centralised Soviet resource distribution system that managed the exchange and allocation of water energy and food supplies A whole new set of international relations emerged and the newly formed Central Asian governments had to redefine the policies related to the exchange and sharing of their natural resources This book analyses the role of state power in transboundary water relations It provides an in depth study of the evolution of interstate relations in Central Asia in the field of water from 1991 2015 Taking as a case study the planned construction of the Rogun and Kambarata dams in Tajikistan and Kyrgyzstan the author examines various forms of overt and covert power shaping interstate relations and the way hegemonic and counter hegemonic measures are put in place in an international river basin He argues that the intimate correlation between the concepts of power and hegemony can offer key insights to the analysis and understanding of transboundary water relations While the analytical focus is placed on state power the book demonstrates that hegemonic and counter hegemonic tactics represent the ways in which power is wielded and observed Offering fresh theoretical interpretations to the subjects of power and counter hegemony in the Aral Sea basin this book puts forward the original circle of hydro hegemony an analytical framework in which the various forms of power are connective in the function of hegemony It will be of interest to scholars in the field of water and environmental politics and Central Asian Studies Contested Waters Amit Ranjan, 2020-09-02 This book examines India s transboundary river water disputes with its South Asian riparian neighbours Pakistan Bangladesh Nepal and Bhutan It explores the history of disputes and cooperation over the transboundary river water in this region as well as discusses current disputes and future concerns It analyses how and why existing transboundary river water sharing treaties between India and its South Asian riparian neighbours are confronted with challenges The book indicates that India's transboundary river water disputes with its South Asian riparian neighbours are likely to escalate in coming years due to the widening of the demand supply gap in the respective countries It further shows the impact of bilateral relations on the resolution of transboundary river water disputes even as cordial relationships do not always guarantee the absence of river water disputes between riparian states The book looks at some key questions How political are India's transboundary rivers water disputes in South Asia Why do the roots of India's river water disputes with Bangladesh and Pakistan lie in the partition of the British India in 1947 Why are there reservations against India's hydroelectricity projects or allegations of water theft Is it possible to resolve transboundary river water disputes among these South Asian countries This book will greatly interest scholars and researchers working in the areas of river management environmental politics transnationalism water resources politics and international relations security studies peace and conflict studies geopolitics development studies governance and public administration and South Asian studies in addition to policymakers and journalists The Politics of Urban Land in South Asia Urmi

Sengupta, Kenneth Nielsen, 2025-03-18 Cities in South Asia are homes to one of the highest concentrations of people anywhere in the world and the allocation of land and urban resources and the benefits that can be derived from them in this region have become increasingly contested This book explores the politics of urban land in South Asia and the challenges related to their respective urban futures For most people land comes at a premium and as a result conflicts and contestations over land and urban resources are rife in countries such as India Bangladesh Pakistan Sri Lanka and Nepal as witnessed in the many struggles of low income groups and vulnerable or marginalised communities to fight off dispossession or displacement This book maps current challenges shared across national borders and charts out new directions for future research and land policy With contributions from emerging and established authors the book offers a critical accounting of the situation that exists in urban South Asia while also critically engaging with the current challenges and future directions for land use and land politics The book will be useful to students and researchers of public policy development studies economics urban and regional development studies and sociology as well as to policy makers real estate professionals and commercial firms engaged in property market real estate study in Asia Ethnographies of Power Tristan Loloum, Simone

Abram, Nathalie Ortard, 2021-04-01 Energy related infrastructures are crucial to political organization They shape the contours of states and international bodies as well as corporations and communities framing their material existence and their fears and idealisations of the future Ethnographies of Power brings together ethnographic studies of contemporary entanglements of energy and political power Revisiting classic anthropological notions of power it asks how changing energy related infrastructures are implicated in the consolidation extension or subversion of contemporary political regimes and discovers what they tell us about politics today Ecologies of Urbanism in India Anne M. Rademacher, K.

Sivaramakrishnan, 2013-03-01 Essays follow rapidly proliferating and resource intensive Indian urbanism in everyday environments Case studies on nature conservation in cities urban housing and slum development waste management urban planning and contestations over the quality of air water and sanitation in Delhi and Mumbai illuminate urban ecology perspectives throughout the twentieth century The collection highlights how struggles over the environment and one's quality of life in urban centers are increasingly framed in terms of their future place in a landscape of global sustainability The text brings historical particularity and ethnographic nuance to questions of urban ecology and offers novel insight into theoretical and practical debates on urbanism and sustainability

