Intellectual Freedom and Social Responsibility in American Librarianship, 1967-1974 Toni Samek, 2017-07-06 Between 1967 and 1974 a number of librarians came together to push for change in the American Library Association They soon prompted a majority of the profession to examine their role in the dissemination and preservation of culture and to ask basic questions about the terrain that the profession defends A particular concern was the limitations to intellectual freedom if any that might arise in the pursuit of other perhaps equally worthy goals The questions raised by this advocacy group were based on a relatively new concept of librarianship social responsibility that was partly an outgrowth of the civil rights and antiwar agitation of the period and partly a continuation of the proud traditions of the alternative press movement in the United States The resulting dissension and turmoil exposed an inherent discrepancy not only between the rhetoric of ideals within the profession and the reality of practice but between librarians as agents of change librarians having a social agenda and professional neutrality or the provision of information for all sides without taking sides These conflicts have never been resolved The reader will find in this book a fully researched presentation of the years of ferment and political infighting that brought the issues into such sharp focus     Literature and the Web Robert Rozema, Allen Webb, 2008 Read the technology book that is about the content not the computer Literature and the Web is a thoughtful nuts and bolts guide for any English teacher looking for effective tools to boost readers engagement and improve their responses to literature     Software and CD-ROM Reviews on File , 1996     Directory of Distance Learning Opportunities Modoc Press, Inc., 2003-02-28 This book provides an overview of current K 12 courses and programs offered in the United States as correspondence study or via such electronic delivery systems as satellite cable or the Internet The Directory includes over 6 000 courses offered by 154 institutions or distance learning consortium members Following an introduction that describes existing practices and delivery methods the Directory offers three indexes Subject Index of Courses Offered by Level Course Level Index Geographic Index All information was supplied by the institutions Entries include current contact information a description of the institution and the courses offered grade level and admission information tuition and fee information enrollment periods delivery information equipment requirements credit and grading information library services and accreditation     Writing and Growing Timothy Horan, 2022-07-11 In this book Dr Timothy Horan presents an original and highly effective writing program whose major goal is to transform high school students into accomplished writers and mature young adults This writing program is innovative rigorous and engaging and was designed with high school students in mind This volume contains a total of twenty original writing projects that represent creative and innovative interpretations of Common Core Writing Standards These projects focus on the worlds of contemporary secondary students exploring such topics as technology literature goals for the future and potential careers Each assignment in this book is full and complete and includes a reproducible outline that presents the assignment to students in a simplified graphical format As students progress through this program they will encounter engaging writing projects that foster growth and anticipate the changes occurring in students lives during this time of development and transition It will also prepare students for the rigors of writing in college career and the unwritten future that awaits all of them Finally Dr Horan issues a call for every secondary school in the United States to create and implement courses singularly devoted to the craft of writing and this book contains the curriculum for that course     Teaching Literature in Virtual Worlds Allen Webb, 2012-03-12 What are the realities and possibilities of utilizing on line virtual worlds as teaching tools for specific literary works Through engaging and surprising
