The Inclusive Classroom Margo A. Mastropieri, Thomas E. Scruggs, 2010 This text offers a wealth of practical and proven strategies for successfully including students with disabilities in general education classrooms The text provides targeted strategies for the subject and skill areas as well as special needs of individual students with a strong focus on instructional strategies applied to specific student need areas An overall theme of effective differentiated instruction is infused throughout the text relating to those practices that are most closely aligned with academic success The text is unique in its three part coverage of 1 the fundamentals of teaching students with special needs 2 effective general teaching practices and 3 inclusive practices in specific subject areas With a strong focus on instructional strategies and how they are applied to specific student need areas the text goes further by featuring more specific strategies than any other text and extensive information about the most effective strategies available and when and how to use them This strong focus instructs pre service teachers and other education personnel on how they can implement in the classroom specific strategies to address a very wide range of grade levels skill levels academic content areas and extensive and very specific information on strategies teachers can use in the areas of most concern to them e g behavior management handling student confrontations promoting literacy memory for school content motivation to learn maintaining student attention adapting assessment and improving test scores and specific strategies for adapting specific lessons in math science social studies and career and technical education Specifically written for pre service or in service special education teachers who will work with general education teachers in K 12 classrooms the text is also relevant for school psychologists counselors support staff and other school personnel interested in helping all students succeed in the classroom Assessing and Correcting Reading and Writing Difficulties Thomas G. Gunning,2002 This text provides numerous examples and thorough coverage of procedures for assessing and instructing struggling readers of all ages In keeping with current theory the text emphasizes prevention and early intervention It is based on the premise that student performance is variable and that assessment and instruction are planned and modified to meet the varied needs and levels of students Gunning does not subscribe to a medical model that emphasizes deficiencies but rather focuses on what students can do This text calls for inclusion not exclusion but recognizes that struggling learners need expert carefully planned assessment and instruction Assessment coverage includes a grounding in basic concepts of tests and measurement While formal standardized measures are described emphasis is placed upon informal but highly regarded techniques such as the informal reading inventory miscue analysis running records observation think alouds holistic scoring of writing and portfolio assessment In addition to chapters devoted specifically to assessment ways to connect assessment and instruction are mentioned throughout the text Coverage of instructional techniques is thorough and practical Nine chapters are devoted to instructional techniques Journal of Visual Impairment & Blindness ,1982 American Doctoral Dissertations ,1990
