The Role of the Public Bureaucracy in Policy Implementation in Five ASEAN Countries Jon S. T. Quah, 2016-02-12 This pioneering book addresses an important gap in the literature by comparing the role of the public bureaucracies in policy implementation in Indonesia Malaysia the Philippines Singapore and Vietnam It highlights the importance of the policy context especially the commitment of the government in allocating the necessary resources and the support of the implementers as well as the public bureaucracy s effectiveness as the critical factors responsible for effective policy implementation The comparative analysis shows that the public bureaucracies in Singapore and Malaysia are more effective in policy implementation than their counterparts in Indonesia the Philippines and Vietnam because of their favourable policy contexts and higher level of organizational effectiveness The focus on policy context and the public bureaucracy s role in the policy making process and its implementation of two ASEAN policies will be of interest to policymakers civil servants scholars and students concerned with enhancing policy implementation in the ASEAN countries

Cybersecurity and EU Law Theodoros Karathanasis, 2024-11-22 Cybersecurity is set to be one of the dominant themes in EU governance in the coming years and EU law has begun to adapt to the challenges presented by security with the adoption of the Network and Information Security NIS Directive This book explores the binding effects of the legal instruments and analyzes the impact of the constraining factors originating from NIS related domestic policies across Finland France Greece Ireland Luxembourg and Poland upon the transposition of the NIS Directive Combining insights from law and political science the book offers a comparative empirical analysis of national policies and regulations regarding network and information security as well as the national legal framework deriving from the NIS Directive s transposition The book argues that the more the Directives offer a regulatory leeway to EU Member States for the transposition of their content the more the preservation of national interests by EU Member States affects the uniform application of directives across the EU Highlighting the need to go beyond the study of the legal compliance of European directives the volume offers a new perspective on the interests of Member States and European law bridging the gap between the politics and law of European integration It will be of interest to students academics and practitioners with an interest in EU Law and cybersecurity

Friendly Enemies Stefan Berger,Norman Laporte,2010 During the Cold War Britain had an astonishing number of contacts and connections with one of the Soviet Bloc s most hard line regimes the German Democratic Republic The left wing of the British Labour Party and the Trade Unions often had closer ties with communist East Germany than the Communist Party of Great Britain CPGB There were strong connections between the East German and British churches women s movements and peace movements influential conservative politicians and the Communist leadership in the GDR had working relationships and lucrative contracts existed between business leaders in Britain and their counterparts in East Germany Based on their extensive knowledge of the documentary sources the authors provide the first comprehensive study of Anglo East German relations in this surprisingly under researched field They examine the complex motivations underlying different political groups engagement with the GDR and offer new and interesting insights into British political culture during the Cold War An Organizational Approach to Public Governance Morten Egeberg, Jarle Trondal, 2018-10-04

Climate change economic crises migration and terrorism are among the many problems that challenge public governance in modern societies Many of these problems are spanning political and administrative units horizontally vertically and both This makes public governance particularly challenging and turbulent Since public governance mainly takes place through public organizations like international organizations ministries and regulatory agencies this book examines what difference organizational factors make in the governance process The volume launches a general organizational approach to public governance It outlines key theoretical dimensions that cut across governance structures and processes horizontally as well as vertically thus paving the way for integrating separate empirical analyses into a coherent theoretical whole Moreover the organizational independent variables outlined in this book represent classical dimensions in the organization literature that are generic in character This allows for generalizations across time and space The volume also examines organizational design implications By building systematic knowledge on how organizational factors shape governance processes on the one hand and how organizational factors themselves might be deliberately changed on the other the book offers a knowledge base for organizational design Pentagon's South Asia Defence and Strategic Year Book 2010 Col. Harjeet Singh (Retd), 2010 Pentagon's South Asia Defence and Strategic Yearbook is now in its fourth year of publication It covers relevant issues of defence and security military affairs and military technology written by experts and academicians themselves These issues are important for defence services foreign ministers and security experts spread among defence units strategic think tanks government organisations public sector units national and international technology manufacturers and diplomats and bureaucrats The book has been extremely well received and its circulation has grown tremendously in the last three years It has been regularly reviewed in the USI Journal and other reputed journals and magazines As The Book Review has commented In comparison to the other yearbooks this book stands out due to the well documented opinion peices by the experienced people from the armed forces think tanks and academics It creates a space for dialogue on important topics