Water, Power and Identity Rutgerd Boelens, 2015-04-10 This book addresses two major issues in natural resource management and political ecology the complex conflicting relationship between communities managing water on the ground and national global policy making institutions and elites and how grassroots defend against encroachment question the self-evidence of State market based water governance and confront coercive and participatory boundary policing normal vs abnormal The book examines grassroots building of multi-layered water rights territories and State market and expert networks vigorous efforts to reshape these water societies in their own image seizing resources and/or aligning users identities and rights systems within dominant frameworks Distributive and cultural politics entwine It is shown that attempts to modernize and normalize users through universalized water culture rational water use and de-politicized interventions deepen water security problems rather than alleviating them However social struggles negotiate and enforce water rights User collectives challenge imposed water rights and identities constructing new ones to strategically acquire water control autonomy and re-moralize their waterscapes The author shows that battles for material control include the right to culturally define and politically organize water rights and territories Andean illustrations from Peru Ecuador Bolivia and Chile from peasant indigenous life stories to international policy making highlight open and subsurface hydro-social networks They reveal how water justice struggles are political projects against indifference and that engaging in re-distributive policies and defying truth politics extends context particular water rights definitions and governance forms

Liquid Relations Dik Roth, Rutgerd Boelens, Margreet Zwarteveen, 2005 Annotation Proposals to address water shortages are usually based on two assumptions water is a commodity that can be bought and sold states or other centralized entities should control access to water This book criticizes these assumptions from a socio-legal perspective Eleven case studies examine laws and distribution in regions around the world

Kretek Capitalism Marina Welker, 2024-03-19 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press's Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more Indonesia is the world's second largest cigarette market two out of three men smoke and clove-laced tobacco cigarettes called kretek make up 95 percent of the market Each year more than 250 000 Indonesians die of tobacco-related diseases To account for the staggering success of this lethal industry Kretek Capitalism examines how kretek manufacturers have adopted global tobacco technologies and enlisted Indonesians to labor on their behalf in fields and factories at retail outlets and social gatherings and online The book charts

how Sampoerna a Philip Morris subsidiary uses contracts competitions and gender age and class hierarchies to extract labor from workers influencers artists students retailers and consumers Critically engaging nationalist claims about the commodity s cultural heritage and the jobs it supports Marina Welker shows how global capitalism has transformed both kretek and the labor required to make and promote it

The Ethics of Staying Mubbashir A. Rizvi, 2019-05-07 The military coup that brought General Pervez Musharraf to power as Pakistan s tenth president resulted in the abolition of a century old sharecropping system that was rife with corruption In its place the military regime implemented a market reform policy of cash contract farming Ostensibly meant to improve living conditions for tenant farmers the new system instead mobilized one of the largest most successful land rights movements in South Asia still active today In The Ethics of Staying Mubbashir A Rizvi presents an original framework for understanding this major social movement called the Anjuman Mazarin Punjab AMP This group of Christian and Muslim tenant sharecroppers against all odds successfully resisted Pakistan military s bid to monetize state owned land making a powerful moral case for land rights by invoking local claims to land and a broader vision for subsistence rights The case of AMP provides a unique lens through which to examine state and society relations in Pakistan one that bridges literatures from subaltern studies military and colonial power and the language of claim making Rizvi also offers a glimpse of Pakistan that challenges its standard framing as a hub of radical militancy by opening a window into to the everyday struggles that are often obscured in the West s terror discourse

Water, Knowledge and the Environment in Asia Ravi Baghel, Lea Stepan, Joseph K.W. Hill, 2017-03-31 The dramatic transformation of our planet by human actions has been heralded as the coming of the new epoch of the Anthropocene Human relations with water raise some of the most urgent questions in this regard The starting point of this book is that these changes should not be seen as the result of monolithic actions of an undifferentiated humanity but as emerging from diverse ways of relating to water in a variety of settings and knowledge systems With its large population and rapid demographic and socioeconomic change Asia provides an ideal context for examining how varied forms of knowledge pertaining to water encounter and intermingle with one another While it is difficult to carry out comprehensive research on water knowledge in Asia due to its linguistic political and cultural fragmentation the topic nevertheless has relevance across boundaries By using a carefully chosen selection of case studies in a variety of locations and across diverse disciplines the book demonstrates commonalities and differences in everyday water practices around Asia while challenging both romantic presumptions and Eurocentrism Examples presented include class differences in water use in the megacity of Delhi India the impact of radiation on water practices in Fukushima Japan the role of the King in hydraulic practices in Thailand and ritual irrigation in Bali Indonesia

The Politics of Marketising Asia T. Carroll, D. Jarvis, 2014-05-29 Economic growth continues to transform the economic and political landscape of Asia Equally the policies now being adopted to promote private sector participation re structure state entities and reduce the presence of the state in the provision of public goods and services are tied to fundamental transformations in

Asia's state-society relations The global cast of contributors present a timely analysis of the impact of neo-liberalism on Asia's developmental policies and the organisation of Asian states and markets Ironically the developmental state that has historically driven Asia's rapid economic transformation is now threatened by an increasingly dominant neoliberal agenda that aims to roll back the state in the name of market fundamentalism
